B. & L. Head

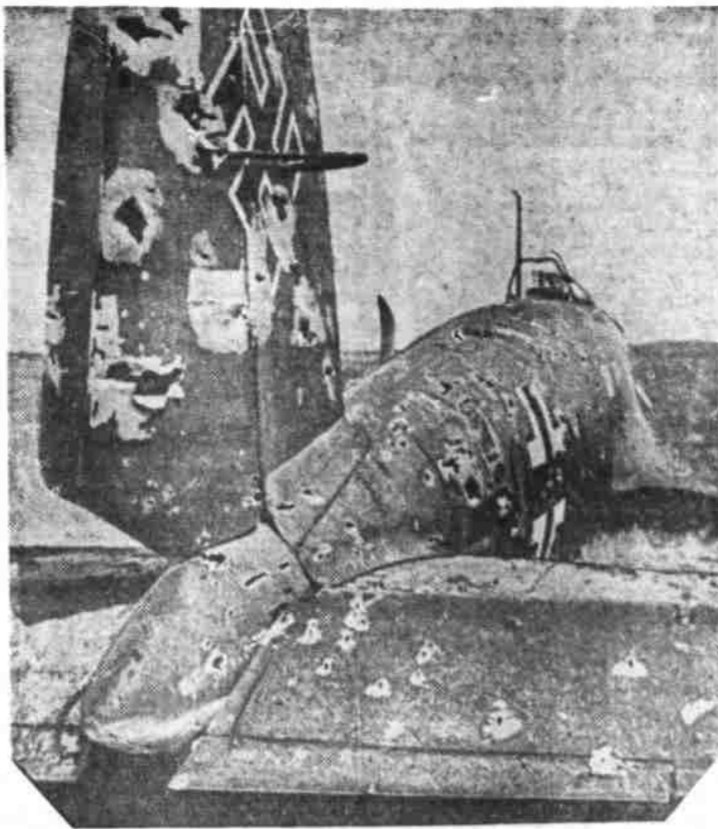

R. H. GREGORY, JR., of Rocky Mount, was unanimously elected president of the North Carolina Building and Loan League at the recent summer meeting. The League has in its membership every one of the 178 associations in the state.

'Bottled-in-Bond'

Bottled in bond means that the liquor has been put in casks and stored in a government warehouse for four or more years. The year is usually indicated on the seal. Under United States bond regulations, no other whisky or neutral spirits may be added during aging or before bottling.

Downed by French Bullets

This view of a German plane shot down on French soil during a raid speaks well for the marksmanship of the French gunners. The Allies are bringing down three Nazi planes for one.

Singing Groups To Meet On July 14th

The newly formed Haywood County singing convention for choirs will meet Sunday, July 14, at the court house, from one to four o'clock, according to C. L. Allen, president of the group.

Choirs and classes will compose this singing group, he said, but should any quartets come, that they would be welcomed and would be asked to join a choir or class for the afternoon of singing.

The convention was organized June second, with Dewey Hyatt as secretary and Raymond Blanton, assistant.

The deeper you wade into an argument the harder it is to get out.

Swayngim Joins Marine Corps

Dowzell Medford Swayngim, son of William F. Swayngim, of Route 2, Waynesville, was accepted for service in the United States Marine Corps at the District Headquarters Recruiting station located in the post office building at Raleigh. He was transferred to the marine barracks, Parris Island, S. C., for a brief period of training.

Upon completion of his training at Parris Island, he will be assigned to some service school, ship, foreign station, or marine barracks, for duty.

Entrance examinations for enlistment in the Marine Corps are now being held at the U. S. Marine Corps recruiting station, post office building, Winston-Salem. Full information and application blanks will be forwarded upon request.

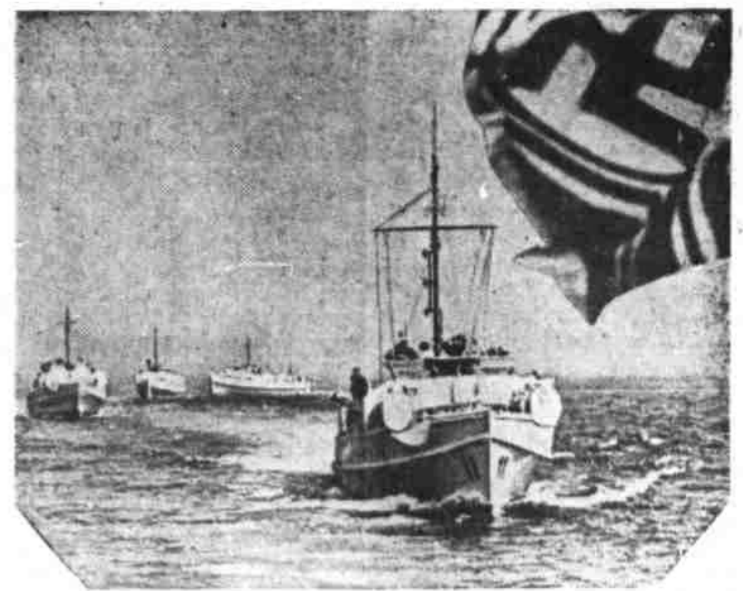

Haywood 4-H Club Members Attend Swannanoa Camp

Twenty-seven boys and girls from the 4-H clubs of Haywood County left Monday for Swannanoa, where they will attend camp this week. The program will consist of forestry studies, handicrafts, games, swimming, pictures, and trips to the Recreation Park and Biltmore dairies.

July the fourth has been designated as visitors' day. Parents and friends of the campers are invited to visit the camp today.

Those going from this county were: J. D. Pless, Henry Cagle,

Ready for Nazi Invasion

Here is part of the fleet of fast torpedo boats Germany is reported grooming to participate in their forthcoming invasion of England. The German plan is to secure all Channel ports from which they will wage a long-range bombardment of the British coast. Under cover of the bombardment troops will be swiftly ferried to England under protection of these torpedo boats and a fleet of submarines.
