Farmers Receive Quotas Of Lime And Phosphate

During the past six weeks the farmers of Haywood County have received 6,300 tons of lime and 5,210 tons of super phosphate, in accordance with the 1940 Agricultural Conservation program.

The phosphate has been furnished by the Triple AAA and is coming to Haywood County direct from Charleston, S. C.

All ground lime that is being used on the Haywood County farms is being sent direct here from Mascot Lime Company, of Knoxville.

All farmers who have not as yet received some of these materials are asked to place their orders at once, since every farmer can secure these materials instead of payment under the 1940 program.

Trucks Will Haul Away Trash, Town Asking Cooperation

Many Reasons Cited For Need Of Making Community Spic And Span

A proclamation to the citizens of Waynesville by Mayor J. H. Way, Jr., appears in this issue, asking that they co-operate in the Annual Clean Up Week. Every property owner, business man or home maker is urged to take part in the campaign.

While the town trucks have a regular daily schedule of hauling trash from the business places on Main street every day, and the private homes on each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, during the coming week beginning on Monday morning they will carry rubbish every day from business and residential sections for the duration of the week.

Where it is possible alderman T. L. Bramlett, who is in charge of the streets, is asking that all debris which is to be hauled off, be placed in boxes or arranged on the side walks so that it will not be scattered by the wind to surrounding areas, as the truck drivers will not have time to gather up rubbish under these conditions.

Mayor Way is urging that as never before the citizens make a thorough job of cleaning up their premises, getting ready for the hundreds of tourists who may visit Waynesville this summer, and be here in June for the dedication of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

Special attention is called to the backyards of the business places where so often there is an accumulation of waste paper and boxes that may be out of sight of Main street for the time being, but eventually will be blown about and land out in front of the buildings.

Along with the general clean up campaign the town officials are asking that citizens check up on plumbing, wiring and repairing in general.

Old dilapidated buildings, garages, and fences that are of no services or value should be torn down. Often such items destroy an otherwise attractive outlook.

The officials are also asking that high hedges and shrubs at the intersection of streets and adjacent driveways or alleys be trimmed at this time.

Another phase of the clean up campaign is to remove every old discarded car or truck that is thrown on some side street, as such things detract from the general appearance of the vicinity. There are few things more desolate looking than an old rusty motor vehicle.

It was pointed out that to have the clean up campaign effective it will take the co-operation of the entire community, and every citizen is urged to do his or her part.

The paint-up feature of the week is also urged. It was pointed out that nothing can so rejuvenate the appearance of buildings or fences than a coat of paint, which also serves as great a purpose as a preserver of property as a beautifier.

Saturday Set For Precinct Meetings

C. E. Brown, chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Haywood County, has announced that Saturday, May the 4th, at 2:30 o'clock is the date set for the precinct meetings in the county.

The purpose of the precinct meetings is to elect a precinct committee of five, chairman, vice chairman, and delegates to the county convention and to transact any other business for the party plans.

The county convention will be held at the court house here the following Saturday, May the 11th, at 3:00 o'clock.

The state convention will be held in Raleigh at 12:00 o'clock noon, Friday, May the 17th.

Notices of all meetings have been sent to the precinct chairmen in the county, according to Mr. Brown.

Photographs taken in 1897 on the ill-fated Andree expedition to the polar regions were not developed until 1930.

A WORD TO OUR CITIZENS

Beautify
The

A City is a Community of People, all living within an incorporated area with established boundary lines. The purpose of a City or a Community of people thus living together within a given area is that they, in common, may enjoy the benefits that would be impossible to obtain by an individual citizen. Thus the City is for All the people, and Each citizen has certain obligations and duties to perform in the maintaining of the City and contributing to its advancement.

LET'S PREPARE NOW FOR JUNE 11 — THE DATE SET FOR THE FORMAL OPENING OF THE PARK

Therefore - -

YOUR CITY IS JUDGED

Not by sections of the city, but as a whole. Each house in Waynesville, whether business or residential, public or semi-public, has a direct bearing on the city as a whole. A building that needs repair, detracts from the value of other buildings that are in good repair and in good appearance.

Next Week Is CLEAN - UP WEEK

And the city officials are confident that all citizens of the city will work hand-in-hand to make it a Great Success. Every penny spent in cleaning up and painting up our city will be returned ten-fold. Therefore, we, your City Officials, urge upon everyone the importance of doing his or her part during the coming week.
