

Mrs. Doyle Alley Named President Of State PTA

(Continued from page 1) of the district group, as its director, and at a later date also as historian. She is a past vice president of the state congress, having been fifth vice president at one time, which office carried with it the chairmanship of the state welfare committee. As a member of the state executive board, she attended the national convention of the P. T. A. which was held in Richmond, Va., last spring. For several years she has attended the North Carolina Parent Teacher

Institute held in Chapel Hill. She served on the state committee on re-districting the state from five to ten districts. Mrs. Alley will go to Salt Lake City next month for the national convention which will be held from May 15th to the 20th. Other officers who will serve the state Parent Teacher Congress with Mrs. Alley are: Mrs. N. L. Walker, of Raleigh, vice president; Mrs. J. W. Burke, of Gibsonville, as treasurer; Mrs. Fred Hampton, of Asheville, corresponding secretary, and C. W. Phillips, of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, recording secretary.
