

-:- News Events Of Special Interest To Women -:-

METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION MEETS

The Young People's Union of the Methodist churches of Haywood county met at the Clark's Chapel on Monday night, July 11, at eight o'clock. In the absence of the president, Bee Harbour, of Canton, George Swearingen, vice president, of Waynesville, presided.

During the business session of the meeting, the union voted to award the annual Brevard scholarship to Miss Catherine Martin, of Waynesville, for her second year at Brevard College, having awarded the scholarship to her last year also. The scholarship is awarded on the basis of scholastic, financial, and personal merit and is given the second year if the winner maintains merit. The scholarship was formerly $60, and has been raised this year to $100.

Reverend Mr. John B. Bennett, of Brevard College, was the principal speaker of the evening. He gave the union a message from the college. Reverend John Carper, of Lake Junaluska, district director of Haywood county and Jackson county young people, gave a talk, and conducted the installation of the new officers for the year.

The banner for the best record of the month in the local league, based on attendance and activities, was awarded to Elizabeth Chapel.

The hostess league served refreshment to the union, and a social hour was enjoyed. The meeting for August will be held at Dellwood.

VISITORS OF PROMINENCE AT THE DUNHAM HOUSE

Mrs. Mary Feaster and Mrs. Addison Hall, the latter editor of the Woman's page of the Miami Daily News, left Sunday for New York City and other points in the North. While in this section they stopped at the Dunham House, and during the past week had as their guests, Mrs. Lucy Pensinger and her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Welsh, and Miss Patricia Pensinger and Mrs. Schuyler, of Tryon.

Miss Pensinger is well known on concert and opera stage, having played in Little Theater productions in England. She has an important collection of foreign music in her home in "Penland," near Tryon. She is now editing musical notes of the late Landsker MacKenzie, famous pianist and musical critic of New York and London.

Miss Margaret Wooten, of Pine-tops, Edgecombe county, arrived on Wednesday to visit Miss Martha Way at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Way. Miss Wooten and Miss Way were classmates last year at Greensboro College.

Mrs. Addie Proffitt, of Asheville, has arrived in town and will make her home with her kinsmen, Mr. James McLean and his son, Mr. Robert McLean.

Miss Hilda Way had as her guests during the week: Miss Ruth Slocumb, of Goldsboro and Miss Mary Sue Woodall, of Smithfield, both classmates of Miss Way at the Greensboro College.

MISS JESSIE PROFFITT IS BRIDE OF FRANK BYRD

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Jessie Proffitt, of Waynesville, to Frank Byrd, of Hazelwood. The marriage was solemnized on Saturday night at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. O. C. Landrum in Hazelwood.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proffitt, of Asheville. The groom is the son of Mrs. Jerry Byrd. They will reside in Hazelwood.

MRS. B. S. MARSH HONORS DAUGHTER ON BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. B. S. Marsh assembled a group of the younger set on Saturday afternoon for a game of contract as a courtesy to her daughter, Miss Dollee Marsh, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

Miscellaneous flowers lent a decorative note to the rooms and porches. Contract was enjoyed at three tables.

When the scores were totaled Miss Jane White was the holder of the top score and Miss Mary Wood, was the winner of the low prize.

Making up the tables were: Miss Billy Rotha, Miss Martha Way, Miss Hilda Way, Miss Corinne Wagenfeld, Miss Thomasine Stringfield, Miss Jane White, Miss Emily Siler, Miss Haseltine Swift, Miss Mary Wood, of Elizabethton, Tenn., and Miss Judy Trammell, of Canton.

YOUNG HOSTESS HONORS BROTHER WITH PARTY

Betty Jane Bradley was hostess on Monday night of a party honoring her brother, Richard Bradley, on the occasion of his fourteenth birthday anniversary. The young hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. A. Bradley, in receiving her guests.

The evening was featured by games. Those invited to the party were: Jeanette Burgin, Mary Lee Alley, Betty Jean Alley, Eugenia Martin, Betty Francis, Meta Dicus, Mary Elizabeth Barefoot, Carroll Louise Bell, Ruth Wagenfeld, Betty Burgin, Patsy Gwyn and Bebe Medford.

Lester Burgin, Jimmie Dicus, Graham Barefoot, Jackie Worthington, Haywood Plott, Zeb Curtis, John Summerrow, J. D. Hyatt, Phil Medford, and Bobbie Breece.

Mrs. John W. Norwood, who formerly resided here, is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Stringfield. Mr. and Mrs. Norwood are now living in Washington, D. C., where the former is connected with Federal Trade Commission. Mr. Norwood is on a business trip to California, and will join Mrs. Norwood at a later date. The Norwoods have many friends in this section who will be glad to learn of their visit here.

Miss Debrada Fisher left on Saturday for Greenville, S. C., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Robert Trammell, the former Miss Susie Fisher.

Miss Ruth Summerrow and her brother, Lawson Summerrow, spent the past week in Newport News, as the guests of their brother, Rufus Summerrow.

Miss Elizabeth Henry left on Sunday for New York City, where she will visit her brother, Jim Henry, for a fortnight.

Mrs. Henry Foy and Mrs. Florence Martin have returned during the week from Greensboro, where they attended a conference for nursery workers.

Mrs. W. D. Smith has poined Mr. Smith in Ellisville, Miss., where he maintains headquarters in his work as state supervisor of agriculture.

Miss Bernice McElhannon has returned from various points in Mississippi, where she visited friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. White and his family and niece, Miss Mildred Norris, are visiting at the home of the former's brother, Mr. Mack White. Mr. White has been residing in Darrington, Wash., for the past 16 years.

Miss May Crawford has gone to Camp Red Wing at Adirondack, on the Schroom, New York, where she has been a counselor for the past several years.

Miss Mary Guernsey, of Orlando, Fla., has arrived to spend sometime at the Willis House. Miss Guernsey has spent many summers in town and has a number of friends in this section.

Miss Rena Harrell, librarian of Queens College, who has spent the past several summers here, has arrived, and is a guest at Birchwood Hall.

Miss Mary New has had as her guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Heintze, of New York City. They were en route to a visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Walker and daughter, Miss Sarah Jane Walker, and Mrs. Will Medford visited friends and relatives over the week-end in Ware Shoals, S. C.

Mrs. T. N. Massie had as her guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Evans and Ken Evans, all of Chattanooga.

Mrs. James G. Huggin, Jr. and small daughter, Betsy, spent the past week at Lake Summit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee, of Atlanta, are spending a fortnight at their summer home at Balsam.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert New, Jr., of Charleston, West Va., have arrived and will visit the former's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Albert New, at the rectory of Grace Episcopal church, and Mrs. New's mother, Mrs. P. C. Williams, of Richmond, Va., at her summer home at Balsam.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bridges were the guests over the week-end of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Y. Bridges, at their home in Charlotte.

Shuffle Boards Are Ready For Play Now

Final plans have been completed for opening the shuffle board courts on Main street. The equipment for playing can be secured from the Goose Creek Gift Place, next to the shuffle board lot.

Miniqu charges of $2 for the season, fifty cents a week, twenty-five cents for three games will be charged.

Several visitors, who are almost professionals, have signified their intention of taking on all players.

Summer Visitor Passes Away Here

The body of Adolf Neubauer, 85, who had been a guest at the Dunham House for the past month, was shipped to his home in Cincinnati, on Saturday afternoon, with the Massie Funeral Home in charge. A nephew and niece accompanied the body.

Mr. Neubauer was taken ill on Wednesday and moved to a local institution where he died on Friday.

TRADE WITH JAPAN DROPS

A trade report reveals slump in imports from Japan. This slump is attributed partially to unofficial boycotts.

SETS AVIATION RECORD

The aviation world was taken agog, when 31-year-old Douglas Corrigan, of California, flew from New York to Ireland, a distance of 2,800 miles, without letting on what he was about. He had no permit to make the flight, in fact, he could not get a permit because of his frail out-of-date plane. He told attendants at New York he was going back to California. He landed in Ireland, just the opposite direction. Now he is getting all kinds of offers that would make him rich. He is turning them down until he gets back to America.

MARIETTA WAY BIBLE CLASS TO GIVE PARTY FRIDAY

The members of the Marietta Way Bible class of the Sunday school of the First Methodist church will give a party on Friday evening in the dining room of the church. The members of the church are invited to attend and each guest is required to bring a lemon, which will be cut and the owner will be asked to pay one cent for each seed it contains.

CIRCLES OF METHODIST CHURCH WILL MEET

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church will hold the regular meetings on Tuesday afternoon of the coming week. Circle Number 1 will meet with Mrs. Frank Ferguson at her home at 3 o'clock.

Circle Number 2, with Mrs. T. N. Massie, at 3 o'clock, and Circle Number 3, with Mrs. F. E. Alley, at 3 o'clock. Circle Number 4, with Miss Kathryn Queen, Miss Elizabeth McCracken and Miss Mildred McCracken, as associate hostesses, at the home of the former.

MRS. KIRKPATRICK ENTERTAINS FOR HER PARENTS

Mrs. Marshall Kirkpatrick, of Clyde, entertained Sunday for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Few, of Greer, S. C. Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Few from Greer for the occasion, were Miss Dot and Miss Edith Few, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Few.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Clyde.

Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kirkpatrick, of Clyde, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Campbell, and Miss Louise Campbell, of Waynesville and Mrs. Duncan, of Asheville, joined the group.

Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher and small son, Robert, and Mrs. Ellen Stretcher, are spending a week visiting friends at Edisto Beach, near Charleston.

Mrs. Josephine Coman Ferguson had as her guest this week at the home of her parents, Sunset Cottage, Lake Junaluska, Miss Margaret Merritt, of Whiteville.

Miriam and Nancy Isenhour, young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Isenhour, of Charlotte, have arrived to spend several weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. McCracken.

Mrs. S. J. Schulhofer, of Richmond, Va., and Waynesville, has arrived for her usual summer stay at the Hotel Waynesville. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Inez Heller, of Richmond, who will make her a visit.

Miss Mary Stringfield has returned from the North, where she has spent the past several weeks as the guest of friends in New York City, Burlington, Vermont, and Monroe, Conn.

Mrs. Hugh A. Love is spending this week in Eastern Carolina. She left Monday for Charlotte, and from there she went to Raleigh, where she was joined by her daughter, Miss Henrietta Love. They will go to Manteo, where they will attend a presentation of the "Lost Colony," and will motor to various points of interest on the Carolina Coast before returning home.

Miss Dollee Marsh had as her guest over the week-end, M. L. Hensley, of Morganton.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles have as her guest, the latter's aunt, Miss Ellen Jackson, of Macon, Ga.

GUILD SPONSORS MUSICAL TEA

A musical tea will be given this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sydia Ray, by the women of Grace Episcopal church guild. The hours will be from four until six o'clock. A silver offering will be taken.

EASTERN STAR TO HOLD BI-MONTHLY MEETING

Waynesville chapter No. 165, Order of Eastern Star, will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting Thursday night, July 22nd, in the chapter rooms in the Masonic Temple. Ethel Bradley, Worthy Matron, will preside and it is earnestly requested that all officers and members attend, as well as visiting "Stars."

Nell Porter, District Deputy Matron, will make her official visit at this meeting and at her close of the business session, a social hour will be observed.

Mrs. R. W. Gifford had as her guests Tuesday Mrs. Harry Lee Ferguson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hill, of Enoree, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stamey and family.

Mrs. James J. O'Malley and children, of Chicago, who have been spending the past month with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Greene, will return to Chicago Friday.

Mrs. George Hendry, of Jacksonville, Fla., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. C. Briggs. Mrs. Hendry is the former Miss Lois Briggs, and has many friends in town who will be glad to learn that she has arrived for the summer season.

Mrs. Dwight Beatty has as her guests her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Trapp, of West Palm Beach, Fla. Mrs. Trapp is the former Miss Mary Morrow Beatty and her marriage took place last fall in West Palm Beach.

Not In Summer

It's the wrong season to slave and sweat over a steaming laundry when you can quickly be one of the increasing number of happy folks who buy one of our Low-Cost services.

Whether it's just a wet wash service or a complete laundering service that you require you can't afford to submit to torturing summer heat for what you can buy our work.

ACT NOW! Telephone 205

Waynesville Laundry, Inc.

J. W. KILLIAN BOYD AVENUE

Phone 205

WHITE SHOES REDUCED

at Ray's

Including
WOMEN'S - MEN'S - CHILDREN'S

In General	$5.00	Shoes	.....	$3.95
The Reductions	$3.95	Shoes	.....	$2.95
Are These	$2.95	Shoes	.....	$1.98

It's Your Chance

- ===== To make definite savings on Shoes for every member of the family.
- ===== To obtain that mid-season pair that every one needs in July.
- ===== If you live in Florida, or elsewhere in the deep South to buy your winter Shoes.

MEN! BUY NOW!

Throw away that pair that really isn't worth keeping any longer. It's now time for you to buy.

FEATURING FOR MEN
Freeman and Peters Shoes

C. E. RAY'S SONS

SNAPPY SHOES
for men who want to save

Men's Clothing at RAY'S
Sharply Reduced

20% Reduction On Every SUIT

Clothing Tailored by Griffon.

C. E. RAY'S SONS