N. C. Alumni Hear Coach Ray Wolfe

The annual dinner meeting of the Alumni of the University of North Carolina, of the counties of Haywood, Jackson and Swain, was held on Wednesday night at the Gordon Hotel. Approximately thirty-six members of the group, representing the three counties, attended.

The principal speaker of the evening was Coach Ray Wolfe, who outlined the new athletic program of the university. He stated that under the recent arrangement more students would receive athletic training, outside of the regular field of sports, than had previously been given. Coach Wolfe was introduced by J. Marian Saunders, general alumni secretary. The following officers were elected to serve the tri-county organization for the coming year; President, Ben Sloan, of Sylva; vice president, Chas. E. Ray, Jr.; vice president, Kelly Bennett, of Bryson City; vice president, C. C. Poindexter, of Canton, and secretary and treasurer, Dan Moore, of Sylva.

Artistically Expressed
"It took eight sittings."
"What? Have you been having your portrait painted?"
"No, learning to skate."

Irrepressible Youth
Teacher—Yes, Johnny, Lapland is rather thinly populated.
Johnny—How many Lapps to the mile, teacher?"

Large Number Attended Sunrise Service Easter

An impressive service was conducted by the Haywood League Union and the Waynesville Youth Council in the joint sunrise service which they held at Lake Junaluska on Easter morning. A large number of young people from over the county attended.

Taking part on the program were the following: Bramlett Stone, who gave a Scripture reading, and conducted the responsive reading; Joe Johnson, who led in prayer; the Rev. J. G. Huggin, Jr., who talked on "The Glory of Easter"; the Rev. O. C. Landrum, who administered communion, and Jack Rathbone, who pronounced the benediction.

Court Syntax
"Lawyers should use shorter words," says a writer. Convicts are agreed that judges should use shorter sentences.

Complete Collection
"You have a splendid collection of mounted fish—but what are the empty panels for?"
"Oh, those are some that got away."
