Jonathan really loves this section... or else... he's the world's biggest faker... and he can't be... because each vacation sees him return to the hills... to attend the great reunion of the people of Catahoochee... of the families... many of whom have moved away... since their homes have been taken over by the Park area... this year... it is said... they were 800 strong... from 15 states coming to renew the ties of blood and friendship... I understand he has done very well for himself... as an examiner in the Federal Reserve Insurance Corporation... with headquarters in Atlanta...

Like a great many people... who go away... when they return they can point out some of the short comings of the community... that are so familiar to us that we take them for granted... often forgetting that we might remedy them... Jonathan is much concerned over the traffic conditions on Main Street... he says if we are to become a resort town... even for a part of the year... we will have to take steps to get traffic jams corrected... or the tourist driving through town... will continue on his way... he cited one resort town he visits... that has a ruling... that is strictly kept... that no local person can park his car on Main Street... but it is left clear through the season for the tourist... not a bad idea... which naturally brings up that much agitated question of a back alley... and its usefulness... we would have some day to see the highway diverted to some side street... just think the visitors might not see our pride and joy... the stately building of our Haywood County Court house... that gives (at least we think) such an air to the village...

Speaking of old timers... a man came in the office last... week... giving his name as W. C. McAbee, of Cherokee Falls, S. I am sorry that I could not give him any information regarding its location... he said he owned a very fine shovel and pot hooks... that his ancestor had made in the blacksmith's shop here... then he asked me if there were any members of the Chambers family left in the county... and I did better with that question... I urged him to tarry a while and look up his countless relatives in Haywood...

"Robin Hood is my favorite hero... Like President Roosevelt he takes from the rich to give to the poor..."
