

AFTER CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS

Gone is the day of the Yuletide, With its merriment, noise and mirth;
The reveling toasts, the swaggering boasts—
In honor (?) of the Christ Child's birth!
Yesterday, it's waste and it's spoilage E'er where Christmas chimed were tongues;
The curses vain, the barter and gain, Wherever sweet carols were sung, Yet, out of it all comes solace To hearts that are e'er enshrined—The Christ Child lives for he who gives,
The gift supreme in his mind.

The above thawts, Mr. Editor, didn't lend themselves to Uncle Abe's Dick-shunary—or else my Dickshunary woodn't lend itself to the thawts, so I had to yooze Webster's.

Yes, sirc, with all the temptin' dishes—cakes, pies, sass, meats, an' other rich foods for 2 days it's sorter hard to go back to plain vittels, aint it, fokes? An' hit's not so easy to git back into the harness of our job an' git the kollar warmed up aig-in.

To say nothin' of that hang-over—head-ake, no appytite, red eyes... my-my! Them what's tride it say it's sump'n awful.

An' here's sum other hang-overs... for the more temperate of us to remember:

Pampered appytites—
Loss o' sleep—
A muddy k-yar—
"Messed up" rooms—Unwashed dishes—
"Skellyton" of the baked ham—A little cake, an' cranberry sass... but worst of all, an empty pocketbook!

To be seen 'twixt now an' New Years: Trackin' off the Christmas trees—
An' Deckorations—
Re-arrangin' stocks in stores—Inventories—
Washing' up the ol' k-yar—Stewdents returnin' to skool—Annual movers on the go—"Ol' man" gitten in fuel—That wonderful diary begin!

OL' SANTY RETURNS

Well, children, yore Uncle Abe had a talk with Santy aiter Christmas, jist before he started back to the North Pole... an' here is what he sed 'bout the little boys an' gurls 'round here—"They're a purty nice lot, the little youngsters in this kuntry; fack is, they're 'bout as nice a lot as I've seen—an' ye kno, I've bin in all the states also menny other lands. The children wuz ginerally klean an' nicelookin' sed he; 'the most of them had bin havin' purty good lessons, an' I think nearly all had bin mindin' their parents an' all that."

But Santy went on to say that sum of the children had not bin polite a-nuff, 'specially to their elders. "They don't say, 'No sir' and 'yes sir'; 'No mam' and 'Yes, mam.' Then they don't say, 'Pleeze, an' 'Thank you,' as they shoold.

"Now, Uncle Abe," sez he, "I hope to hear that the boys an' gurls 'round here air bein' more polite before I come aig-in nex' Christmas."

Santy sed that one little boy spoke very sass to him—so sass, indeed, that he marked him off his list of good boys. Santy sed that he ax't the little boy what he wanted fer Christmas—

"Not a d— thing!... you lide to me last Christmas, when you didn't bring me the wagon you promist," replide the boy.

Now, don't you think that wuz a very bad boy, children? I do; an' I don't blame Santy for markin' him off his list.

One little boy up at Hazelwood jist lookt an' lookt at Santy, 'thout sayin' a word—

"Well, what do you think of me?"
ax't ol' Santy—

"Why, you're not fat," replide the boy—yore belly don't stick out a-tall."

An' now, children, I'm a-goin' to tell you a little se-kret: Santy Claws told Uncle Abe that he thawt I cood also improve some in my way of talkin' an' writin', an' that's what I'm goin' to try to do. I'm a-goin' to study hard, an' try to spell my words an' rite so that Mrs. Moore (at the Lake) Walter Ferguson, Charley Caldwell, Jerry Massey an' others can understan' ever word—yest, sirc!

Wishin' you all a happy New Year, UNKLE ABE.

A GOOD START

The bright young thing came into the room and smiled at her mother.

"Mother," she said, "I must have some money for a new dress. Will you ask Daddy for it?"

"Ask him yourself, dear," was mother's reply. "You are getting married in a month's time and you must have some practice."—Grit.

Reunited After 15 Years

Stella McQuain and Louise Harris

For 15 years Louise Harris, 20, of Clarksburg, W. Va., has been hunting for her mother, divorced 15 years ago from Thomas E.
Harris. A few weeks ago she heard her mother was living in Pittsburgh. Telephone calls and the help of the Bureau of Missing Persons brought about a reunion of the girl and her mother, which is pictured above in Pittsburgh.

Canada Inaugurates Three "E's" Plan To Aid In Traffic Safety

TORONTO—The "Three E" plan—engineering, education, and enforcement—forms the basis of the safety work being carried on by the Ontario Department of Highways, according to a survey recently released by R.
M. Smith, Deputy Minister. He pointed out that Ontario has had 33 per cent fewer highway traffic fatalities so far this year because of its extensive accident prevention program.

The department has erected more than 100,000 safety road signs. Roads in the Toronto area are being eliminated. In every mile of highway being built in the Province today the safety of motor and pedestrian traffic is invariably the prime consideration.

Engineers are working to eliminate dangerous curves, he went on, cutting the tops off dangerous hills and filling in valleys. The dual highways, "clover leaf," highway illumination, installation of traffic-operated signal lights, guide rails, widening of road shoulders, and elimination of dangerous ditches are all factors which will lead to improvement in highway traffic safety.

Obituary

Whereas: Our esteemed colleague, Dr. J. Fanning Abel, was called from his earthly activities on December 1, 1938.

And whereas: Dr. Abel had long been an active and highly respected member of this society, having served it as president, and in other important positions. He had also served as President of the Tenth District Medical Society, was a member of the American Medical Society, and a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons.
He had also been active in other medical organizations, and was a strong advocate of Organized Medicine. Dr.
Abel was a close student of medical publications, and frequently did post graduate work, thereby keeping himself well informed as to the latest things in medicine. He was also a prominent citizen of our county and state, and had a host of loyal friends throughout the section in which he spent almost half a century in service to suffering humanity.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Haywood County Medical Society:

First: That we feel a deep loss in the passing of this distinguished physician.

Second: That a page in our record book be set apart and dedicated to his memory.

Third: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minute book, a copy be sent to the family of our deceased member, and a copy to each of the Haywood county newspapers.

J. R. McCracken,
V. H. DUCKETT,
N. F. LANCASTER,
Committee.

HEADACHE IS USUALLY A WARNING

There are many different kinds of headache or causes for headache and taking pain-killing medicines only temporarily stills nature's warning to you.

The habits of different kinds of headache tell your doctor a great deal about the cause, and only a trained physician can distinguish between the serious headache and the one resulting from some transient condition.

There are the various kinds of headaches caused from kidney trouble, high blood pressure, eye strain, syphilis, toxic conditions. There is the migraine or "sick headache," which in itself can be caused by any one of a number of things, and assumes many different forms. "Toxic" headache can result from infections in the teeth, tonsils, appendix, gall bladder, prostate glands or anywhere else in the body.

Have your Physician search for the cause of persistent headache.
