

News of The World Gathered by Camera

Nazi Foe Safe

Lion Feuchtwanger, famed German-Jewish author whose books were burned by the Nazis and who carried on his war against Hitler in France, is shown in New York after a sensational escape from a French concentration camp. He was smuggled out by an American friend and put aboard an American ship at Lisbon.

Runs War on Greece

Rome spokesmen announced that General Ubaldo Soddu, secretary for war in the Italian cabinet, has been sent to Albania to direct the drive against Greece. General Soddu, 57, is a veteran of all Italy's wars since 1900.

Priorities' Head

Donald M. Nelson, merchandise executive, has been designated Priorities Administrator by President Roosevelt. He heads the board consisting of Knudsen, Stettinius and Leon Henderson, to require production and delivery of national defense materials ahead of goods previously ordered by private industry.

Chemical Chef

Dr. Robert S. Harris of Massachusetts Institute of Technology has produced a food mixture which, he says, contains every vitamin except "C". The food would cost $1.87 a person a year. The U. S. government has been given the formula and it already has been sent to Britain.

Rug Subs for Mothers of These Tiger Cubs

Three tiny tiger cubs cuddle up to a tiger-skin rug in the Rockland Lake, N. Y., home of Captain Roman Proske, animal trainer. They are the survivors of two sets of twins born to two tigers on the captain's cat farm. Zoologists were amazed at the blessed events, for tigers seldom breed in captivity. The cubs were taken away from the mother tigers because they frequently eat their young.

To Evacuate U. S. Nationals

Pulling out from her New York pier is the United States liner Washington, Orient-bound to bring home Americans from the Far East. On board can be seen some of the members of the Second Division Naval Reserve from Baltimore, 139 men and six officers, who will take up active duty in the Panama Canal Zone.

Accepts Mexican Presidency

General Manuel Avila Camacho is shown making his inaugural address after taking the oath of office as President of Mexico in Mexico City. He placed his republic beside the United States and all other American nations in the common cause of hemisphere defense.

Rule Threatened

Shortly after this picture was taken of Queen Mother Helen and King Michael of Rumania, the streets of Bucharest ran red with blood. The Queen Mother and her son are shown reviewing a parade. A dispatch brands as false reports Michael is preparing to quit in the face of the terror provoked by the Iron Guardists. Queen Helen has left Rumania.

Christmas Shopper No. 1

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt sets an example to the women of the nation by doing her Christmas shopping early. She is pictured in a Fifth Avenue shop, in New York, selecting toys for her grandchildren.

Their Ship Was Torpedoed

This dramatic photo, released by the Royal Canadian Navy, shows the rescue on the high seas of the survivors of a torpedoed merchant ship. The rescue was made by a Canadian destroyer. Note man in foreground obviously too weak to climb the rope thrown to him, holding on to dear life.

Bares Espionage

Heinrich Peter Fassbender, 23, confessed to Chairman Martin Dies of the House un-American Activities Committee, in Chicago, that he had engaged in fifth column work in Spain and Belgium for Germany before coming to the U. S. The former Gestapo agent told his story of espionage in the U. S., after a promise he would not be extradited back to Germany.

Arrested by British

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, former president of the Indian Congress party, was arrested by British authorities near Allahabad after a meeting with Mohandas K. Gandhi. He was one of two men chosen by Gandhi to make anti-war speeches as part of the plan of limited civil disobedience.

Rockefeller Blood for Britain

Winthrop Rockefeller, son of financier John D. Rockefeller, Jr., donates a pint of his blood for use in treatment of British war wounded. He is pictured in New York Hospital with Dr. Alphonse Timpanelli and Nurse Mary Wyatt in attendance. More than 11,000 men and women in New York have donated blood to Britain.

Senator's Fiancee

Marguerite Johnson, teacher of home economics in Central Junior High School, Rock Island, Ill., will give up teaching theory to practical application as the wife of Senator Gerald P. Nye of Cooperstown, N. Dakota. The couple did not say when they would be married.

Senators Debate Giving More Aid to Britain

The Senate foreign relations committee is pictured as it convened in Washington to debate the possibility of further aid to Britain. Seated (left to right) are Senators Pat Harrison of Mississippi, Hiram W. Johnson of California, Walter F. George of Georgia, chairman; Elbert D. Thomas of Utah and Frederick Van Nuys of Indiana. Standing, are Senators Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota, Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, Theodore F. Green of Rhode Island, Guy M. Gillette of Iowa, Joseph F. Guffey of Pennsylvania and Bennett Champ Clark of Missouri.

The Topic: Shipping

Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles addresses the First Inter-American Maritime Conference, in Washington, attended by delegates from the 21 American republics. First of its kind, the conference was occasioned by abnormal conditions affecting shipping and trade which have followed in the wake of the war. Seated, is Dr. William Manger, Counselor of the Pan American Union.

Giant U. S. Bomber Tested for the British

Returning from a test flight, at San Diego, Cal., is one of the 26 long range four-motored Consolidated Aircraft B-24 bombers, recently released to the British air force. The 20-ton craft has a cruising range of 3,000 miles, and a top speed of more than 300 miles an hour. The plane already bears the British markings.