BROUGHTON OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN HERE

In Western North Carolina there is almost unlimited mineral wealth. The state already ranks first among the states of the Union in the production of feldspar and mica. We likewise have unlimited supplies of kaolin and other essentials for the ceramic industry. In fact, we have in our state practically every mineral that is found in America. We have great potential wealth in our undeveloped minerals. I am glad to pledge to the mining industry of North Carolina my most vigorous and enthusiastic co-operation.

Likewise, in Western North Carolina the raising of livestock has become one of our greatest agricultural industries. The growing of beef cattle in Western North Carolina has enormously increased. We have the soil and the climate conducive to a splendid beef cattle industry in North Carolina. The counties of the Piedmont and East may co-operate in this industry. The West has the growing land and the East may produce those crops necessary to finishing and fattening the cattle for the market. This offers one solution to the critical agricultural problem that confronts us in the coming years.

Beginning with Governor Charles B. Aycock, the state has made amazing progress in its public school program. There must be no backward step in this program. Good schools shall be made available to the children of all the people of the state, with adequate bus transportation and with roads over which buses can travel. The teachers of the state are entitled to the fullest co-operation. To the teachers of North Carolina I propose specifically (1) adequate and immediate provision for teachers' retirement fund; (2) provision for sick leave without loss of pay; (3) improvement in compensation; (4) reasonable assurance as to teaching tenure; (5) continued emphasis on vocational guidance and training; (6) encouragement of Federal aid without any Federal control.

Indispensable to our progress as a state is our road program. At we have built roads we have made progress in all lines. Travel has increased and industry has grown. All of our highway funds are needed for road building and improvement. Not a dollar of the highway money should be diverted for any other purpose. Emphasis must be given to the farm-to-market and home-to-school roads of the state, to the end that all the people of our state may enjoy these benefits.

No program for North Carolina is adequate which does not include public health and provision for the unfortunate and the handicapped. These activities are close to the heart of the people of North Carolina; they must be adequately maintained.

Taxes in North Carolina are as high in my opinion as the people can stand. Adjustments may be needed and a constant and intelligent study of the whole tax question should be made. The effort should be towards reduction and not increase. The state has wisely adopted the policy of no state tax on land, and this policy should be maintained. In order to meet the obligations of the state the sales tax must be continued, but, in conformity with the pledges of the Democratic party, all food for home consumption should be exempted. "Let us take the sales tax off the home table." The improvement in business as reflected in increased revenue under our present tax laws will now justify this action.

In entering this campaign I do so upon my own initiative and responsibility and not as the candidate of any group or political faction. I have made no alliance with or any commitment to any group or individual. If nominated and elected, I will have no obligation except to the people of North Carolina of my ability."

Scientific fitting service insures correct fit at all vital points.

MOTHERS, do you realize that almost 90 per cent of grown-ups suffer from foot trouble caused by incorrectly fitted shoes in childhood?

The bones of children's feet are soft and pliable so that little feet quickly take the shape of the shoes they are wearing. If these shoes are wrong, the soft little foot bones easily become distorted, and foot troubles begin.

Realizing the great importance of correctly fitted shoes, Buster Brown has developed a new scientific fitting service that tends to eliminate guesswork and assures correct fit at all the vital points of the child's foot.

We are proud to be headquarters for the 6-Point Fitting Plan. It means that we are able to do a perfect fitting job for your child every time you bring him in for Buster Browns.

Your child needs or will soon need new shoes. Come in for Buster Browns. You'll get the fit children need and the style they like.
