MRS. R. H. STRETCHER ENTERTAINS WAYNESVILLE MUSIC CLUB

The Waynesville Music Club met with the president, Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, at her home on Saturday afternoon. Spring flowers were used throughout the house.

Mrs. Grover Wilkes, of Sylva, out of town member of the organization, had charge of the program, the subject being "The life and works of Stephens Collins Foster."

Mrs. Wilkes sketched Foster's life, from his early childhood in Pittsburgh, Penn., to his latter years, giving various views as to when he had written his Southern melodies, before or after visiting the South.

The following numbers were illustrative of his popular songs; a sextette, with Mrs. Olive Green, Miss Sue Willard Linsley, Miss Nancy Killian, Mrs. Tom Spurlock, Miss Ida Jean Brown, and Mrs. Lucile Foy, accompanied by Mrs. Stretcher, sang, "Way down Upon the Swannee River," and "Old Black Joe."

Mrs. Charles Gully, of the vice department of Western Carolina Teachers College, sang two numbers, "Jinny with the Light Brown Hair," and "Susanna."

During the business session a report was given by the nominating committee, and all the present officers were re-elected to serve for the coming year as follows: President, Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher; vice president, Mrs. L. M. Richeson; secretary, Mrs. Lucile Foy, and treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Hardin.

Miss Nancy Killian, who had been appointed chairman of a committee to revise the constitution of the club gave a report of the findings of her committee. After the presentation of the revision a discussion followed.

Miss Margaret Stringfield was elected as a delegate to the State Federation of Music Clubs convention, which will be held in Asheville in May, with Miss Nancy Killian as alternate.

A social hour followed adjournment of the meeting.

In Fashion Now

Scarfs are again important because of the many collarless coats. Vivid blues, greens and yellows are flattering next to the face when wearing a dark suit.

Handkerchiefs are important also. Persian designs of linen are quite smart and a lacy handkerchief worn with a lucky jabot gives that something to a suit.

A novelty combination is that of a bag and gloves of white printed suede.

For the crinoline dress the most satisfactory wrap is a short cape. One Parisian house uses the triangular shawl.

With the white evening dress wear red kid sandals, red mouseline handkerchief and ruby clips.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Smith, of Candler, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ezra Smith, to Raymon Stovall, of Waynesville. The marriage took place at 7:30 o'clock on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Cuddeback, in the Kirkpatrick apartments.

The bride and groom entered together. The Rev. J. G. Huggin, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist church, pronounced the marriage vows.

The bride was attired in an Alice blue silk suit, with harmonizing accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of pink roses and sweetpeas. Mrs. Stovall holds a position with the Enka Corporation.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stovall, of Cleveland, Ga. He is a graduate of the Cleveland High school and the Georgia A. and M. College. He is associated with his brother, G. Dewey Stovall, in business.

The couple left following the ceremony, for a week's motor trip through Florida, after which they will reside in Waynesville.

Mrs. J. R. Latham, of Hickory, and Mrs. J. E. Kuchler, who has recently returned from England, spent a couple of days during the week in town, the latter on business. Mrs. Kuchler owns quite a bit of property in this section. She has not been here in six years.
