

-:- News Events Of Special Interest To Women -:-

Engagement Of Wide Interest Is Announced

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Stringfield have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Stringfield, to John Cornelius Allen, of Montreal, Canada, and Burlington, Vermont.

Miss Stringfield is a member of an old distinguished family of Western North Carolina on her father's side, and through her mother is prominently connected in Alabama.

She made her debut at the North Carolina Debutant Ball which is held in Raleigh each fall. Since that time she has been prominently identified with the social life of the state, and has a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Allen is the son of Mrs. Harry J. Allen, and the late Harry J. Allen, of Montreal and Burlington. He received his education at the Middlesex preparatory school, of Concord, Mass., and McGill University, of Montreal.

The announcement has been received with interest throughout the state. A large number of prenuptial affairs are being planned to honor Miss Stringfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Frank Chambers announced the birth of a son, William Frank Chambers, Jr., at their home at the Medford Farm on September the 15th.

Mrs. Willis Smith, of Raleigh, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lee. Mrs. Smith was called here on account of the illness of her mother.

MRS. BEN COLKITT GIVES PARTY THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Ben Colkitt assembled a group of friends on Thursday afternoon for a contract dessert party, beginning at 2:30. The guests were served a sweet course upon arriving, after which several progressions of contract were enjoyed.

Fall flowers in rich shades, with yellow predominating, were used throughout the rooms. When the scores were counted Mrs. Jack Way held the top score and Mrs. J. Weld Seaver was the winner of the low score prize.

Making up the tables were: Mrs. James M. Long, Mrs. C. N. Sisk, Mrs. Mary Saumenig, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. John N. Shoobred, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt, Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, Mrs. J. Harden Howell, Mrs. Ernest L. Withers, Mrs. J. Weld Seaver, Mrs. Jack Way, and Mrs. Lula Uzzle, of Raleigh.

FAREWELL LUNCHEON HONORS REV. AND MRS. NEW

The Rev. and Mrs. Albert New were tendered a luncheon on Friday by the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of "Grace Episcopal Church in the Mountains." The affair was given at the home of Mrs. Harry Marshall.

Pink and lavender flowers, with the same colors in all the appointments, were used in the dining and living rooms. The long table was covered with a lace cloth, and centered with a bowl of the two shades of flowers, while silver candelabra were placed at either end.

Following the luncheon Mrs. New was presented with an inlaid wood-craft handkerchief box containing many lovely handkerchiefs, gifts of the guests assembled.

The following members of the auxiliary, with the Rev. and Mrs. Albert New, and their son, William New, of Newport News, Va., composed the guest list: Mrs. James L. Stringfield, Mrs. E. R. Camp, Mrs. M. C. Green, Mrs. W. H. Luther, Miss Caroline Alstetter, Miss Robena Miller, Mrs. Tom Talaferro, Mrs. James R. Thomas, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Joe Michal, Miss Mamie Michal, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Hugh A. Love, Mrs. Arthur Meade, Miss Mildred Crawford, and Mrs. Robert Osborne, of Tampa, Fla.

Engagement Announced

Miss Mary Stringfield, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Stringfield, whose engagement to John Cornelius Allen, of Montreal, Canada and Burlington, Vermont was announced this week.

MRS. L. M. RICHESON ENTERTAINS MUSIC CLUB SATURDAY

The Waynesville Music Club held the first meeting of the club year, since the summer vacation period, on Saturday afternoon with Mrs. L. M. Richeson as hostess, and Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, president, presiding.

Three new members were welcomed into the group, Mrs. Douglas Moore, Mrs. George Kunze and Mrs. James G. Huggin, Jr.

Announcement was made of the district meeting of the federated music clubs, which will be held in Morganton, October the 29th, and all members were urged to make the trip.

Mrs. Stretcher had the paper of the afternoon, her subject being: "The Spread of Music Culture," which dealt with the beginning of musical appreciation and organization in the middle West.

The musicians who were responsible for the development of the beauty and value of music in this section were sketched. Among those given were: Noah Mason and Theodore Thomas. A short review of the life of John Knowles Paine was presented. Paine was the first chairman of music at Harvard, the establishment of his professorship a forerunner of music departments in the college of this country.

The following program relative to the paper was presented: "Spring Dawn," by Mason, played by Mrs. Evander Preston; "Ballad," by Richard Hoffman, by Mrs. Hugh A. Love; a vocal number, "The Wind," by W. W. Gilchrist, sung by Miss Nancy Killian; two vocal numbers, "America," by Silas G. Pratt, and "On an April Apple Bough," by M. Lange, sung by Mrs. Fred Martin, accompanied by Mrs. Stretcher.

A large number of members were present. Among the guests was Mrs. Lula Uzzle, of Raleigh. During the social hour, the hostess was assisted by her young daughter, Dorothy Richeson, in serving.

ATTENDED CONCERT IN SYLVA MONDAY NIGHT

The following attended the concert in Sylva, by Norman Cordon, distinguished bass-baritone, of the Metropolitan Opera Company: Miss Margaret Stringfield, Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, Mrs. Lula Uzzle, Miss Mary Stringfield, Miss Helen Ray, Dr. Thomas Stringfield, Mrs. Bonner Ray, Miss Frances Ray, Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Ray, Jr., Miss Alice Quinlan and Mrs. Charles E. Quinlan.

RUBY FRANCES BROWN GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

Ruby Frances Brown celebrated her birthday anniversary by entertaining a large group of her friends with a picnic supper in the city park on East street on Thursday afternoon. Various games and contests were enjoyed. Prize winners in the contests were: Catherine Davis, Doris Colkitt and Jeanette Burgin.

Supper was served on a long table centered by a birthday cake bearing pink candles. The young hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. Colvin Brown, in entertaining and serving her guests.

The guest list included, Betty Gene Alley, Mary Lee Alley, Kathryn Blalock, Catherine Davis, Meta Dicus, Merrill Green, Anne Edmonds, Ruth Burgin, Patsy Burgin, Jeanette Burgin, Charline Rotha, Virginia Kellett, Serill Stuart, Lula Frank Medford, Dorothy Richeson, Edna Kathryn McGee.

Mae Smith, Grace Wilburn, Patsy Gwyn, Pauline Wilson, Lou Ella Hall, Lois Massie, Doris Colkitt, Jane Wyche, Betty Francis, Betty K. Howell, Rosemary Herman and Polly Francis.

MRS. JAMES R. THOMAS HAS GUESTS FROM CHARLESTON

Mrs. James R. Thomas had as her guests during the past week her niece, Mrs. Josephine Myers Vincent and daughter, Josephine, and her great nieces, Roberta Maybank and Elizabeth d' Rossett Maybank, daughters of the newly nominated governor of South Carolina.

Dressmaking Shop Opened In Town This Week

Mrs. S. C. Franklin and Mrs. M. V. Snipes opened a dressmaking shop this week. It is located in the rear of the Lady Fayre Beauty Shop.

High class dressmaking and altering will be made. Both Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. Snipes have had extensive experience in this type of work. They have been connected with shops in Asheville, Chattanooga, and Jacksonville, Fla.

Noland-Francis

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noland have announced the marriage of their daughter, Avie Eleanor Noland to Walter Jackson Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Francis.

The vows were solemnized on Friday evening the 16th at 8 o'clock at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Oder F. Burnett, on Pigeon, with a small group of relatives and friends in attendance.

The bride wore a new fall wool suit in navy shades, with white silk blouse, and her accessories were in matching shades of blue. She wore a corsage of pink rose buds.

Mrs. Francis is a graduate of the Waynesville township high school, and at present holds a position in the office of the county auditor.

The groom graduated from the local high school, after which he attended Wake Forest College. Mr. Francis holds a position with the C. E. Ray's Sons department store.

After a week's motor trip through Florida, the young couple have returned to town and are at home to their friends at their residence on the Ratcliff Cove road.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY INSTALLS OFFICERS

The American Legion Auxiliary held their installation of officers for the coming year, at their meeting on Thursday evening at the Legion home on Depot street.

Mrs. Hurst Burgin, retiring president, introduced Major J. H. Howell, who gave the charge to the officers for the 1938-39 term. He was assisted by Mrs. George Kuntz, sergeant-at-arms protom.

The following officers will serve the coming year: Mrs. J. H. Howell, president; Mrs. E. B. Camp, first vice president; Mrs. T. G. Massie, second vice president; Mrs. Hurst Burgin, third vice president; Mrs. J. Colvin Brown, recording and corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. C. Green, treasurer, Miss Ida Jean Brown, sergeant-at arms, and Mrs. T. L. Bramlett, chaplain.

Mrs. Howell appointed Mrs. George Plott, hospital chairman, and Mrs. Edna McGee, membership chairman.

Following the business session the Auxiliary joined the Legion for a social hour, with Mrs. W. C. Boutwell and Mrs. M. C. Green as associate hostesses.

Mrs. Andrew... and Gastonia... the week in town... cousin, Mrs. Mary... will join her... for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brown... Frank Albricht... of Akron, Ohio... tors Friday.

Mrs. R. D. Ing... was the guest... Mr. and Mrs. H. B... home on the Fair...

Mrs. Eli Furg... N. J., is the guest... and Mrs. R. Q. M... relatives in the... son is en route to Florida where he will join her... for the winter.

Mrs. C. B. Ch... dren, of Chicago, have... fortnight's visit... Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Matney.

Miss Mary G... been occupying... Herry Foy for the... who has spent many... left this week for...

Thos. Alexander... for a visit to Pensacola... he plans to bring his family... the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Summers... had as their guests... Miss Louise Summers, Miss... Hunter, Grover Summers and... Summers, all of Johnson City, Tenn.

Mrs. Walter Hawk... spent a couple of days... first of the week. Mrs. Hawk... former Miss Mary Welch, and... resided here until she... around twelve years...

Dr. Eugene W. G... morning for New York... spending several weeks... here. Dr. G... returns to the American Museum of Natural History, where though retired, will continue his work as an associate curator in the museum.

Sketched from stock. Ask to see style 266.

$1.98

MOULDED TO YOUR FOOT!

There's an air of gay sophistication in this smartly styled gore pump. It accentuates the daintiness of the foot, yet fits comfortably with clinging softness. And its intriguing latticed front, set flatteringly in brown or black suede, hits a high note in the fall fashion parade! On a medium heel with a smart round toe.

for only $1.98

And other smart styles at $1.98 $2.98 $3.98

HAROLD'S DEPT. STORE

"Haywood's Bargain Center"

We Are Now Exclusive Dealers In Waynesville For The FAMOUS

Red Cross Shoes FOR WOMEN

Hundreds of Pairs For You to Select From. Come in and Let Us Fit You in A Pair Of These Famous Shoes—And Feel The Difference.

Massie's Dept. Store

"A Good Place To Trade"

RAY'S For Lovely Merchandise

Just Look Me Over Girls

Notice the Jacket—the Skirt—the Sweater, and isn't the hat a "pippin."

Sure—I got them at Ray's. Smart aren't they.

You couldn't do as well in Asheville.

And I should know. After spending $5 on a trip, and getting corns on both feet, I got these here.

It's My Suggestion--

SAVE YOURSELF TIME AND MONEY. SHOP WHERE SHOPPING IS EASY.

C. E. RAY'S SONS

