ailment which left his pitching arm powerless and almost pulseless. X-rays indicated it was not a recurrence of the bicep muscle trouble he had back in 1934, and electrical treatments were ordered.

Canton Boy In Championship Fight At Asheville

Sewell Higgs, of Canton, famous for his ability to defend himself in the ring, and getting his training in the U. S. Navy, scheduled to meet Ike Hall, of Swannanoa in the feature bout of the evening at McCormick field, Asheville, next Monday night.

The bout is for the championship of Western North Carolina. There will be several preliminary bouts besides the feature attraction.

It doesn't seem right to do the team that way. Why not the next game you attend take a few pennies to "sweeten the pot," so the boys can continue to play the game that they love?

Independents Go Down Defeated By Hot Springs, 16-2

Hazelwood Team Gathers In Eight Hits, While Hot Springs Crosses Plate 16 Times

The Hazelwood Independents failed to make any headway against Hot Springs last week, when the visiting team pounded out 20 hits and made 16 runs, while Hazelwood was gathering 8 hits and crossed the plate twice.

Collins, Hot Springs hurler, allowed but eight hits during the game, while Hazelwood sent in three pitchers to stop the onslaught of the visitors.

Robinson, of Hazelwood, got a triple, while his team mate, Wright gathered a single. For Hot Springs,

Hazelwood Meets Red Oak Saturday On Home Grounds

The Hazelwood Manufacturers will again play at home this Saturday when they meet the Red Oak team. Red Oak was the team in second place at the end of the first half of the season in the Industrial League.

The first game played in the series this year was between the Manufacturers and Red Oak, at which time the Manufacturers won their first game of the year. After the first game Red Oak tightened up and managed to rate second place during the first half.

From all appearances the game is to be one of the hardest fought games to be witnessed on the Hazelwood diamond.

A large number of baseball fans are expected to be on hand to witness the game.

doubles and 3 singles J. Vaillancourt led the Beacon hitters, getting 2 hits in 3 times at bat. Putnam settled down after the 4th inning, and allowed Beacon 2 hits for the remainder of the game.

WHY MILLIONS PREFER RED ROCK COLA Red Rock Cola is the result of intensive, scientific study on the part of experienced beverage chemists. Back of it is a well established organization, which, for over fifty years, has been a leader in the beverage world. It is made from the finest ingredients money can buy and bottled under constant refrigeration by electrically operated sterilizing and filling machines. The result is a pure, wholesome, refreshing beverage that became almost overnight a real drink sensation. People in all walks of life, knowing of the fine quality of other Red Rock products, started drinking it; thrilled with its clean, fresh, invigorating taste, they quickly told their friends and neighbors - soon millions began calling for Red Rock Cola and saying "it tastes so good!" That's the reason for Red Rock Cola's tremendous success. You, too, will enjoy its fine, rich flavor and better taste. Each bottle contains two full glasses of delicious, fruit-flavored cola. Keep it on ice. Serve it often. Fine for parties, with lunch, at seas and most economical. In bottles only 2c.
