Legion And Poteate Renew Weekly Show: Good Card Slated

Some "Big Timers" Are Being Signed For Local Bouts, First Show Friday

The boxing and wrestling matches that thrilled sport fans last year will be resumed here Friday night, at 8 o'clock, in new quarters and with new equipment. The bouts are sponsored by the local post of the American Legion, with Lester Poteate, former wrestling champion in his division in the navy, in charge,

The card Friday night promises to be one that will be different from any that has previously been put on here. It consists of a six found bout of boxing with Fagg Sawyer, local fistic, weighing 165 pounds matching his skill against Chief Eddie Wilson, of Cherokee, in the main bout of the evening.

In the wrestling match there will be a wrestle royal. The wrestle royal will be between six wrestlers all in the ring at one time. Only one throw is needed to disqualify any one of the six. As the contestants are eliminated from the ring they are paired off, the first two that are thrown will be matched together for another bout, and the next two in the same manner, with the two that are left to battle it out after the other two bouts are finished. This year the American Legion has secured the old Armory Building and are constructing a stationary ring to be used in the contests, with new gloves and a new mat.

The contestants in the wrestle royal will be "Dago" Dawning, of Hollywood California, and Sam Franklin of Waynesville, weighing 165 pounds; "Bad Bill" McCall, of Gastonia and Lester Poteate of Waynesville, weighing 160 pounds; Charlie Dalton and After a week of rest and content- Walt Haley, both negroes, of Way
