

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Colkitt spent the weekend at Davidson College with their son, Ben, Jr., who is a member of the football class. They were accompanied by Jack Richeson, who is attending college.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crayden and Mrs. C. C. Raleigh, arrived in town on Sunday from the former's mother's home in Quantico.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wagenfeld and Mrs. M. E. Eaverson and Ruthie, returned from the mountains over the weekend.

Miss Alice Spangfeld returned on Sunday from High Point, where she spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Eaverson.

Miss Emma Eaverson, of Western Carolina Teachers College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Eaverson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Corbin and family, Lon Arrington, and Miss Mary Arrington attended the Corbin reunion at Franklin Sunday.

Cicero J. Arrington, 48, died September 25, at the Haywood County Hospital after an illness of one week. He was a World War veteran and had many friends and relatives in this community.

The funeral services were held last Monday, at Pleasant Balsam Baptist church where he was a member. The Rev. Ben Cook and A. C. Arrington officiated. Burial was in the Red Bank cemetery.

Pallbearers were the members of the American Legion. Flower girls were Mrs. Lester Eaverson, Misses Mary Arrington, Geneva Eaverson, Marcia Arrington and Virginia Arrington. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Will Arrington; five children, Albert, Dorothy, Jack, Margaret, and Charles; three sisters, Mrs. H. H. Eaverson, Mrs. Claude Hill and Mrs. Manley Rickman, and one brother, Paul Arrington, all of Waynesville.

Applications for 121 loans have been made by tenant farmers in Haywood county. This county is allotted ten loans, but as yet, none have been approved. A headline in last week's issue said that 121 loans had been granted—this should have read "121 Loans Applied For."

Mr. and Mrs. C. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Davis, leaves this week for Atlanta where he resumes his duties at the Southern Atlanta Dental office.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt, of the Fairview road, enlisted in the U. S. Army and during the week for Fort Moultrie, S. C., where he will be stationed a brief time, after which he will go to Honolulu. Young Hyatt is a graduate of the local high school and a student for two years at Hill College.

Pays-Read the Ads

News Events From Saunook Community

Friends and relatives regret to hear of the death of Palmer Hance, who died Saturday night.

A. H. Sparks, Ned Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Eaverson, and Miss Marcia Arrington spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown in Lenoir.

Miss Emma Eaverson, of Western Carolina Teachers College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Eaverson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Corbin and family, Lon Arrington, and Miss Mary Arrington attended the Corbin reunion at Franklin Sunday.

Cicero J. Arrington, 48, died September 25, at the Haywood County Hospital after an illness of one week. He was a World War veteran and had many friends and relatives in this community.

The funeral services were held last Monday, at Pleasant Balsam Baptist church where he was a member.

The Rev. Ben Cook and A. C. Arrington officiated. Burial was in the Red Bank cemetery.

Pallbearers were the members of the American Legion. Flower girls were Mrs. Lester Eaverson, Misses Mary Arrington, Geneva Eaverson, Marcia Arrington and Virginia Arrington. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Will Arrington; five children, Albert, Dorothy, Jack, Margaret, and Charles; three sisters, Mrs. H. H. Eaverson, Mrs. Claude Hill and Mrs. Manley Rickman, and one brother, Paul Arrington, all of Waynesville.

CORRECTION

Applications for 121 loans have been made by tenant farmers in Haywood county. This county is allotted ten loans, but as yet, none have been approved. A headline in last week's issue said that 121 loans had been granted—this should have read "121 Loans Applied For."

ROTARIANS GIVE PICNIC SUPPER

The Fellowship Committee of the Waynesville Rotary Club composed of Chas. E. Ray, Jr., chairman, with J. Dale Stentz, Bill Lampkin and Frank Davis as members, gave a picnic supper at Camp Dellwood on Friday evening. Around seventy, including the members, their wives and friends, with several special guests, attended the delightful affair.

Following the serving of supper, which was planned and prepared by the host committee the guests assembled around a large camp fire and enjoyed assembly singing of old favorites, led by J. Dale Stentz.

Presented At State Ball

Miss Helen Summers who was presented to North Carolina society at the Debutante Ball, which was held in Raleigh the first of the month. Miss Summers was accompanied to the capital by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Summers.

Go To Church Sunday

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Julian S. Hopkins, Pastor. Sunday services will be as follows: 9:45 Sunday school. 11:00 Morning worship. 7:30 Evening worship. The pastor will preach in both services. 6:30 Training Union.

Special emphasis is being placed on the Wednesday evening prayer meeting. The pastor makes a black-board analysis of the Bible lesson which is being studied and discusses the subject from the historical and prophetic points of view endeavoring to show its bearing on present day needs. Next week's lesson will deal with the ministry of John the Baptist.

WAYNESVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Dr. Robert Peter Walker, Minister. This Sunday, the first Sunday in October, is Rally Day, an annual event in the Presbyterian church. On this Sunday everybody, old and young, is expected to attend Sunday school and bring an offering. The offering goes to Sunday School missions. A beautiful banner is given in Asheville Presbytery to the Sunday school with the largest per-capita offering. Sunday school at 9:45. Morning worship at 11. Christian Endeavor at 7. Mid-week service Wednesday at 7:30.

National Organization

Honors Garrett Funeral Home With Invitation

The Garrett Funeral Home has recently become a member of the National Funeral Directors Association. Membership in the organization is by invitation only, and a committee decides, after consideration of the improvement and elevation of the service rendered by the funeral home in its own particular territory, as to its eligibility to an invitation.

The annual convention of the organization will be held this year in New York City beginning the 11th of October and lasting through the 14th.

Mrs. Medford Leatherwood Heads Rock Hill P. T. A.

Mrs. Medford Leatherwood was elected to head the Parent-Teacher Association of the Rock Hill school at their initial meeting for the 1938-39 term, which was held on Friday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Other officers elected to serve with Mrs. Leatherwood were: Vice president, Miss Claudia Boyd; secretary and treasurer, Miss Estelle Allison.

The following committees were appointed: Membership, Mrs. Fred Allison, Mrs. Jarvis Palmer, and Mrs. Nelson Sutton; social, Mrs. Crady Howell, Mrs. Troy Leatherwood, Miss Wilma Allison; finance and budget, Mrs. J. J. Boyd, Mrs. Eva Lee Fulbright, Mrs. Lee Howell; program, Mrs. R. Owen, Mrs. Messer, and Mrs. Mary Lou Moody.

Mr. Boyd discussed the requirements of a standardized school and outlined plans by which the Rock Hill school could qualify. A motion was made against affiliation with the national organization.

The next meeting will be held at the school building on October the 21st.

Hospital News

Mrs. J. D. Boyston, of Canton, Route 1, operative case, is better.

Calvin West, of Clyde, Route 1, operative case, is improving.

Miss Maizell Webb, of Waynesville, Route 1, operative case, is resting comfortably.

The condition of Charles McClure, of Hazelwood, surgical case, is good.

James Fisher, of Hazelwood, operative case, is improving.

Miss Elsie Mease, of Canton, Route 2, surgical case, is better.

Steve Clark of Canton, surgical case, is resting more comfortably.

Mrs. S. H. Melton, medical case, is improving.

Baby Edgar Lee McDonald, of Hazelwood, medical case, is some better.

The condition of Mrs. R. W. Clarke, of Clyde, Route 1, medical case, is good.

Miss Mary Smathers, of Canton, operative case, is resting fairly well.

Miss Rachel Pressley, of Canton, medical case, is resting more comfortably.

Mrs. Nelson Israel, of Canton, Route 1, medical case, is resting only fairly well.

Baby Albert Burnett, of Canton, Route 1, medical case, is about the same.

DISCHARGED

Among those discharged during the past week from the Haywood County Hospital were the following: Miss Dairlee Sanford, E. Z. Stevens, Mrs. Lewis James, Miss Sophia Rider, Joe Francis, Mrs. Hugh McCracken, Lewis James, A. S. Guyer, Mark Swanger, Lindsley Case, Pressley Ackles, Mrs. Glenn Honeycutt, Willie Mae Sutton, Dorothy Caldwell, Master Luke Fie, Master Floyd Fie.

W. N. Stroupe, William Forga, Mrs. Jack Rogers, Miss Helen Owen, Mrs. Johnnie Hill, Miss Billie Whitener, Miss Pauline Messer, Mrs. Herbert Braren, Dewey Arrington, Master D. V. Gibson, Mrs. Willis Trendway, Mrs. D. Snyder, Dr. Bob Medford, Harry McIntyre, Mrs. Pearl Cutshaw, and Everett Scroggs.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Case, of Candler, Route 1, announce the birth of a daughter on September the 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, of Canton, announce the birth of a daughter on September the 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McClure, of Waynesville, announce the birth of a daughter on September the 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. James Randleman, of Clyde, announce the birth of a son on September the 26th.

GRANTED A DIVORCE

Mrs. Hazel Ferguson Tugman was granted an absolute divorce from James B. Tugman, Biloxi, Miss., in court Monday. Custody of their twelve year old daughter and other settlements were made out of court. The divorce was granted on grounds of two years separation.

MARRIAGES

Clingman Wyatt to Pearl Smith, both of Waynesville.

Whimpa Hannah to Effie Robinsen, both of Cornelius, N. C.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS HAS BARBECUE

The Men's Bible class of the First Methodist church entertained with

Women's Fall Shoes

Offered At Sacrifice Prices

$1.49 $1.98 $2.95

Covering Shoes Originally Priced $1.98 to $6

These reduced prices cover several hundred pairs of women's oxfords and dress shoes carried over from fall—1937.

Bargains! Bargains! Bargains!

Indeed Yes. They are Bargains. The group contains many attractive styles and patterns. Every pair is offered at less than they cost us.

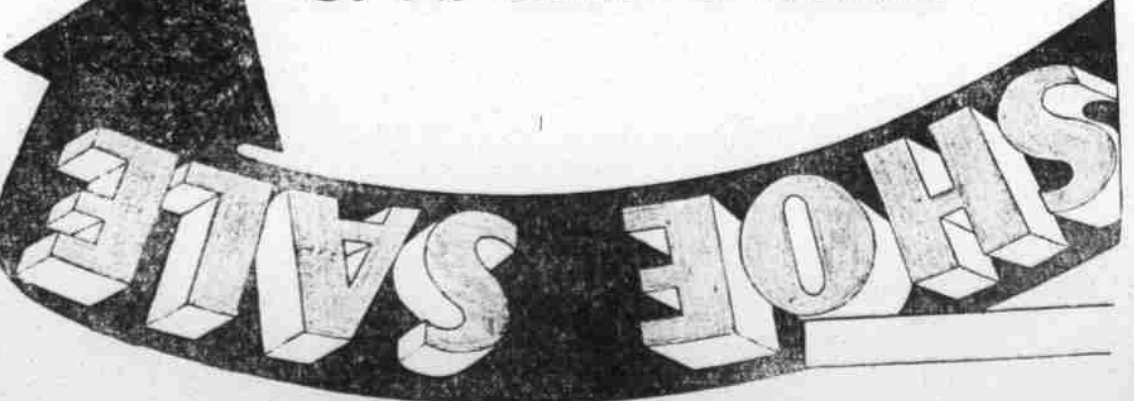

You'll Be Amazed at what we Offer for . . . $1.98

HUNDREDS OF PAIRS INCLUDED IN THIS MARKDOWN A Variety of Styles, Types and Colors

Be Among Those To Benefit from This Offering

New Fall Shoes For Men, Women, Children In An Amazingly Complete Selection

C. E. RAY'S SONS

Support The Waynesville Team

Fellows

You wouldn't support an Asheville Football team against a Waynesville team.

And you wouldn't support a Mail Order team.

So why should you support a Store in some other man's town.

AND SAY . .

Let me tell you this. They have at

Ray's

A Large Selection of the Nicest

Fall Suits

You Ever Saw.

Drop in and Take A Look

Everything for Men

In Nationally Known Standard Brands

CLOTHING — HATS — SHOES — FURNISHINGS

C. E. RAY'S SONS