

HERE and THERE

By Hilda Way Gwyu

Summer vacations are over... back to school... no extra nap... but with the Spartan you must rise in the morning... if you have young children... well next Monday... breakfast this... I've got to get to school on... almost... Can it be that potent?

A summer visitor in our office began to pull from her knitting bag the other afternoon... a small arm full of waste paper... I didn't quite understand at first... then she explained she had just been picking it up on Main Street... she asked why I did not write about the carelessness of our citizens... in this matter I... told her the truth... that I had taken it often for a text... that such preaching had become stale in this column... I told her we once had the good excuse that there were no containers on Main street in which to put waste paper... then the city fathers provided them... and most of us straightway forgot to use them... my attention being particularly called to it one day... I noticed as I made my way down town... and I was astounded at some of our civic minded persons... as they threw paper right and left.

Wouldn't we have a wonderful community... if we all grew flowers like Donald Dunham, Mrs. Harry Hall, Clyde Ray... and Uncle Will Shelton... if we knew our history as W. C. Allen... if we could give parties with the ease of Harriet Massie and Edna Ray... if we all had the suave manners of Bill Byers... if we knew as much about the Great Smoky Mountains National Park as H. C. Wilburn... if we showed the hospitable attitude toward strangers as Charles Ray and Ernest Withers... if we could play bridge like Hugh Sloan... if we could make our own clothes like Nell Lee... if we could write books like Carolyn Miller... if we were as interested in schools as "Buck" Bowles... if we could live up a party like L. M. Richeson... if we looked as neat in our clothes as Adora Holtzclaw Prevost and Nora Atkins... if we had the dignity of Mrs. James M. Long... if we all possessed the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Mary Saumening... if we had the enthusiasm for our work as that of Mrs. J. M. Kellett... if we could play the piano like Bobby Sloan... if we could cook like Jack Coin... if we had the thrift and business sense of James R. Boyd... if we had the pep of "Pop" Prevost... and last, but by no means least... the Charity and Faith of Mrs. John K. Boone and Mrs. H. B. West.

"WE KNOW FINER TOBACCOS— WE SMOKE CAMELS"

JOHN T. BONE (left) knows tobacco because he grows it. He says: "From experience, I know Camel buys finer tobaccos. Camel bought my best lots last season. I smoke Camels because I know I'm getting finer tobaccos. Most planters I know smoke Camels for the same reason."

THE "THOUSAND CIGARETTE TEST." Before it comes to you, every Camel cigarette goes through rigid tests to make sure that it is a perfect cigarette—plump, firm, full weight—and that each Camel gives you the same matchless blend of fine, cool-tasting tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic. Try Camels. You'll find them better for steady smoking.
