Local Club Hears German Actress Talk On Theater

Mrs. Laura Schnorrenburg, of Asheville, formerly of Germany, was the guest speaker on Wednesday afternoon of the Waynesville Book Club at a meeting held with Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan at Prospect Hill.

Mrs. Schnorrenburg discussed the German Theatre, give in detail its development and the part it plays in the life of both the large cities and the smaller towns. She stated that the theater is subsidized by the state and that the theater is maintained in communities all over the country.

Following her discussion Mrs. Schnorrenburg delighted the members of the club with a reading "Patterns," by Amy Lowell.

Mrs. Schnorrenburg was an actress on the legitimate stage in Germany in drama and repertoire for eight years, during which time she played many important roles, and had a wide experience, having appeared in many of the larger cities in the country.

She has also played before audiences in New York City, having been brought to this country by the famous Max Reinhardt in one of the presentation of his plays.

Mrs. William T. Hannah, introducing Mrs. Schnorrenburg, stated that she was "really half North Carolinian," as her mother was a Raleigh girl, who went to Germany to study, and while there met and married her husband, who was an officer of the Imperial Guards.

Mrs. Schnorrenburg was accompanied by Mrs. William S. Justice, of Asheville, who was also a special guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Sloan, Jr., of Warsaw, spent the week-end in town as the guests of the former's father, Hugh J. Sloan, at "Blink Bonnie."

Mrs. F. H. Marley has returned from a visit to relatives in Lenoir.

Mrs. James Shook Queen left during the week for a fortnight's visit with her parents in Raleigh.

Ernest K. Herman spent the week-end in Asheville with his parents.

James R. Thomas and J. W. Summers spent the week in Robbinsville and Murphy.

Mrs. John K. Boone had as her guests during the week-end her sisters, Miss Anne and Miss Corrie Kerr, of Asheville.

National Music Week Observed By WPA Project

The WPA music project under the supervision of Miss Grace Crocker, will present their part of the observance of National Music Week celebration on Saturday afternoon, May the 11th, at 5 o'clock in the Parish House of Grace Episcopal church.

An interesting program has been arranged for the afternoon. Parents and friends of the pupils are cordially invited to be present.

New classes for beginners in piano under the WPA program will be formed this week. This work is primarily for the benefit of student who cannot afford to pay for lessons and who seriously wish to study music. A class in choral work will also be organized.

Students who wish to take these courses are asked to get in touch with Miss Crocker this week. There are no charges made for the lessons.

Miss Crocker will be glad to register new private pupils for the summer in piano, voice and violin piano ensemble.

Beginning today Miss Crocker will start a WPA piano class in the music room of the Clyde school auditorium. Classes similar to those she will conduct in Waynesville, free of any charge will be given to pupils who desire to study and are not able to finance their lessons.

All those who wish to study from Clyde during the summer are asked to get in touch with Miss Crocker today.

She will also register private pupils in Clyde for the summer work.

Miss Frances Dunn left Sunday for Nashville, after spending a week here with her mother, Mrs. C. B. Atkinson. Miss Dunn, a graduate of the General Hospital of Nashville, who has been connected with Vanderbilt Hospital since her graduation, has recently accepted a position with the Davidson County Hospital in Nashville.

Mrs. W. A. Shands and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Dell, of Gainesville, Fla., who have spent the past several summers here, were guests during the week at the Hotel Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Norman, of Griffin, Ga., arrived on Saturday for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr. Mr. Norman has returned home, but Mrs. Norman will spend a fortnight here.

Today's Fashion

White adds dash.

By VERA WINSTON

A CRISP WHITE collar adds dash and verve to any dark frock. Here's a grand afternoon model, effective yet essentially simple. The fabric is black crepe, the collar is sheer lingerie with black velvet ribbon run through its lace beading and a fluffy lace ruffle bordering it. The dress closes with tiny buttons to the waist where there is a self-belt. The nicely flared skirt swings from the waist. It has center seams front and back, and short sleeves.

State President Of UDC Visits Local Chapter

Mrs. L. E. Fisher, of Asheville, state president of the North Carolina division of the Daughters of the Confederacy, was the guest speaker at the May meeting of the Haywood chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was held at the home of Mrs. John M. Queen.

The meeting was scheduled to be held with Mrs. J. H. Howell at "Windover," but owing to sickness in the family was changed at the last moment.

Mrs. Fisher spoke at length of the work of organization and outlined future activities. She urged completion of funds for the Jefferson Davis Memorial in Montgomery, Ala. She asked the cooperation of the members in the planting of the Memorial Forest in the Pisgah National Forest.

She urged that the adult group lend every assistance to the junior chapter in their work and encourage them in their activities.

Miss Robena Miller had the paper of the afternoon on "The City of Atlanta." Miss Miller portrayed the dramatic history of the War Between the States that centered around Atlanta, and gave a resume of the city then and now.

Following the meeting the guests enjoyed tea served from an attractively arranged table, with Mrs. Noble Garrett, president of the chapter, pouring.

Red and white flowers in a crystal bowl flanked on the four corners centered the central table. Pink and white tulips were used throughout the living rooms and entrance hall.

Mrs. F. H. Marley was a special guest of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell and Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., visited Montreat College during the week, where they went to see the latter's daughters, Miss Betty Gene and Miss Mary Lee Alley, students.

Mrs. James A. Gwyn, of Wilmington, Del., who is visiting her father, W. T. Lee, and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, were the guests during the week of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Carleton C. Curtis, in Tryon.

Mrs. Foy Had Charge Of Music Club Program

Mrs. Henry Foy was in charge of the program of the meeting of the Waynesville Music Club which was held on Saturday afternoon with Mrs. E. B. Camp and Mrs. Troy Wyche at the home of the former.

The subject under discussion was "Modern French Music." Mrs. Foy told of the tendency of modern music in France and its place in the modern musical world.

Several numbers were given illustrating various points brought out in her discussion of the subject. Mrs. Olive Green, accompanied by Mrs. Grover C. Wilkes, of Sylva, sang, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," from Sampson and Delilah, by Saint-Sans.

Mrs. Troy Wyche, pianist, played "Beccurse," from Joscelyn by Goard. Mrs. Hugh A. Love, pianist, rendered "The Flatterer," by Chaminate.

Miss Stephanie Moore, of Lake Junaluska, gave current events in the world of music.

Mrs. Hugh Love, who represented the local club at the annual convention of the State Federation of Music Clubs, which was held recently in Elizabeth City, gave a detailed report of the meeting.

Special guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. H. C. Lindsley, Miss Jessie Herren and Miss Louise Berry, of Manitou Springs, Colo.

L. H. Bramlett returned on Friday from Camden, S. C., and Thomasville, Ga., where he maintains stables during the winter season.

Mrs. Glenn Tweed, of Asheville, is spending this week in town as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Boyd, Jr.

Mrs. John M. Queen, Jr., leaves today for a month's visit in the North. She will spend part of the time with Mrs. Elise Latimer, in New York City, after which she will visit Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, in Burlington, Vt. Mrs. Queen is the former Miss Mary Stringfield.

Major and Mrs. Wilford Jackson and children left Tuesday morning for Terre Alto, West Va., where they will spend ten days. They were called to Terre Alto on account of the death of an uncle of Mrs. Jackson.

Robert Hugh Clark, superintendent of lights for the town of Waynesville, spent several days in Raleigh during the week on business.
