Woman's Club Observes Golden Jubilee Thursday

The Woman's Club entertained a large tea on Thursday afternoon in observance of the Golden Jubilee of the organization of the Federation of Women's Clubs. The affair was held at the Gordon Hotel.

Meeting the guests at the entrance of the lobby were Mrs. W. Killian and Mrs. Bonner. They took the measure of each guest's waist and she counted a penny for every inch, money derived to be sent to the general federation of clubs.

Mrs. Jarry Colkitt and Mrs. Thomas M. Seawell directed the tea to the first receiving line composed of the following officers: Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. Ben Colman and Mrs. George Kunze, the other officers including Mrs. Troy and Mrs. Frank Ferguson were absent.

The second line was composed of past presidents of the club: Mrs. Dan Watkins, Mrs. S. P. Gay, J. Hardon Howell, Mrs. N. M. Ford, Mrs. R. N. Barber, with the rest of the group unavoidably absent: Mrs. H. G. Stone, Mrs. C. F. Spatznik, and Mrs. C. H. McCall.

Mrs. John M. Queen invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. Robena Miller presided. Mrs. N. Shoolbred and Mrs. Rufus Blackwell poured, with Mrs. Ward N. Barber, Jr., Mrs. George Bischoff, Mrs. Whitener West, and Mrs. N. F. Lancaster lining up.

Quantities of yellow and white flowers were arranged at the lobby and the dining room. The tea table was centered with a large silver bowl of yellow and white flowers with silver holders containing blue candles. The table was covered with a cut work Filet lace cloth.

During the afternoon Mrs. Evan Preston gave a group of piano players and also accompanied by Ida Jean Brown, who sang "Rosary" and "The Indian Call."

A large number of club women and their friends called during the noon.

C. Of C. Benefit Attracted Large Number Guests

The Haywood chapter of the Children of the Confederacy were hostesses of a benefit bridge party on Saturday afternoon at the home of the acting president, Patsy Gwyn. Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. L. E. Fisher, of Asheville, state president of the North Carolina division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and Mrs. Noble Garrett, president of the local adult chapter.

Guests were greeted at the front door by Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., Patsy Gwyn, and Eugenia Martin, newly elected president of the chapter, Ruth Turner, Marguerite Way, and Lois Massie, members assisted in receiving.

Those winning the prizes contributed by the various business firms of the town were: Mrs. Hallet Ward, Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Miss Robena Miller, Mrs. W. R. Francis, Mrs. White Mease, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, Mrs. Johnnie Ferguson, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Miss Lila Fisher, of Asheville, and Miss Mildred Crawford.

Tea guests cutting prizes were: Mrs. J. R. Boyd, Jr., and Miss Nancy Killian. Mrs. Fisher was presented an original Godey print of the '60s by Patsy Gwyn.

Mrs. James E. Massie and young son, Joe Massie, who have been visiting the former's daughter in New York City, returned home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mizell and young son, of High Point, were the guests during the week of Miss Alice Stringfield. Mrs. Mizell was before her marriage, Miss Julia Hayes, and at one time resided here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hayes, who now make their home in High Point also. Mr. Mizell was formerly in business in Waynesville.

Mrs. E. W. Miles and young son, Earl White Miles, Jr., who have been residing in Westfield, N. J., arrived during the week to spend sometime here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Terrell. Mrs. Miles will be joined by her husband, Captain Miles, of Eastern Airways, and upon their return North they will be located at Great Neck, Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Ketner, had as their guests during the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henden, of Asheville.

Holland House To Open Dining Room Friday

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Vandenhooen of the opening of the dining room at the Holland House, with the initial dinner to be served tomorrow night from 6 to 8 o'clock.

"In opening our dining room to the people of Waynesville and vicinity, we will aim to serve only first quality and wholesome food, well prepared in an atmosphere with a bit of old Holland," said Mr. Vandenhooen yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vandenhooen, the former a native of Holland, came to Waynesville about a year ago from Hempstead, L. I., and leased the W. T. Lee residence on the corner of Branner Avenue and Walnut street. They have managed a successful tourist home since coming here.

Heretofore they have not served meals either to their guests or to outsiders, but feeling that there was a demand for more variety in eating places in town they are opening the dining room to the public.

Guests who intend to have dinner at the Holland House tomorrow

Civic League Meet Postponed To Wednesday

The meeting of the Civic League which had been scheduled for yesterday afternoon has been postponed until Wednesday the 17th. It will be held in the office of the Chamber of Commerce, according to the president, Mrs. Rufus L. Allen.
