ally appointed the three men as members of the Haywood county board of elections, as previously named in this column—W. H. Noland, Waynesville, Godger Bryson and Virge McClure, of Canton. The members of the county board will elect their chairman. Mr. Godger was named to fill the vacancy of Frank M. Byers.

All county officers, including state senator, have until six o'clock Saturday, April 23rd, to file with the county board of elections. It was stated last week in this column that candidates for state senator had to file with the state board of elections—our source of information misunderstood the law.

Formal county announcements to date:

Senate—Cogburn.
Representative—Palmer.
Commissioners—Medford, Boyd, and Moore.
Sheriff—Welch.

300 Attend District Meeting Of Young Democrats In Town

The Young Democrats of the 11th Congressional district held a banquet here at the Gordon Hotel, followed by a dance at the Masonic Temple, on Saturday night. Every county of the district was represented, with approximately three hundred persons present. Jerry Rogers, district chairman, presided.

After the invocation by J. Paul Murray, David Cabe, made the address of welcome, to which William D. Lonon, McDowell county solicitor, responded.

The principal address of the evening was made by Thad Eure, secretary of state. Mr. Eure was introduced by Roy W. Francis, assistant United States attorney, who was presented to the crowd by W. G. Byers. Mr. Eure gave a history of the Democratic party and predicted future achievements.

Marcus A. Erwin, of Asheville, United States attorney, addressed the group in a humorous vein, as did also Dillworth Cooke, district organizer for the Young Democrats.

Others attending who were recognized were, Mrs. Thad Eure, C. O. Ridings, solicitor of the 18th district, United States Marshall Chas. E. Price, Miss Sara Posey, of Murphy, David Harris, of Canton, and Robert R. Reynolds, Jr.

Telegrams were read from Archie T. Allen, state president of the Young Democrats, and from Senator Robert
