Today's Fashion

By VERA WINSTON

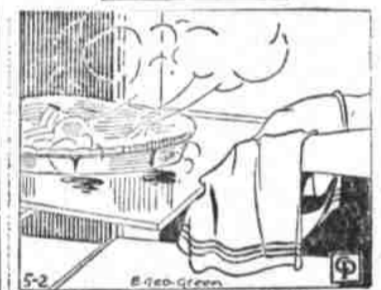

HERE'S a swell number in which to greet spring. It is of navy blue crepe, buttoned to below the waistline. The skirt is seamed to minimize the waist and give a flare. Two all pockets are placed below the bird's-eye pique collar with its pleated edge. Cuffs are of the same. Both are put on with concealed buttons and button-holes, making them easy to detach for laundering.

Mother's Day was observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCracken, of Clyde, route 1, on Sunday with the following children and their families present: Mrs. C. B. Allen, Mrs. Wayne McCracken, Claud McCracken, Gaines McCracken, of Clyde route 1, Tom McCracken, and Mrs. William Green, of Canton, Mrs. W. Hardy Liner, Hubert McCracken, of Raleigh, L. E. McCracken, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Roy Orrell, of Greensboro.

Dr. Dudley W. Smith and his wife, Dr. Gladys Osborne, are among the local physicians attending the annual meeting of the State Medical Society which is being held this week in Pinehurst.

Mrs. Joe Rose and daughter, Miss Carolyn Rose, arrived yesterday from Chicago, and have opened their summer home at Balsam for the season. Mr. Rose will join them later.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Woody returned on Sunday from Pinehurst, where they attended the North Carolina State Bankers annual convention.

When baking fruit pies that have a tendency to run over, it is a good plan to put a cookie sheet underneath the pie. The cookie sheet is much easier to clean than the bottom of the oven.

job he has been holding. Recently he was selected as "the man of the year" in service to agriculture by Dr. Clarence Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer. He will address the Haywood voters on "Problems of Agriculture."

Robert H. McNeil, of Statesville, one of the Republican candidates for governor, is scheduled to speak here on Friday night at 8 o'clock in the court house. Mr. McNeil, outstanding in his party, no doubt will come to Haywood with a well indexed catalogue of the mistakes of the New Deal, and will offer to the voters ideas of how to correct them. Mr. McNeil is said to be an able speaker, and regardless of which side of the fence the voter may be he will hear a "good speech."

before the United States court, many of the U. S. District Courts scattered throughout the county, the Patent Office, and the U. S. Court of Claims, and the state courts of Illinois, but residence requirements before being admitted to practice in the state of courts of North Carolina, will, for the present, limit his practice to the completion of litigation pending in Chicago and elsewhere in Patent and Trade Mark law and Federal court matters.

Mr. Millar has had a very broad and extensive experience gained during 28 years general practice, and in conducting of such important litigation in the Chicago courts and throughout the country. While confining his practice of late years largely to corporation law, patent and trade mark law and to practice before National Labor Relations board, Mr. Millar during his many years of practice has tried cases in nearly all fields of law.
