

Society - Clubs - Personals

Phone 137

MRS. T. L. GWYN, Editor

Phone 137

LEE DAVIS MARRIES HARIETT HOLDERNESS

Palms, Southern smilax, floor standards of white chrysanthemums and Cathedral candelabra decorated Howard Memorial church on Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Harriett Howard Holderness to Mr. Lee Ferguson Davis, of Richmond, Virginia.

The ceremony which took place at half after eight o'clock was performed by Reverend Chester Alexander, pastor of the bride, assisted by Reverend Henry Ruark, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. Robert Rawls, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony, which included Traumeri, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," "To an Evening Star," and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." Just before the entrance of the bridal party Mr. Carter Darrow sang Barcarolle from The Tales of Hoffman, and "Because."

The bride entered the church with her father, Mr. George Allen Holderness, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a princess model of ivory satin, fashioned with a full flowing skirt, which was gored in the back to form the train. The bodice was cut with high neck and finished with a collar of seed pearls. The long fitted sleeves extended to a point over the wrists. Her veil of Brussels lace was arranged in cap effect, the points forming a fringe to the face and caught in the back with orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and valley lilies.

The bride had as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Anna Stamps Holderness, of Tarboro, North Carolina, and Mrs. Howard Holderness, of Greensboro, North Carolina, as dame of honor. They wore gowns of fuchsia taffeta with basques of velvet. Cords of taffeta finished the neck lines and trimmed the puffed sleeves. Their flowers were pink roses and pink snap dragons tied with pink ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Misses Madeline Jenkins, of Tarboro, North Carolina, Martha Pierce, of Weldon, North Carolina, Mildred Joyner, of Rocky Mount, North Carolina, and Mrs. John Huske Anderson, Jr., of Raleigh, North Carolina. They wore gowns of Windsor blue taffeta and velvet made along the same lines as the maid of honor and dame. They carried arm bouquets of pink roses, pink snap dragons and delphiniums tied with ribbon.

The flower girl, little Miss Jean Howard Holderness, of Greensboro, North Carolina, niece of the bride, wore Windsor blue taffeta and velvet fashioned like the bridesmaids' gowns and carried a basket of pink roses filled with rose pedals, which she scattered in the pathway of the bride. Mr. Davis had as his best man his brother, Mr. Joseph Smalley Davis, of Waynesville, North Carolina.

The ushers were Messers, Dall Holderness, Herbert Taylor, Romayne Howard, of Tarboro, North Carolina; Moody Davis, of Leakesville, North Carolina, E. B. Dunlap, of Duke University and Thurston Holderness, of Greensboro, North Carolina.

Mr. Davis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Allen Holderness, of Tarboro, North Carolina, and was graduated from the Collegiate School for Girls in Richmond, Virginia, and Salem College, Winston, North Carolina.

Mr. Davis is the son of Mrs. Joseph Smalley Davis and the late Mr. Davis, of Waynesville, North Carolina, was graduated from Duke University and is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is connected with the Virginia Electric and Power Company in Richmond, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis left later in the evening for a trip South which will include a stay at Sea Island, Georgia, after which they will be at home at The Ambassador Apartment, 1108 West Franklin street, Richmond, Virginia.

For traveling Mrs. Davis wore an imported woolen suit in aqua, trimmed in gray Persian lamb with hat of the same material, black accessories and a corsage of orchid and valley lilies.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen Holderness, 508 St. Patrick street.

Mrs. Holderness, mother of the bride, wore a model of black georgette with a cape collar beaded with small crystals. Her flowers were white orchids and valley lilies.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Holderness were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ferguson Davis, Miss Mary Davis, and the bridal party.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Green greeted the guests at the front door and Mrs. Anna Baker Fenner and Mrs. John Fry, of Richmond, Virginia, invited them into the punch room, where Misses Elizabeth Porter and Mary Nash Norfleet, Dr. Ed. Roberson and Dr. Borden Hooks presided at the punch bowl.

Mr. Stamps Howard and Mrs. W. T. Clark received in the hall, where the guests were registered by Miss Elizabeth and Miss Melie Hussey.

In the dining room Mrs. George Howard and Mr. Robert Rawls received. Those serving were Misses Drummer Girl!

Mae West

Something of a new role for Mae West may be assumed by the blonde screen star when she completes her current picture if tentative plans go through for having her lead a stage band on a personal appearance tour. The actress has been playing the drums as a hobby for some time.

Ruth Bonid, Grace Winslow, June Bourne, Alice Howard, Ruth Speir and Bernice Rynn.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wright Wiggins were at the gift room door where Mrs. W. J. Thigpen and Mrs. John Pender presided.

Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Don Gilliam.

The out of town guests included many friends from the surrounding towns and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Price, Mr. Britt Armfield, Dr. Angus McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Broadhurst, Mrs. Alexander Fortune, Miss Jane Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holderness, Mr. and Mrs. William Holderness and Mr. Thurston Holderness from Greensboro, North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. William Armfield from Ashboro, North Carolina, Mrs. F. S. Royster, of Norfolk, Virginia; Mrs. John Fry, Mrs. Charles Borden, Mrs. Alexander Gray, Miss Mary Rufus Smith, Miss Virginia Turner, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ayers, Miss Alice Rogers and Miss Mary Royle from Richmond, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. John Huske Anderson, Jr., Mr. Vass Shepard and Mr. Thomas Alexander from Raleigh, North Carolina; Miss Mary Davis, Mr. Joseph Smalley Davis, Mr. Grover Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bell from Waynesville, North Carolina; Miss Lora Frances Davis from Quincy, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Mr. Moody Davis from Leakesville, North Carolina; Mrs. Mattie Clark from Elizabethtown, North Carolina; Lieut. and Mrs. George Allan Holderness, Jr., from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and Mr. Chatham Clark from New Bern, North Carolina.

MARRIAGE OF INTEREST TAKES PLACE IN COLUMBIA, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Starling Johnson, of Lexington, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Kathryn Virginia, to Joseph Temple Shackford. The wedding was solemnized on Saturday, November the 20th, in Columbia, S. C., with the groom's father, the Rev. John Shackford, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Shackford, who are both attending Duke University, are at home to their friends at 1045 Anette Avenue, Durham.

The groom has spent much of his life in Waynesville, and has a large family connection here. He is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. John Shackford, the latter the former Miss Love Branner Atkins, daughter of the late Bishop and Mrs. James Atkins.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Announcement was made this week of the marriage of Miss Thelma Franklin and John Stephen, of Waynesville, which took place on Saturday, November the 20th, at the home the bride in Clarksville, Ga. Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for a brief wedding trip.

Mrs. Stephens is the principal of the New Liberty school near Clarksville. She plans to join her husband here the first of the year, and they will reside in Waynesville. Mr. Stephens is employed by the Smith Drug Store.

CHURCH GROUP TO GIVE PLAY

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church, will give a play on the Ministers Annuity Plan, entitled, "A Beginning," on Sunday evening, November the 28th, at 7:00 The public is cordially invited.

MRS. R. L. PREVOST HOSTESS OF LARGE TEA TUESDAY

An outstanding social event of the early winter season was the tea given on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. R. L. Prevost at her home on the Balsam road, as a courtesy to her four daughters-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Prevost, the former Miss Dorothy Lane, Mrs. Whitener Prevost, the former Miss Willa Crawford, Mrs. Aaron Prevost, the former Miss Adora Holtzelaw, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Billie Prevost, the former Miss Patsy Hill, of Waynesville and New York.

The house which was thrown en suite for the occasion was decorated in quantities of yellow and white chrysanthemums and yellow roses. In the dining room the central table was covered with a handsome lace cloth and centered with a bowl of yellow roses and greenery, with yellow tapers used at the corners.

Mrs. Prevost was assisted in receiving by the following: Greeting the guests in the reception hall were Mrs. James W. Killian and Mrs. Ben Colkitt. The hostess and the honor guests received in the living room. The former was gowned in black and white chiffon, with corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Ralph Prevost in black marmosite, with corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Whitener Prevost in black with lane yoke, and touches of red, with corsage of yellow roses and chrysanthemums, Mrs. Aaron Prevost in white crepe de chine with bolero of sequins, and corsage of white carnations, and Mrs. Billie Prevost in black velvet, with sash of gold, and corsage of talisman roses.

During the first hour Mrs. L. M. Killian and Mrs. L. M. Richeson poured, and during the second hour Mrs. Grady Boyd and Miss Mildred Crawford presided at the tea table. Others assisting in serving in the dining room were: Miss Mary Stringfield, Mrs. Francis Massie, Mrs. John M. Queen, Jr., Miss Hester Anne Withers, and Miss Babbie Way.

Among those receiving at the various entrances to the reception rooms were: Mrs. James M. Long, Mrs. E. J. Hyatt, Mrs. L. N. Davis, Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, Mrs. W. F. Swift, Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson, Miss Alice Quinlan, and Miss Lois Harrold.

During the hours from 3:30 to 5:30 one hundred and fifty guests called.

DEAN OF BILTMORE COLLEGE ADDRESSES WOMAN'S CLUB

Charles A. Lloyd, dean of Biltmore College, was the speaker at the regular November meeting of the Woman's club, which was held on Thursday afternoon in the assembly room of the American Legion home. Mrs. Dan Watkins, president, presided and in the absence of Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., served as secretary pro tem.

Mr. Lloyd spoke on "Our mother tongue." He pointed out many of the common mistakes in pronunciation of words in constant use. He also spoke of how usage of certain words and expressions among the cultured groups often disregarded rules, and in time, custom had overruled and the expression became correct.

He appealed to parents to try at all times to speak correctly in the home, so that the children could grow up in an atmosphere of correctly spoken English, and the far reaching effect of their speaking habits in the future.

Mrs. Lloyd, who accompanied her husband, also spoke, on the same subject, continuing the remarks mostly to the correct pronunciation of words.

Plans for the annual community Christmas tree were formulated with Mrs. John M. Queen, Mrs. Frank Ferguson, Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. James Summers, and Mrs. J. A. Miller, appointed to fill the stockings, Mrs. James W. Killian was appointed to have charge of making the stockings.

Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick will again serve as chairman of garden, which will include outdoor Christmas tree contest, held for the most beautifully decorated outdoor tree. Prizes will be given, first and second.

Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, chairman of ways and means announced that a bridge party would be given during the next week. Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., asked the co-operation in the Red Cross roll call.

Mrs. McCrary, of Raleigh, field worker for the Blind Commission, spoke of the situation in Haywood county, and outlined the aid offered by the state.

The club went on record as approving the resolution asking that the park officials move the Morris home with the 147 year old fire, located near Saluda into the park area. Mrs. R. N. Barber is chairman of the work, which is being done by the state D. A. R.

The members enjoyed a violin solo, a McDowell number, by Mrs. R. N. Barber, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Evander Preston.

During the social hour the following hostesses served: Mrs. R. I. Prevost, Mrs. John M. Queen, Mrs. Linwood Grahl, Mrs. Jimmie Boyd, Jr., and Mrs. W. D. Smith.

BOY SCOUTS ENTERTAIN GIRL SCOUTS

The Waynesville troop of the Boy Scouts were hosts on Saturday evening in the assembly room of the Legion home of a party honoring the Girl Scouts. The evening was featured by square dancing, games and a moving picture show staged by Ben Colkitt and Jack Richeson. The boys were assisted in serving by Mrs. Ben Colkitt. Others present were Mr. J. C. Brown, Miss Mary Stringfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Colkitt.

Mr. LeRoy Davis has gone to Sumter, S. C., where he will join his family for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Herman had as their guests during the past week the latter's mother, Mrs. C. Henderson Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Henderson and son, Bill, all of Hickory. Mr. Henderson is a brother of Mrs. Herman. Young Bill Henderson was a member of the American group who attended the world jamboree of the Boy Scouts held in Holland the past summer.

Miss Mildred Crawford and Miss Lois Harrold left on Wednesday for Macon, Ga., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Clisby Clarke.

Miss Mary Quinlan and a friend, Miss McDonald, of Lincolnton, spent the week-end in town, with the former's mother, Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan, at the home of her aunt, Miss Alice Quinlan.

Miss Lois Harrold spent the week-end in Asheville as the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. G. Lee.

Mrs. W. A. Grahl, of Dalton, Ga., was the guest during the week of her son, Mr. Linwood Grahl and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Long had as their guests over the week-end Mrs. Sadie Long and Miss Mamie Long, of Sylva.

Mrs. S. C. Satterthwait, who has spent the past summer and fall here, has gone to Atlanta, where she will spend the winter at her home there. After closing her house here she spent some time with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest L. Withere.

Miss Margaret Burgin will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with friends in Raleigh.

Mr. R. L. Prevost is spending several days in Boston, where he has gone on business.

Major and Mrs. John B. Martin, three sons, of Peoria, Ill., will today to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with the former's parents, and Mrs. E. P. Martin. Major Martin is the recruiting officer of the U. S. stationed now in Peoria. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will also have as guests for the day and night Mr. F. Fricks and small son, of Mrs. Fricks is the former Mrs. Beth Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Boyd had their guest on Wednesday Mrs. C. Cleveland, of Sulma, and Mrs. S. Cleveland and Mrs. Reed with their friends.

James Wood Reed, who shares his Waynesville trip with the one who has held a position in the New Yorker, New York City, sometime, has been invited to accompany to Ben Air Hotel in Atlanta for the winter season.

Mr. Ernest Edwards, who has his home here for the past four years has moved to High Point, where will be connected with the K. G. Funeral Home.

MRS. STAMEY LEAVES HOSPITAL

Mrs. M. G. Stamey, who has been a patient in the Haywood County Hospital, following an operation, is able during the past week to return to her home.

Mrs. W. T. Crawford will have her guest over Thanksgiving her Mr. Fred Crawford, who is now located in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Crisp and Jim, of Brevard, were the guests of the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. F. Burgin.

Mrs. James R. Thomas returned yesterday from Hiwassee where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. Frank Hodges. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Hodges and two children who will remain over Thanksgiving here.

Mr. M. H. Bowles has gone Irwinton, Ga., where he has his Mrs. Bowles for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Nancy Killian has gone to Atlanta, where she will spend Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. Lebo Massie, of Spartanburg spent the week-end in town with mother, Mrs. T. N. Massie.

It's Wintertime and OVERCOAT TIME

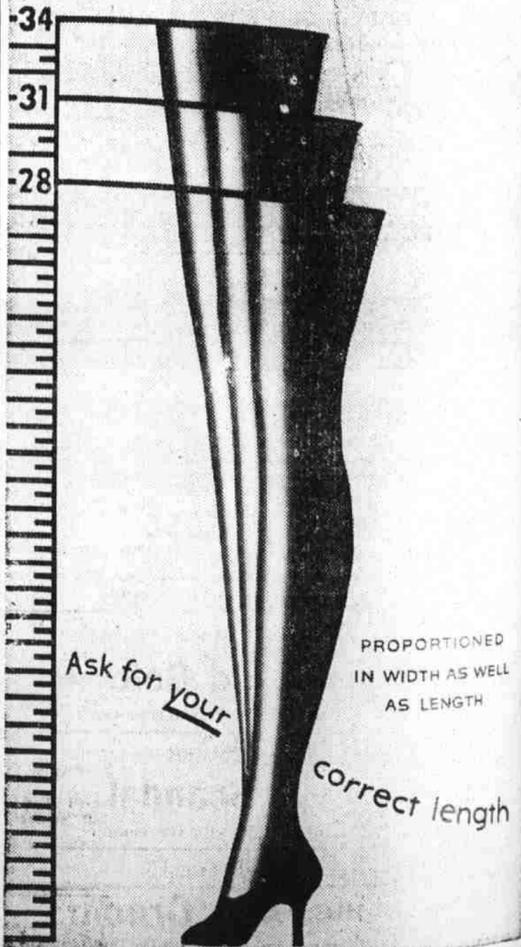

AND A NICE OVERCOAT WILL MAKE YOU LOOK AND FEEL BETTER

They need not be expensive. We can give you a nice coat at a surprisingly low price. We feature especially an attractive coat at $16.95

C. E. RAY'S SONS

Gordon's 3 LENGTH HOSIERY

Ask for your

PROPORTIONED IN WIDTH AS WELL AS LENGTH

correct length

Beautiful Sheer Gordon Hose

79c and $1.00

Massie's Dept. Store