WEDDING TAKES PLACE IN CHARLOTTE

Of interest to a large circle of friends in this section is the announcement by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Fullbright, of Lake Junaluska, of the marriage of their daughter Miss Flora Mae Fullbright and Wallace Ward, which took place on November 6th at the Myers Park Methodist Church, of Charlotte. The wedding was solemnized at five o'clock in the afternoon, with only a small group of friends attending. The pastor of the church, Rev. Ownby, officiated. The bride wore a small green and black imported wool suit, with black accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of talisman roses, and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Ward had as her only attendant Mrs. A. B. Moss Jr., of Charlotte, who was matron of honor. Mrs. Ward is a graduate of the Western Carolina Teachers College, and for the past year has been teaching in the Canton schools. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ward, of Lake Junaluska. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and has had several law courses.

MRS. W. L. HARDIN HOSTESS TO D. A. R. CHAPTER

The Dorcas Bell Love Chapter, of the Daughters of the American Revolution held the regular November meeting with Mrs. W. L. Hardin at her home on Main Street on Wednesday afternoon. In the absence of the regent, Mrs. James M. Long, vice regent, presided. For the occasion the living rooms were arranged in bowls of autumn leaves and chrysanthemums in blending shades. The paper of the afternoon, was on "Georgia," a continuation of the program on the thirteen original states. It had been prepared by Miss Louise Beville, who was unable to attend, and was read by Mrs. E. B. Camp. The paper was confined to the colonial history of Georgia. Miss Mary Ethel Bailey, of Canton, reviewed the national magazine, reading the president General's message, which told at length of his visit abroad to the various chapters located in Europe. Mrs. Becker also told of her presentation at the English court and her attendance at the coronation. Mrs. W. L. Hardin, chapter chairman for Ellis Island, asked for donations consisting of wool in any lengths, denim, shirting khaki, cotton and line thread, leather, and various other materials, which are annually supplied to Ellis Island by the national Society. Mrs. Long stated that the gift shop of Mrs. W. B. Matthews, a member of the chapter would be open on every Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock from now until Christmas. It was reported that five additional lineage books had been placed in the Waynesville Library, completing the collection. The following were special guests of the afternoon: Miss Louise MacPayden, Mrs. James R. Thomas and Mrs. C. N. Sick.
