

WOMAN'S PAGE

MISS MARY STRINGFIELD GIVEN CONTRACT PARTY ON SATURDAY

Miss Mary Stringfield was complimented on Saturday afternoon when Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn entertained with contract party at her home. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used as a decorative note about the rooms.

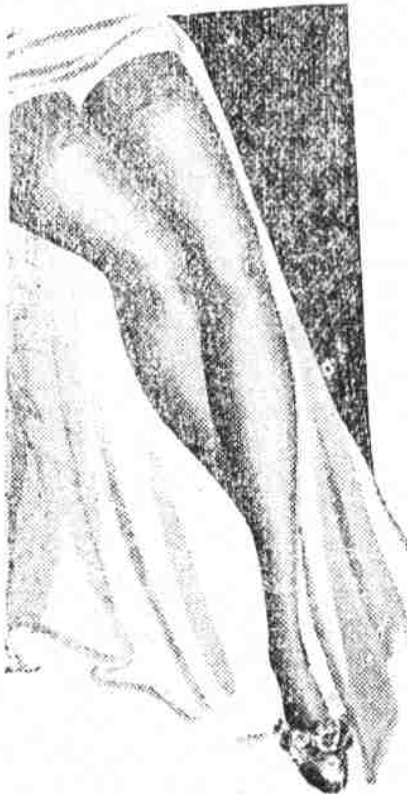

Prizes were given to the winner of the high end low scores at each table. Those winning were: Mrs. James Henderson, Miss Hester Anne Withers, Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. J. Wilford Ray, Miss Jewel Higgs, Mrs. Aaron Prevost and Miss Helen Ray. Miss Stringfield was presented a piece of silver. Mrs. James Henderson, recent bride, was also presented a remembrance of the afternoon.

The guest list included Mrs. John M. Queen, Jr., Miss Helen Ray, Mrs. S. P. Gay, Miss Mary Stringfield, Mrs. Hallet Ward, Mrs. J. Wilford Ray, Miss Hester Anne Withers, Mrs. Alvin Ward, Mrs. Whitener Prevost, Miss Mildred Crawford, Mrs. W. L. Hardin, Jr., Mrs. Hugh Massie and Mrs. James Henderson.

Invited in for tea were: Mrs. Tom Stringfield, Miss Alice Stringfield, Mrs. Clyde H. Ray, Jr. and Mrs. Mary Saumeng.

Mr. and Mrs. James Henderson, whose marriage took place on October 15th, have returned from a trip to New Orleans and other points on the Gulf Coast, and are at home in the Kirkpatrick apartments.

Well Prepared To Meet Your Hosiery Needs

CHOICE HOSE FROM

Archer Humming Bird

And Other Well Known Brands

Remember

Remember Our Hosiery Club.

That you get for every twelve hose, one pair Free.

That you save 8 1/3% on your silk hose.

That its to your advantage.

LET US SERVE YOU

C. E. Ray's Sons

THE ROTARIANS OBSERVE ANNUAL LADIES NIGHT

The members of the Waynesville Rotary Club were hosts on Thursday night of their annual banquet which they honor their wives once each year. The affair was given in the dining hall of the Welch Memorial building of the First Baptist church. Rev. James G. Huggin, Jr., pastor of the Methodist church, was master of ceremonies.

Dinner was served at long tables gay with Halloween decorations and quantities of chrysanthemums in autumn shades. Each place was marked by a number of toys, including many novel devices of making merry, with noise.

C. N. Allen was chairman of the program, and was assisted by A. P. Ledbetter and Jimmy Neal.

Special guests of the evening were: Mayor and Mrs. Jack Way, Mayor and Mrs. Whitener Prevost, of Hazelwood, President C. E. Weatherby, of the Lions Club and Mrs. Weatherby, William Chambers, president of the Boosters Club, of Hazelwood and Mrs. James Henderson.

MISS STRINGFIELD HONORED WITH SUPPER BRIDGE MONDAY

Mrs. C. C. White entertained with a buffet supper on Monday night in compliment to Miss Mary Stringfield, bride-elect of this week.

The bridal motif was used throughout the party. The guests were served at small tables centered with miniature vases holding attractively arranged flowers.

Following supper several spirited progressions of contract were enjoyed, after which Miss Stringfield was given a surprise shower of pyrex dishes.

The guest list included: Miss Mary Stringfield, Mrs. Hallet Ward, Miss Jewel Higgs, Mrs. Alvin Ward, Mrs. Frances Massie, Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Miss Alice Stringfield, Mrs. John M. Queen, Jr., Miss Eva Leatherwood, Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. Josephine Conan Ferguson, Mrs. George Bischoff, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Miss Helen Ray, Miss Hester Anne Withers, and Mrs. Whitener Prevost.

HONORED WITH PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Ferguson honored their nieces, Miss Edith and Miss Edna McCracken, with a Halloween party on Saturday night at their home at Riverside. Various games featured the entertainment of the evening.

The guest list included Miss Ada Anne Ferguson, Miss Virginia Crawford, Miss Naomi Brown, Miss Jennie McElroy, Miss Fannie McElroy, Jack Noland, Dewey Arrington, Ralph Hattfield, John Robert Ferguson, Carl Ferguson, Carlyle Davis, Joe Davis, and Wade Brown.

YOUNG HOSTESS GIVES HALLOWEEN PARTY

Lorraine Martell entertained a group of her young friends at a Halloween party on Saturday night, at the home of her parents, in the Kirkpatrick apartment.

Games significant of the season were enjoyed during the evening. The guest list included Lois Massie, Jane Dudley Francis, Mimi Goslin, Mary Ellen Boone, Elsie Green, Marian Moeler, Marguerite Moeler, Thelma Anne Jones, Nan Limer, Betty Jean Jackson, Frances Ratcliff, Ida Lou Gibson, and Dorothy Martell.

Mrs. Roy Blackwell and children, Roy, Jr., and Steve, are visiting relatives in Tryon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Summers returned on Saturday from Johnson City, Tenn., where the latter has been undergoing treatment in a hospital there.

Major and Mrs. Ben Moeler and two daughters, Marian and Marguerite, returned on Thursday from a visit to friends in Knoxville.

Mrs. Clinton H. Kee was among those who attended the Duke-Carolina game at Chapel Hill on Saturday. She spent the week-end as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles Ellner and her daughter, Miss Virginia King, at their home in Greensboro.

Mrs. Robert Simmons and small son, were joined during the week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Gay, by Mr. Simmons, who made a brief visit, after which he was accompanied to Rome, Ga., by his family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles had as their guests during the week Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pennington and small son, of Gordon, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallet Ward, who have been residing in the Kirkpatrick apartments, are now with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Higgs, at their home on Branner Avenue.

Mrs. Hugh A. Love will have as her guest over the week-end, her son, Frederick Love, of Charlotte. Mr. Love is coming here to attend the marriage of his cousin, Miss Mary Stringfield.

Gets High Rail Post

Mrs. Edith J. Alden

One of the highest executive positions in business goes to Mrs. Edith J. Alden of Berwyn, Ill., named by directors of the Burlington railroad as secretary of the corporation. It was the first time in 82 years of existence of the road that a woman was elected to a high office.

MRS. SAUMENIG GIVES DINNER PARTY FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Mary Saumeng entertained with a dinner party on Wednesday night as a courtesy to Miss Mary Stringfield, whose marriage will take place on Saturday.

The bridal motif marked all the appointments. The guests were seated at one large table covered with a lace cloth over green, and centered with a three tier crystal vase, filled with white flowers. At each place were attractive favors significant of some hobby of each guest.

Following dinner several progressions of contract were enjoyed. Prizes were given to the winners of the top scores and Miss Stringfield.

The guest list included Miss Mary Stringfield, Miss Alice Stringfield, Miss Martha Mock, Mr. and Mrs. Whitener Prevost, Roger Walker and William Medford.

HAYWOOD CHAPTER TO HOLD MEETING FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The Haywood chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will hold the November meeting on Friday afternoon with Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, at the Hotel LeFaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Y. Bridges, of Charlotte, were the week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bridges.

Roy McCracken, who was called here on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. R. Q. McCracken, has returned to his home in Orlando.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld and daughter, Miss Corinne Wagenfeld, and son, Bob Wagenfeld, spent the week-end in Raleigh.

B. S. Marsh, who is with the state highway commission, spent several days in town during the week, with his family here.

Mrs. Walter Dungan and her daughter, Miss Mary Alice Dungan, of Elizabethton, Tenn., are spending sometime here, having been called to Waynesville on account of the illness of the former's mother, Mrs. R. Q. McCracken.

Miss Clara McCall, public health nurse of the county, spent the week-end with friends in Asheville.

Ben Colkitt, freshman of Davidson College, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Colkitt, during the week.

Mrs. Mary E. Moore, who has been on a visit of several weeks to friends in Faison and Warrenton, has returned to her home at Lake Junaluska.

J. H. Timmons, U. S. Navy, member of the graduating class of 1936, local high school, spent several days in town this week as the guest of friends.

SCOUT LEADERS AND GIRLS GIVE TEA

Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, acting captain and her daughter, Miss Corinne Wagenfeld, her assistant, and the girls of the Waynesville Troop 13, of Girl Scouts, of the Asheville Council, entertained with a tea on Friday afternoon honoring Miss Mary Stringfield, the troop's former captain, whose marriage will take place on Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

The tea was given at the home of Mrs. Wagenfeld which was decorated in quantities of yellow and white flowers. The motif of yellow and green, the scout colors, was carried out in all the party accessories.

Guests of the afternoon included the mothers of the scouts, and Mrs. Tom Stringfield, mother of the honor guest.

Receiving in the entrance hall were Scouts Eugenia Martin, Betty Jane Bradley, Rosemary Herman, and Betsy Siler. In the living room, Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr. and Mrs. L. M. Richeson, with the hostesses and the honor guest received.

In the dining room Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn poured tea at an attractively arranged table, covered with a Venetian lace cloth, and centered with a crystal bowl of yellow flowers and greenery. Yellow tapers flanked the four corners. Serving here were Helen Nicholas, Catherine Davis, Ruby Frances Brown, Anne Edmunds, Winifred Rogers, and Frances Ratcliff.

In bidding their former leader goodbye, the scouts sang the scout hymn, after which Patsy Gwyn, in behalf of the troop presented Miss Stringfield with a gold scout pin. Mrs. Wagenfeld and Miss Wagenfeld presented her with a piece of silver in her chosen pattern.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN BY SCHOOL GROUP

Harold and Bill Rollins, young sons of the Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Rollins, who left this week for their new home in Hickory, were tendered a party on Friday night at the Legion home by a group of their classmates of the Waynesville High School.

Dancing and games featured the entertainment of the evening. Chaperoning the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Otis Burgin, and Mrs. Charles A. Burgin.

The guest list included: Mrs. Wade Franklin, Sarah Louise Leatherwood, Eula Mae Thrift, Winifred Rogers, Ethel Caldwell, Caroline Curtis, Catherine Jones, Helen Platt, Betty Burgin, Betty Jean Boyd, Roberta Norris, Mary Stentz, Helen Summers, Mildred Boincau, Evelyn Wyatt, Opal McCracken, Ada Blanton, Betty Platt, Juanita Massey.

Harold and Bill Rollins, David Leatherwood, Bill Phillips, Joe Ramsey, Joe Davis, Hilliard Norris, Bill Platt, Joe Way, Jack Smith, James Knight, Howard Collins, Ned Howell, Willie Messer, Gray Winchester, William McCracken, Walter Hyatt, Kenneth Palmer, Jack Richeson, and John Reeves.

Maggie Home Dem. Club Holds Meeting

The October meeting of the Maggie home demonstration club was held with Mrs. Herbert Platt, president, presiding, at the home of Mrs. Dave Platt.

The program was featured by the following numbers:

Mrs. Dave Platt gave a talk on "Poultry Suggestion for October."

Mrs. Herbert Platt gave a reading on "The Good Life for Farm Women," by Julia Peterkin.

Mrs. Julius Cutshaw spoke on "Good Health, the First Duty."

Mrs. Edwards discussed "The Duty of Looking Well."

Mrs. Jim Platt spoke on "Plan Daily Work and Recreation," and the president made a few remarks.

Miss Mary Margaret Smith gave a demonstration on curtains, showing how to make them and the materials to be used.

Announcement was made of the November meeting which will be held with Mrs. C. D. Ketner, and will be an all day affair, with a plate lunch.

NOTICE

The ladies of the Clyde Eastern Star will serve lunches on election day at the voting place in school cafeteria—reasonable rates and good lunches. Benefit the Eastern Star and Masonic Home.

R. L. LEE COAL CO. PHONE 4

MRS. JAMES W. KILLIAN GIVES DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Mrs. James W. Killian was hostess on Wednesday afternoon with a contract party. Chrysanthemums in rich autumnal shades adorned the living rooms, while the Halloween motif was noted in all the party appointments.

Several spirited progressions were enjoyed at six tables. When the cards were put away Mrs. George Kunze was found to hold high and Miss Eva Leatherwood won the low score prize. Miss Mary Stringfield, popular bride-elect of the week was also presented a gift.

ATTENDED CHURCH MEETING AT ALL SOULS, BILTMORE

Mrs. W. H. Luther, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, and Miss Robena Miller, attended the meeting of the First District of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Western North Carolina Diocese, of the Episcopal church, which was held last Friday in All Souls church, Biltmore.

ATTENDED N. C. BAR MEETING IN RALEIGH

Grover C. Davis and James Queen attended the meeting of the North Carolina Bar Association, which was held in Raleigh last week.

The following made up a party motoring to Chapel Hill for the Duke-Carolina game on Saturday: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins, Mrs. William Hannah, Miss Martha Mock, and William Medford.

MRS. JAMES W. KILLIAN GIVES JOINT HOSTESSES BRIDE-ELECT FOR BRIDE-ELECT

One of the highlights of the week was the bride-elect for the week Saturday by Mrs. J. W. Killian and Miss Eva Leatherwood at the home of the former on Saturday. Miss Mary Stringfield was the bride-elect of the week.

For the occasion the tables were arranged in a room with chrysanthemums. The room was arranged with chrysanthemums. The bride-elect bore the bridal bouquet.

The guests assembled in the dining and enjoyed several progressions of contract after which Mrs. Whitener Prevost, Mrs. Hallet Ward, Mrs. Frances Massie, Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Mrs. C. White, Miss Mildred Crawford, Debraida Fisher, Mrs. Carol Stringfield, Mrs. Alice Stringfield, Mrs. Tom Stringfield, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. Ben Sloan, of St.

The guest list included: Mrs. Stringfield, Mrs. Ralph Pressat, Whitener Prevost, Mrs. Helen Hallet Ward, Mrs. Frances Massie, Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Mrs. C. White, Miss Mildred Crawford, Debraida Fisher, Mrs. Carol Stringfield, Mrs. Alice Stringfield, Mrs. Tom Stringfield, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. Ben Sloan, of St.

GO TO HICKORY

The Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Rollins and family left yesterday for Hickory, where the former will be pastor of the First Methodist church of the place. The Rev. Rollins has been as presiding elder of the Western North Carolina district for the past four years, having been in the charge of the district time allowed by the church.

DRESSES by NELLY DON

Seen coming or going, this wool jersey speaks smartly for itself. Expertly tailored to the most minute detail... in Greenhaze, Skyline Blue, Copperwine, Black... with wooden buttons... 12-40.

SPLENDIDLY PREPARED TO MEET YOUR NEEDS FOR

Winter and Fall Apparel

Some Attractive Evening Dresses

★ ★ ★ Warm Comfortable Sportswear

C. E. RAY'S SONS