Col. C. C. Burt Retired Army Officer Dies Here

Last rites were held in Arlington National cemetery on Monday for Charles Conway Burt, 62, retired U. S. Army officer, who died suddenly last Friday at his home on the J. G. A. Davey place at Soco Gap.

Col. Burt was born in Ohio on April 22nd, 1878. He entered the U. S. Army at an early age and attained distinction in line of duty. He was an honorary graduate of the Artillery School, of the Coast Artillery School, of the Field Officers course, and also of the Finance School of the Army.

He was placed on the retired list for disability received while on duty on May the 31st, 1932.

He and Mrs. Burt had been spending their winters for the past several years in Fort Pierce, Fla., and their summers in this section.

Col. Burt is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jeanette Marx Burt. Mrs Burt accompanied the body to Washington for the burial service in Arlington.

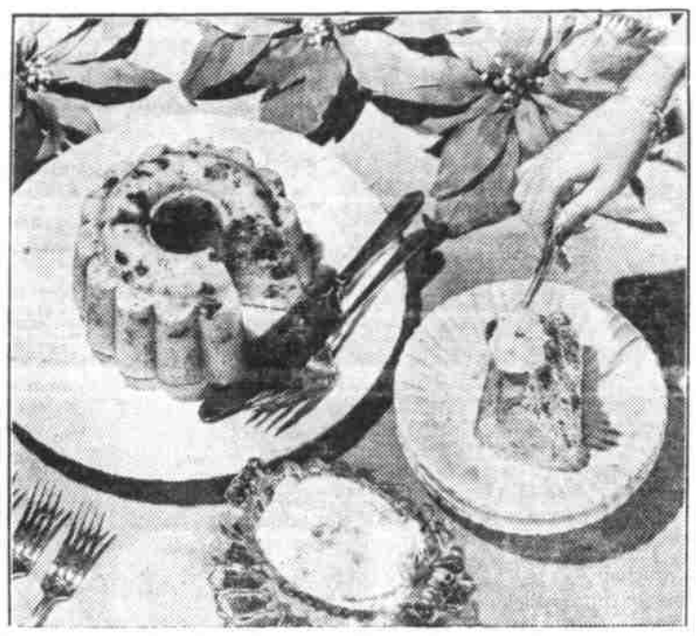
Pudding Time Is All The Time!



SAY "pudding" to the men-folks and watch their eyes glisten!" For, a luscious, spicy pudding isn't just an idea for the Holiday period—it's the king of desserts for any day of the cold-weather months. Here's one that is sure to charm the most sluggish appetite.

STEAMED DATE PUDDING WITH SOUR CREAM HARD SAUCE

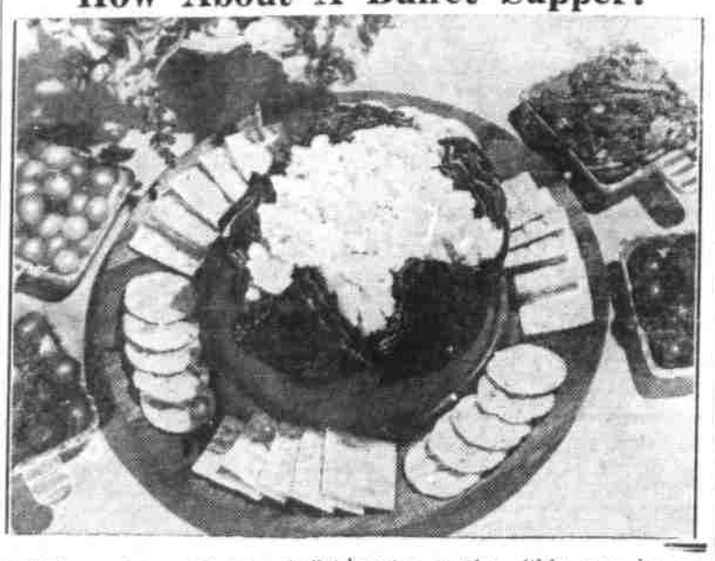
- ⅓ cup butter
- ¼ cup sugar
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1¼ teaspoons baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon soda
- 1½ cups flour
- ½ cup buttermilk
- ¾ teaspoon vanilla
- 1¼ cups chopped dates
- ¼ to ½ cup chopped walnuts

Cream the butter, add the sugars gradually and cream thoroughly. Add the eggs and beat well. Mix and sift the baking powder, salt, soda and 2/3 cup of the flour and add to the first mixture alternately with the buttermilk. Add the vanilla and fold in dates and nuts which have been mixed with the remaining 2/3 cup of flour. Pour into a well-buttered mold, cover and steam for about 2 hours. Serve with Sour Cream Hard Sauce made as follows:

- 4 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons sour cream
- 1 cup confectioners' sugar
- ¼ teaspoon vanilla
- Few grains nutmeg

Cream the butter, add ½ cup of the sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Add the remaining sugar alternately with the sour cream. Add vanilla and nutmeg. Serves six to eight.

How About A Buffet Supper?



THE easy informality of a buffet supper makes it enjoyable for hostess and guests alike—especially if you provide a dish that helps appease those visiting appetites and, at the same time, delights the eye. You'll find this interesting cabbage and cottage cheese recipe simple to prepare, and quite successful in every way.

RED CABBAGE WITH COTTAGE CHEESE FILLING

- 1 red cabbage
- 1¼ cups chopped apple
- 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
- 1½ cups cottage cheese
- Crackers

Remove outer wilted leaves and wash cabbage. Cut down in six sections as illustrated and remove center portion (this may be reserved for cole slaw). Mix the apple and mayonnaise and stir in the cottage cheese. Add salt and pepper if desired. Pile in the center of the cabbage and serve with crackers placed around the edge. This makes a delicious and attractive buffet supper dish. The cottage cheese filling may be varied as follows: Cottage Cheese Pineapple Filling: Add ½ cup of well drained crushed pineapple and a few grains of salt to 1½ cups cottage cheese.

Cottage Cheese Red Cabbage Filling: Chop enough of the center portion of the cabbage to make 1½ cups and mix with about ⅛ teaspoon of salt. Add 2 tablespoons of mayonnaise if desired. Stir in 1½ cups cottage cheese.

Mrs. Francis Wheeler, of Jacksonville, has as her guests in the Milton cabin, her mother, Mrs. Anna Irwin, Mrs. Thomas King and son, Tony and Mrs. King's mother, Mrs. Geo. White, all of Jacksonville; also Dr. and Mrs. Melton Clark, of Anniston, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Richmond and their God-daughter, Jo Lynn Scott, of Miami, Fla., are guests of Mrs. Turner, until the first of the month at her cabin, "The Hemlocks." Another interesting guest of Mrs. Turner was the Costa Rican Consul from Central America, Dr. Gonzalo Jose Gallegoes. He admired the beauty of our mountains, but said the mountains in his country were much higher. Dr. Gallegos looks out on a very steep mountain from his bedroom window at home. Smoke curls from the top of this mountain for it is a smouldering volcano. . . . I wonder if the Doctor sleeps the sweet sleep that we do in our cool mountains?

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hirstins, of Lake Worth, Fla., expect to remain in the Lloyd cabin until October.

Miss Mary Moore, who is principal of Girl's High School in Atlanta and Miss Koch, who teaches in the public schools in New Jersey, have returned to their school duties. Miss Moore and Miss Koch are joint-owners of a cabin at Balsam.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Holden, of Miami, are occupying the log cabin of Lowry Lee while their cabin is in the process of construction. C. W. Crawford, of Sylva, is superintendent of the building and Ben Sloan, of Waynesville, is the contractor. Mr. Holden plans to build a number of cabins with the help of Mr. Sloan, Mr. Crawford and Mrs. Tom Lee and sell them on an easy payment plan.

Miss Kathleen Forrest, of Miami, is visiting Mrs. Thomas Turner at her summer cabin, "Dublin Cottage."

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kohler, of Miami, Fla., are spending their second summer in their new cabin.

Mrs. Everett Russell and daughter, of Key West, Fla., have returned to their home, where Mr. Russell is manager of the Standard Oil Company.

Mr. Walter Bryson and others are giving the Baptist church a new foundation of creek rock. The rock will replace old wooden posts. The money and work is being donated. Rev. Mr. Beck wishes to thank all those who have given so generously of their time and money to make this change possible. They don't have quite enough money to pay for this change but hope to soon. This might be a good time for some of the summer colony to help out although they aren't asking for help, in fact, never once in my eight summers at Balsam have they passed around the hat, so to speak, to the summer visitors, but we ought to help some so I think now is as good a time as any.

Bill Coward and Bill Blanton took a number of guests from the Balsam Hotel last week to "Old Bald." Near the Mica Mine they killed a black rattler that had five rattles and a button.

A new family of flying squirrels arrived a few days ago under one corner of the porch roof. Everyone tells me they are very destructive if they should knaw their way into the cabin: that they are worse than rats. I guess I'll have to kill them in self defense. I wish they hadn't insisted on building on my property.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickson and family have arrived and have opened their summer cabin.

Charles Grenell, of Daytona Beach, was rushed to the Waynesville hospital with appendicitis last week where he has been critically ill. I'm happy to report that he is better this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William G[illegible] who were recent guests [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Ellis, [illegible] turned to their home in [illegible] Beach, Fla.

While other fine hatcheries [illegible] state have been suffering [illegible] during the recent rains, [illegible] Fish Hatchery was not [illegible] according to Mr. Leo Reig[illegible] really called to see how much [illegible] fell in this section, but the [illegible] ment for recording it was [illegible] moved a year ago. It had [illegible] recorded three times a day [illegible] was a little jou all by itself [illegible] there someone at Balsam who [illegible] here the year round that [illegible] keep this record? I'm [illegible] we didn't have landslides or [illegible] alties like other mountain [illegible] had.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Shook and [illegible] Albert, of Tuckaseegee, [illegible] visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed Middleton of Balsam. Mrs. Shook is a [illegible] ter of Mr. Middleton.

Mrs. Roy Underwood, of [illegible] Fla., is visiting her parents [illegible] and John Coward, of Balsam, [illegible] a sister, Mrs. Ferrell, of [illegible] Mrs. Underwood, formerly [illegible] erine Coward, is one of Balsam's most attractive girls. She was married in Miami last February to Mr. Underwood, who is associated with Western North Carolina Telephone will return to her home in Miami in the near future where her husband holds a responsible position. He is a bank [illegible] for one of the leading banks in Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McNeill and baby daughter, Bonnie, of Palm Beach, Fla., are occupying the Thorn cabin until the middle of October. Mr. McNeill's parents live in Sylva.

Don't forget that Sunday is the first Sunday in the month and that there will be a singing meeting at the Cullowhee Baptist church in the afternoon.

Henderson Jones and the [illegible] had dinner at the Jones Farm last Saturday noon. The table literally groaned with food. Mr. Jones was born there 72 years ago. He knows many things about this section of the county, but I will have to tell you about it next week.
