Selection Of 5th Grade History Is Now Under Fire

The condition of Mrs. Lou Rathbone, of Clyde, route 1, medical case, is good.

Among those discharged from the Haywood County Hospital during the past week were: G. N. Ledford, Mrs. Lawrence McElroy, Mrs. Lewis Parker, Jeff Cabe, Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Roy Anderson, Mrs. L. J. Maasie, Miss Irene Haynes, Mrs. J. H. Harmon and baby, Miss Iris Rogers, Miss Lillian Moore, Fred Tittle, F. A. Justice, Mrs. Harry Cathey, Master Henry Best, Mrs. Inez Hargrove.

The Daily Tar Heel, State University newspaper, has recently brought charges of political favoritism in the selection of a new fifth grade history of North Carolina.

One of the histories submitted to the state board of education was written by a local man, Prof. W. C. Allen, well known as a historian throughout the state.

In their report to the state board of education, the elementary textbook commission has this to say about Mr. Allen's book, 'The Story of Our State': "This is a very different and much improved book from Mr. Allen's former book, and has much to commend it. If teaching North Carolina history is to remain in the fifth grade, we are of the opinion that the story type of history should assume more importance than it has in the past. The grade level of the book is the best of all the books offered. North Carolina history has been presented in the book around important characters covering every period of the state's history. The book is very interesting and should by all means be included in the list of supplementary readers."

H. Henry Heads Methodist District Board Of Trustees

Homer Henry was elected chairman of the board of trustees of the Waynesville district of the Methodist church of the Western Carolina conference here at a meeting at the home of the superintendent, the Rev. W. L. Hutchins.

Others elected to serve with Mr. Henry were M. H. Bowles, secretary, and Mrs. James Atkins, treasurer.

Members of the board include in addition, C. B. Medford, Harley Wright, and W. T. Hawkins, of Canton, Ed Green, of Clyde, Mrs. E. L. McKee, of Sylva, H. T. Sloan, of Franklin, and J. H. Hampton, of Murphy.

It was decided during the meeting to paint the district parsonage and make other necessary repairs.

Prior to the business session the board were the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Hutchins at a turkey dinner.

Panel Lighting
Indirect lighting through glass wall panels near the ceiling is a pleasant and effective innovation for modern homes. The lights are recessed, and the panels are flush with the walls.
