Winston Davis, Herbert McClure, and James Leatherwood were joint hosts on Saturday night when they entertained with a party at the home of the latter. The house was arranged in seasonal decorations. Games featured the evening. Among those present were Miss Jerry Brown, Miss Mae Case, Miss Lenora Mae Walker, Victor Nobeck, William McCracken, Ben Phillips, Edwin Leatherwood, Weaver H. McCracken, Jr., Charles Leatherwood, Joe Way and Joe Ramsey.

HAS NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

Last Saturday evening, Miss Margaret Swayngim, entertained a group of the younger set at her home on the Dellwood road. She was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. R. F. Swayngim. Games and dancing featured the evening's entertainment, after which refreshments were served by the hostess and her mother.

Those attending the delightful affair were: Miss Sara Queen, Miss Mary Ruth Linder, Miss Moebla Moody, Miss Frances Burress, Miss Hilda Moody, James White, Joe Howell Moody, Sam Queen, Jr., Ned Glavich, James Toy, Bill Toy, Louis Jones, Joe White, Corbet Chambers, and Charlie Smith.

MRS. GUY MASSIE GIVEN HOUSE WARMING

The Marietta Way Bible class, of which Mrs. T. Guy Massie is a member, gave a surprise party to Mrs. Massie on Tuesday evening, calling in a body at her new home on South Main street, into which she has recently moved.

During the evening refreshments, which had been brought by the guests, were served.

MR. AND MRS. M. H. FERGUSON GIVE LARGE DINNER

Mr and Mrs. M. H. Ferguson entertained on Sunday at their home on route one, Clyde, with a buffet dinner to which around fifty guests had been invited.

The entire house was decorated in the seasonal colors. The guests were served from one long table in the dining room which also bore the Yuletide motif. From the chandelier hung silver bells. Red candles were used throughout the home, and large log fires completed the cheerful hospitable atmosphere of the home.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED OF KEEN INTEREST IN TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gibson, of Sylva, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Evelyn Reeves Gibson, to William Howard Hyatt, of Waynesville. The marriage took place at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, December the 17th, at the Methodist district parsonage in Spartanburg, S. C. The Rev. W. M. Mullikin, presiding elder of the Spartanburg district, performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a hunter's green traveling suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The young couple were accompanied to Spartanburg by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, of Waynesville.

Mrs. Hyatt is a graduate of the Sylva High School and Western Carolina Teachers College. For the past several months she has held a position in the office of the Land O' the Sky Mutual association in Waynesville.

Mr. Hyatt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt, of Waynesville. He was graduated from the Waynesville High School and has attended the McCallie School at Chattanooga, North Carolina State College, at Raleigh, and is now a student at Cecil's Business College, in Asheville.

After the groom's graduation in February, the couple will reside here, where Mr. Hyatt will hold a position with Hyatt and Company.

MR. AND MRS. CLINTON H. KEE RETURN FROM VISIT TO TENN.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton H. Kee returned on New Year's Day from Tennessee where they visited at several points. They were the guests of Mr. Kee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Kee, at their home in Memphis. They were entertained extensively during their stay in Memphis, with dinner parties, dances, luncheons and buffet suppers, and bridge parties. En route home they visited friends in Nashville, and Knoxville, in the latter place visiting Miss Ann Bryan, who was an attendant at the wedding of Mrs. Kee.

Mr. and Mrs. Kee were accompanied home by the former's brother, Eugene Kee, who has recently returned home from a six month's European trip.

Rufus Summerrow, who is now located in Newport News, Va., returned to his work on Monday after spending the past week with his family.

WAYNESVILLE MUSIC CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Jr., was hostess on Saturday afternoon to the members of the Waynesville Music Club, on the occasion of the regular December meeting. Christmas greens decorated the living rooms. Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, president, presided. A brief business session was followed by the program, with Mrs. E. B. Camp in charge. Mrs. Camp gave a sketch of the life of Ethelbert Nevin, showing the similarity in career with that of Stephen Foster. She stated that Nevin was never a great student, but absorbed his culture and education from travel and experience.

Mrs. Camp pointed out that American music reached its summit in Nevin, and that his attempts at a large composition for symphonic orchestration were cut short by ill health. In his writings of songs he was not a master of great things, but a poet of beautiful little verses.

The following delightful program of Nevin numbers was given: "Narcissus," his most popular composition, from the "Water Scene," played by Mrs. George Kunze; "Water Nymph," from the suite "Water Scene," by Mrs. Hugh A. Love; "Mighty Like a Rose," sung by Miss Ida Jean Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Camp; "The Rosary," by Mrs. Fred Martin.

Miss Margaret Stringfield played a violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. Camp, "The Venetian Love Song," from "A Day in Venice Suite," Ave Maria, "Good Night," from "A Day in Venice Suite," which was played at Nevin's funeral, was rendered by Mrs. J. S. Hopkins.

During the social hour Mrs. Hardin was assisted by Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher in serving.

JOINT HOSTESSES HONOR VISITOR

Miss Martha Way and Miss Corinne Wagenfeld were joint hostesses on Saturday evening at the home of the former, of a dinner party honoring Miss Evelyn Horne, of Wilmington, who is visiting Miss Sara Jane Walker.

The guests were seated at one long table, which was centered with a bowl of poinsettias, and flanked with holders containing red candles arranged in the form of a cross.

Following the dinner the guests went to the Bell Tavern, Canton for dancing. The list included, Miss Sara Jane Walker, Miss Sarah Welch, Miss Evelyn Horn, Miss Billie Rotha, and Dollee Marsh, Sam Stringfield, Bob Wagenfeld, Bill Henderson, Mack Davis, Bobbie Sloan, Joe Cathey, and Snag Hensley, of Morganton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis T. Coman, of Lake Junaluska, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Josephine Coman Ferguson, to Thomas Newton Cook, which took place at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in Long's Chapel, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Lake Junaluska. The Rev. John H. Carper, pastor, pronounced the marriage vows, in a private ceremony, attended by a group of intimate friends and relatives.

The church was arranged in quantities of greenery with floor chandelabra holding numerous cathedral candles, placed at advantageous points and at intervals tall vases of poinsettia gave touches of color.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Ann Glosser, life long friend of the bride, rendered the following numbers: "Lieberstrum," and Schubert's "Serenade." Miss Mildred Crawford, accompanied by Miss Glosser sang "Until," by Wilfred Sanderson. The march from Lohengrin was used as a processional and Mendelssohn as a recessional.

The couple entered the chapel together. The bride wore a smart suit of Dubomet wool trimmed in Persian lamb, with which she wore black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Ferguson is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School and attended the Centenary College, Cleveland, Tenn. She has a wide family connection in this part of the state, and a large circle of friends. She is a prominent member of the younger social group of Waynesville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cook, of Boone. He is a graduate of the Appalachian State College, and the North Carolina State College, of Raleigh. He was formerly located in Waynesville, where he was supervisor of the Farm Rehabilitation work in Haywood and Buncombe counties. He now resides in Murphy, where he is county supervisor of Farm Security, of Cherokee county, of the state agriculture department.

Upon their return from a trip North, which will include Washington, Philadelphia, and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Cook will be at home to their friends in Murphy.

Among those from out of town attending the marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. James H. Coman, of Franklin, Mrs. W. L. Washington, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Hazel Eaton, of College Park, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crouse, of Burnsville, Mr. and Mrs. Sechler, of Asheville, Miss Sarah Elmore, of Mars Hill, and Sam R. Mitchner, of Winston-Salem.

James R. Boyd, Jr., and Davis Underwood were among those from this section motoring to California to see Duke play.

MRS. ANNA G. GIFFORD GIVES WATCH PARTY

Mrs. Anna G. Gifford, of route one, was hostess on Saturday evening of a watch party at her home. Music was furnished during the evening by a group from Cruso. A number of games were played. At midnight the guests made New Year resolutions.

Among those present were: Miss

Edith Creasman, Hobert Creasman, and Jack Cagle, of Hazelwood, Hilliard Burnett, of Cruso, Mrs. Roy Ledford, Miss Pauline Ledford, Miss Dorothy Ledford, Dean Ledford, Mrs. J. T. McCracken, Miss Edith McCracken, Miss Edna McCracken, Thomas McCracken, Mrs. Ronald Morris, and daughter, Porter Frady, Hugh Morris, Fay Rogers, and a large group of nearby neighbors.
