Floods, Fire, and Friends . . .

First floods damaged the home of Mrs. Dahl Moore, a Hazelwood widow. Then fire came along and completely destroyed the home and belongings. But with all the misfortune, along came generous friends, and now plans are underway for her to have a new home, and many new items of clothing and furniture.

Guests at the Waynesville Country Club last Saturday night, brought items to the lobby, and held an auction sale, raising $66. Besides the cash raised, others contributed an additional $11 for a start of $77 towards the purchase of lumber and materials. The guests also brought items of useful clothing for Mrs. Moore.

Yesterday plans were about completed, through J. M. Long, to have materials on the ground, and with governmental assistance, labor will be provided for the construction of another place for Mrs. Moore to live.

While the money raised is not sufficient to do all that is entries in the show, are urged to prepare the entries by getting them in extra good shape.

There will be no admission fee to the show, and the public and all persons interested in cattle and horses are invited to attend.

R.E.A. Meeting To Be Held Monday At Crabtree School

A county-wide R. E. A. meeting will be held at the Crabtree school, Monday, September 16, at 7:30, at which time R. M. Billhimer, and Miss Mary Lokey, both of the R. E. A. office of Washington, will address the audience on the timely subject of rural electrification.

Mr. Billhimer is utilization representative and Miss Lokey is home economist. They will explain what is necessary to do to get quick electric service.

Among the things which will be discussed, will be: "What has been done to lower the cost of wiring."

"That the electric lines will ultimately belong to the consumer."

"How to get long term financial assistance for wiring, lighting fixtures and plumbing"

Joe Howell, superintendent of the Cruso Electric Membership Corporation, said that electrical appliances and a free wiring job would be given away as prizes at the meeting.

Mrs. E. K. Herman Will Open Kindergarten On Monday, September 30th

The Waynesville Kindergarten will be opened on Monday, September 30th, at the Central Elementary school, with Mrs. Ernest Herman as teacher.

Around 12 prospective students have been signed up for the classes Mrs. Herman is a graduate of the Kete Baldwin Kindergarten Normal Training school, of Savannah, and has had six years experience in kindergarten work.

"The scientific basis upon which the kindergarten is founded, is that it is a place where children's play is directed and utilized for educational ends. The parents and the kindergarten must work together as the needs of the child demands. Only by intelligent and sympathetic co-operation can the child receive the full benefit of the kindergarten," said Mrs. Herman in speaking of her work.

BETTER FOR TRYING

Those who try to do something and fail are infinitely better than those who try to do something and succeed.—Lloyd Jones.

needed, the guests of the club are still interested in seeing their project through, and additional funds will be forthcoming, they feel.
