

Ray Names County Hospitality Group

should visit the state, and in our case, Haywood county.

Mr. Ray says that giving the tourist his half of the road is one of the things that we must do, but that we can't stop there. His idea is that our hospitality must be loaded with practicality. "There must be friendliness," he says. "Then our merchants, our garages, our professional men, our hotels, and all other service groups, must give solid value along with adequate service. Our dining rooms, cafes, and rest rooms must provide sanitation and attractiveness. Beds must be made comfortable. Meals must be served with the "Southern flavor." Our communities must be made attractive through adequate trees and shrubbery, among other things. Our police officers must be able to dispense information and courtesy along with the law. Roads must be kept passable."

The Governor is quoted again as saying: "Every citizen must now assume a new responsibility to see that the goods advertised shall be delivered—honest value to every one who visits North Carolina."

Mr. Ray states further that his committee will be glad at all times to receive suggestions, and that from time to time, the committee will call on many citizens and organizations for assistance. He points out further that funds are not provided and that the committees activities are wholly of voluntary nature. Following is the initial committee:

Stanley Reed, as associate Justice of the Supreme Court on Tuesday of this week.

A survey completed this week shows that there are now 23 states that have state sales taxes. All of them seized this plan as an out of depression difficulties.

A. Harry Moore, has been inaugurated to serve his third term as governor of New Jersey.

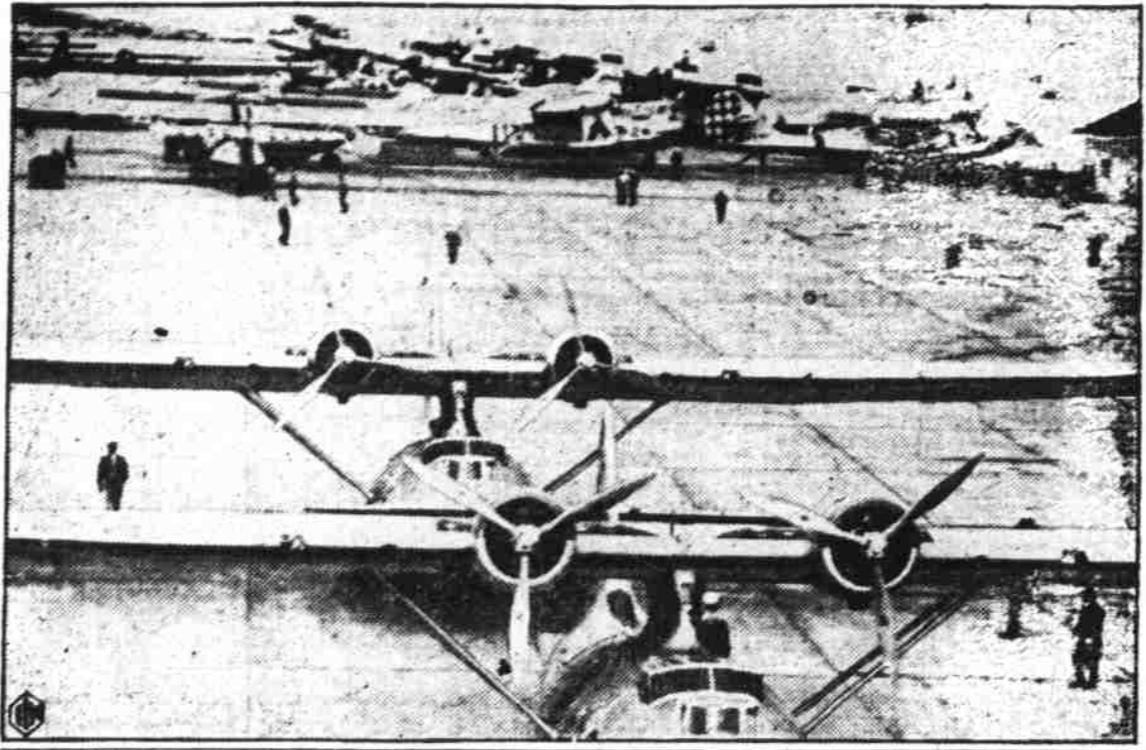

Politicians of the Old Guard in the state were saddened during the week by the passing of Mrs. Mary Merrimon Overman, widow of the late Senator Lee Slater Overman, who kept the interests of North Carolina ever before the United States Senate for a period of 28 years. It has been said that with the exception of Nathaniel Macon, who was in Congress 37 years, Mrs. Overman really represented North Carolina longer in Washington than any other person. She was there 34 years. As daughter of Senator Augustus Merrimon, she made her bow to society in Washington. During the years she spent there she knew intimately 11 presidents, beginning with Rutherford Hayes. She was one of the most popular women in official and social circles and is said to have been the only woman to ever win a laugh from President Coolidge.

18 Navy Bombers Before Takeoff for Honolulu

The greatest mass flight over water ever undertaken was the hop made from San Diego, Cal. to Honolulu in which 18 navy patrol bombers crossed 2,570 miles of ocean in 20 hours, carrying 127 men. The 14-ton, two-motored flying battleships are shown grouped at San Diego, before taking off.

JUSTICE AND THE DOLLAR MARK

It appears from the statements of numerous persons in Harnett county including the solicitor of the district, that when Judge Henry A. Grady said that he was yielding to a popular demand in placing Mrs. Sina Pope Godwin, convicted of manslaughter and given a prison sentence, on probation, the call to do so was not nearly so voluminous as he might have first thought. Comment from the attorneys for the prosecution, on the incident—first, "human life and murder is apparently becoming very cheap" and the further pessimistic declaration "justice seems to be futile"—does not have all of its bitterness washed away in the assertion from the other side that clemency was a "happy conclusion." The public is bound to be left with the opinion that there are some people in Harnett county who differ radically with the judge's decision, the authority for which seems to be vested in an act of a recent legislature and challenged by no one. But we were amind to skip the recitation of the countryside to this so-called act of mercy as being something which is a bit fickle anyway and which ought not to be a great determining factor in the administration of justice, to get down to a more fundamental issue which was raised by Judge Grady himself. The court took in something over $700 in costs from Mrs. Godwin and the freedom which is given is going to obviate the necessity of boarding her in state's prison for the two-three years involved in the sentence. This saving to the taxpayers was of sufficient moment in making up Judge Grady's mind for

Deaths

WILLIAM RATHBONE

Funeral services were held at 10:00 o'clock on last Thursday morning at the Methodist church at Maggie, for William Rathbone, 57, of Emma, who died on Tuesday afternoon in the Mission Hospital in Asheville. The Rev. John Finger, of Maggie, officiated. Burial was in the Henry cemetery.

Mr. Rathbone is survived by his widow, the former Miss Elizabeth Knight, and the following children: Mrs. Sam Miller, Manuel and George Rathbone, all of Maggie, Miss Cora, Miss Mae, and Miss Hattie Rathbone, Steve, Roy and David Rathbone, of Emma; and two children, Mrs. Altha Summers and Theodore Rathbone, of Greer, S. C., by a former marriage, his first wife having been Miss Alice Moody, of Maggie, who died in 1906.

him to mention it in reasons assigned for the alteration of judgment.

If the same line of reasoning is followed, no doubt there are many other persons within the custody of the state of North Carolina who would be glad to pay accumulated costs and their own keep. By the same token, without meaning to compare personalities, we'd say it would have been cheaper for the state to let Bill Payne and Wash Turner do their running around at their own expense.

Judge Grady may have been justified in removing this prison sentence, but we don't like to see Lady Justice shift the bandage from her eyes for a view of the dollar mark or even a purported popular demand.—Greensboro Daily News.
