Dorcas Bell Love Chapter DAR Has Interesting Meet

Mrs. L. M. Killian was hostess to the members of the Dorcas Bell Love chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. James M. Long, regent, presided.

Mrs. Harry Marshall had the paper of the afternoon which was on "National Defense." She told of the action being taken by the Federal Government for the defense of the nation and to combat subversive propaganda by the fifth columnists and foreign agencies. Following the reading of her paper the chapter went on record as supporting the Dies Committee and the secretary was instructed to write to all the North Carolina Congressmen.

Mrs. W. F. Swift, chairman of patriotic education, stated that she had sent the scrap book compiled by Lois Massie, winner of the Ruth Bryan citizenship award to the state committee, and was high in her praise of the book. She also reported that progress was being made in the annual D. A. R. declamation contest among the high school boys.

Mrs. O. H. Shelton, chairman of Ellis Island, asked for a donation for the cause. The chapter voted to make the usual contribution.

Mrs. R. N. Barber and Mrs. James W. Killian were elected delegates to the state convention to be held in Wilson in March, with Mrs. R. L. Prevost and Mrs. T. N. Howell as alternates. The regent, Mrs. J. M. Long, the vice regent, Mrs. S. H. Bushnell, and Mrs. J. Harden Howell will be eligible to attend by virtue of their offices.

Mrs. W. F. Swift reviewed the national magazine, giving in full several articles dealing with the Golden Jubilee anniversary of the founding of the National society.

Mrs. R. L. Prevost, chairman of the approved schools, reported that she had sent $2.00 to Crossmore to buy oranges at Christmas.

Donates $1,000,000

Calling inheritance laws "unethical and un-Christian," Clarence Schock, 75, of Mt. Joy, Pa., has converted his $1,000,000-ill company into a trust "for the good of the community." Married, he has no children. An initial $20,000 will go to the public school districts of Lancaster County.

Planted newspaper fans for the fireplace are nice at this time of year. Take two double sheets of newspaper, fold in two-inch pleats, tie with string and put the paper fan between andirons against the wood. This fan is attractive, and when you build your fire it will start the kindling in a very short time, especially if you put a little crushed paper behind the fan.
