

Letters To The Editor

The Mountaineer:—
Twenty years ago, the men of the local post of the Legion left their home, and native land to battle a force that was threatening democracy and the mode of life.

They were a very just and simple people, and it is with regret that they should be so despised as to be the outfit that we have experienced during the past few years of our fair town.

Communion Service In Methodist Church Changed To 29th

Sunday, October the 6th, has been set aside by the Methodist church as the last day of the fiscal year. The stewards are urging that all contributions for the year be in by that date.

Closing Date For Lime And Phosphate Set For October 5th

According to a recent notice from the Raleigh office, October the 10th is the last date that lime and phosphate can be ordered under the 1940 conservation program.

Any farmer who intends to get lime and phosphate should get his order into the county farm agents office by October the 5th, so that orders may be made up to reach the state office by October the 10th.

Orders for 1941 lime and phosphate can be accepted to be delivered after November first.
