MISS EDITH LONG GRADUATES FROM GREENSBORO COLLEGE

Miss Edith Long, daughter of Mrs. K. C. Long, of Lake Junaluska, was among the graduates of the Greensboro College this week.

Miss Long finished her work in January, and returned to the college for the commencement program, which was of unusual interest this year. The twentieth anniversary of the founding of the college by the Methodist church was observed, with representatives from all the colleges and universities in the nation attending.

One feature was the unveiling of an oil portrait of Mrs. Langhorne, a former student, and the mother of the famous Langhorne sisters, of Virginia. About forty members of her family were present, some of the granddaughters coming from England. With the exception of Lady Astor all her children were present.

Miss Long was joined on Friday by her mother, her sister, Miss Sarah Long, and Joe Johnson. The party returned to town on Monday.
