

SOCIETY.

Lenoir Miller And Ben Bridges Wedded Aug. 24th

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Miller have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lenoir Miller, to Ben Bridges, son of J. J. Bridges and the late Mrs. Bridges. The vows were solemnized on Tuesday, August 20th, in Clayton, Ga., where the young couple were accompanied by a small group of friends.

Mrs. Bridges is a graduate of the local schools and at present holds a position in one of the local stores.

Mr. Bridges is also a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School and is employed by the Pet Dairy Products Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bridges are at home to their friends in the Keller apartments.

C. F. Kirkpatrick Host of Barbecue Luncheon Monday

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick were hosts on Monday at noon of a barbecue luncheon. The affair was given in honor of the guests at the Hotel LeFaine and the Cleve-will and Kirkpatrick apartments.

Luncheon was served cafeteria style on the grounds of the Hotel LeFaine. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick were assisted in receiving their guests by the latter's sister, Miss Robena Miller.

Around sixty guests enjoyed the gracious hospitality of the day, a number spending the afternoon playing contract.

James Stringfield left during the week for Rome, Ga., where he will resume his work at the Darlington School for Boys.

You'll feel impish as a kitten in this

Georgiana JUNIOR

that will brighten your school career with its vivid top and bands that march down the contrasting skirt. It's Spunway in Red with Black, Green with Chickory Brown or Copen with Navy. 9-17.

$4 to $10.95

MASSIE'S DEPT. STORE

12-Time Winner

Samantha Bumgardner loves her mountain music so well she has won the banjo picking contest at the Asheville mountain dance and music festival for twelve years in a row. Winner of contests in many states, Samantha says her most appreciative audiences are in her own Blue Ridge country.

Dr. E. W. Gudger, of the American Museum of Natural History, of New York City, has arrived for his annual visit to his home town. He plans to spend about three weeks here at his home on Prospect Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Plott, of Maggie, had as their guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wallace, of Asheville.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Wayne Smith, of Moscow, Idaho, leave today after spending several days here as the guests of their son, Dr. Dudley W. Smith. This was their first visit to this section and they had high praise for the country. Dr. Smith is a member of the faculty of the University of Idaho.

Ray Burgin, who is now located in Newport News, Va., joined his wife and young daughter for a week-end visit.

Mrs. Sallie Long Tomlinson, of Richmond, formerly of Lake Junaluska, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Mrs. J. R. Morgan. Before returning home she will also visit Mrs. R. C. Long and Mrs. A. E. Ward, at Lake Junaluska.

Miss Edna Kathryn McGee left Friday for Easton, Penn., where she will spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. D. C. Howell.

Mrs. E. K. McGee had as her guests during the week Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Howell, and two children, Bill and Virginia, and E. Fowler, all of Easton, Pa. They were also guests while in town of Mrs. O. D. Buckner.

Miss Mary Stentz leaves today for Montreat Junior College, where she will be a student this year.

Miss Stella Mae Wyatt has returned to her home at Lake Junaluska after spending two weeks in Atlanta.

George Stentz left Tuesday for Newport News, where he will be employed by the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.

Bob Wagenfeld left during the week for Newport News, Va., where he will be located in the future. He has a job with the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.

Miss Catherine Gibbs, of Statesville, who has been the guest of Miss Hilda Way, has returned to her home.

FDR's Son Drills

James Roosevelt, son of the President, is pictured in his uniform as a captain of the 22nd Artillery Battalion, Marine Corps Reserve, during drill in Los Angeles, Calif.

Maggie Home Club Enjoyed Picnic Meeting Last Week

Members of the Maggie home demonstration club enjoyed a picnic meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Dave Plott, with Mrs. Richard Sheehan as an associate hostess. At the meeting following lunch, Mrs. Herbert Plott, president, presided.

Miss Mary Margaret Smith, county agent, gave an interesting demonstration on canning and pickles. Miss Smith also read an article on Holland.

Leaders' reports were given by the following: poultry, Mrs. Julius Cutshaw; and canning, Mrs. Roy Nelson.

Mrs. William Setzer was announced as the hostess for the September meeting.

David Stentz has gone to Fort Ordlethorpe to complete his enlistment in the Cadet Flying Corps. From there he will go to Fort Worth, Texas, where he will be stationed at Hicks Flying Field.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Marion T. Bridges announce the birth of a daughter, Shirley Mae, at the Haywood County Hospital on Tuesday, September the 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Stump and Miss Gladys Stump and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Coalson and B. D. Coalson visited the latter's relatives at Dalton and Rock Mart, Ga., over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Lyle and Miss Gladell returned home with them for a visit.

Hugh Shelton left during the week for Newport News, where he has a position with the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company. Mrs. Shelton will join him at a later date.

Miss Henrietta Love, who has spent the past fortnight here with her mother, Mrs. Hugh Love, returned to her work in Raleigh on Tuesday.

Miss Evelyn Reed has returned to Columbia, S. C., after spending the summer here at the Reed summer home on the Asheville road. Her sister, Miss Catherine Reed, who also spent the season here, has gone to Akron, Ohio for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gwyn, of Wilmington, Del., spent the week-end in town with the latter's father, W. T. Lee, at "Fairhaven," on the Fairview road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Vaughn Rogers and their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, of Pittsburgh, are visiting Mrs. John McElroy at Pigeon Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Frady and children, of Binghamton, N. Y., have returned to their home after visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Frady.

Major and Mrs. John Norwood, who have spent the past month here, have returned to their home in Washington, D. C. Major Norwood is with the Federal Trade Commission.

Miss Jeanette Phillips, who is a patient in the Biltmore Hospital, and has been quite ill, is reported to be much improved. She is still unable to return home.

Campus Favorite

By VERA WINSTON
A SUIT that is warm and cozy, yet smart and elegant enough to be seen anywhere, is what the college girl, the business girl and the country girl all want. Here's a model that we think is going to please them. It is a woven suit in a gray and brown mixture. Sleeves and back are of a thick novelty rib-knit. Skirt is six-gored. Four flap pockets on the jacket, the upper ones placed at the finish of the diagonal seams from the shoulders. Nice as a two-piece outfit or with a sweater in a contrasting shade.

She Likes the U. S.

Declaring it more an honor to have an American citizenship than a foreign title, Princess Dagmar Vasilevna Saricheff receives citizenship papers in Los Angeles. Once one of the wealthiest persons in pre-revolution Russia, she is now a Hollywood dressmaker.

Lura Thompson Myers Christened Sunday

Lura Thompson Myers, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Myers, of East Orange, N. J., was christened on Sunday afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Judge and Mrs. Frank Smathers. The Rev. James G. Huggin, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist church was officiating minister, with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gill as God parents.

Among those present for the christening were her two great grandmothers, Mrs. S. A. Jones, Mrs. B. F. Smathers, her great grandfather, Dr. B. F. Smathers.

S. Armistead Jones, of Miami, Fla., representative of the South Florida Motor Club, a division of the American Automobile Association, is spending a fortnight here with his mother, Mrs. S. A. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell spent the week-end in Lenoir City with the latter's sister, Mrs. John F. Hodges.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Y. Bridges, of Charlotte, spent the week-end in town with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bridges.

Miss Jane Gulley, of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of Miss Martha Way, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Way.

Joe Way, III, left Tuesday for Mars Hill College, where he will resume his work after the summer vacation.

Mrs. Jimmy Trotter and young son, of Reidsville, are the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. S. T. Neal.

Miss Martha Way leaves this week for Mt. Airy, where she will teach in the city schools.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell and son, James Harden Howell, Jr., spent the week-end with relatives in Virginia.

Miss Ruth Robeson, of Newport News, Va., was the guest during the week of Mr. and Mrs. Handy Kirkpatrick at their home in Canton. During her stay she also visited her grandparents, Prof. and Mrs. E. J. Robeson, here.

E. L. Withers, Jr., has returned to Athens, Ga., to resume his work after spending a couple of weeks here with his parents. He was accompanied by his father and his sister, Miss Hester Anne Withers, who returned to town the first of the week.

David Hyatt, of Newport News, Va., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Hyatt.

Miss Louise Stringfield, who is now located in Raleigh, spent the week-end in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Stringfield.

Co-Ordinator

Nelson A. Rockefeller, of New York, son of the philanthropist oil baron, has been appointed by President Roosevelt to fill the newly created position of co-ordinator of commercial and cultural relations among the American republics. He serves as a $1-a-year man.

Mrs. R. N. Barber Will Be Hostess Of DAR Meeting On The 11th

The initial meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, following the summer vacation period, will be held on Wednesday the 11th, with Mrs. R. N. Barber. Special guests of the afternoon will be the district director and secretary, Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan will have the paper, "The Drama of Roanoke Island." Mrs. J. W. Killian will review the national magazine. Mrs. J. M. Long, regent, will preside.

Members are asked to assemble by 3:30 o'clock.

Miss Anne Seawell returned on Saturday from Atlanta, where she spent the past week as the guest of friends.

Wife Preservers

4-16
Rub a little glycerine over the inside of your windows next time you wash them. This will prevent steam from forming on them.

Wife Preservers

8-23
Don't be a button jerker if you want your garments to last when they are laundered. Buttons which have been pressed into the fabric respond to gentle loosening by placing the thumb under the button, the second finger on top of it, and then pressing the first and third fingers gently downward at the sides of button.

Wife Preservers

Serve a foam cocktail as an appetizer before dinner. Beat an egg white, add one tablespoon sugar, beat again. Add a can of chilled grapefruit juice, shake a little, pour into small glasses and sprinkle with a little ground nutmeg on top.

On a Quiz Program

Mrs. Earl Browder, wife of the nation's No. 1 Communist, appeared at Ellis Island, off New York, and was questioned about the legality of her presence in this country. She was born in Russia. Her husband is currently appealing from a four-year prison sentence for passport fraud.

J. T. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albright and son, Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Bolling H. Burress motored to Greenville, S. C., on Sunday, where they attended the annual Bridges family reunion.

JAMES HOWELL WILL STUDY AT BREVARD

James Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Howell, Waynesville, has enrolled for study at Brevard College next year, according to information released from the registration office this week. Young Howell will begin on September 24, opening the fall semester. He is a graduate of the Waynesville school.

UDC Chapter Will Hold First Meeting Of Year 1940-41

The Haywood chapter of Daughters of the United Confederate Veterans will hold the first meeting of year 1940-41 tomorrow afternoon at the Hotel LeFaine, with Mrs. F. Kirkpatrick as hostess.

Mrs. Thad N. Howell will be the paper of the afternoon, the subject "Founder's Day." Mr. Garrett, president of the chapter, will preside.

W. T. Lee returned on Wednesday from a two weeks visit to children in eastern North Carolina.

An Invitation from THE FOOD STORE

While the store of C. E. Ray's Sons is closed during the next week, we invite their customers to let us serve them with all kinds of Food Products. Special provision will be made to take care of your needs.

Mr. Hosaflook In Our Market

While the Ray Store is closed Mr. Hosaflook will be in our market to serve his regular customers.

Your business will be appreciated by the Food Store and every effort made to meet your needs.

THE FOOD STORE

HAY'S STORE CLOSED SEPT. 9 - 12

AIR STEPS ARRIVE

Heralds of the new season

Going to have Happy Feet? ... of course you are, with the Magic Sole's hidden-away cushion of air cells to rest your feet all day long.

Going to the Game? ... you'll wear Air Steps as casual and debonair as the low heels in Oxford types.

Going to a Party? ... you'll flatter your feet with one of Air Step's light little dress-up styles.

Going Downtown ... you'll choose the newly-simple types of Air Steps, with the slim lines and clinging design, ideal for that modern smart street clothes look their smartest.

Marianne

Air Step
THE SHOE WITH THE "MAGIC SOLE"

The TOGGERY