Friends—My son wants to be an automobile racer. What shall I do? Pink Hooper—Don't stand in his way.

At least, Mr. Bunce should be cured of reckless driving! (From Smithfield, Va., Gazette.)

Mr. Bunce related the circumstances concerning his marriage. "I ran over Mrs. Bunce with my automobile before we were married," he said, "and within six weeks we decided to get married. Now we hate each other."

"A soft answer turneth away wrath."

The Negro witness was being cross-examined about a former friend.

Counsel—Do you suggest he is a thief?

Negro—I could say he is a thief, sah, but I do say dis, if I was a chicken, an I saw him loafin' around, I'd sure roost high!

Daniel Webster once said: A Diplomat is a person who is appointed to avert situations that would never occur if there were no Diplomats.

"The wife who drives from the back seat of the car," declares a courageous Reidsville man, "isn't a bit worse than the husband who cooks from the dining-room table."

American Sailor—Battleships—why, the flagship of our navy is so big that the captain goes around the deck in his car.

British Sailor—You ought to see our flagship. Have a look at the kitchen. It's so large the cook has to go through the Irish stew in a submarine to see if the potatoes are cooked.

Jones was talking to some friends of a fishing trip he was contemplating on his holiday.

Friend—Are there any trout up there?

Jones (enthusiastically)—Trout? Thousands of 'em.

Friend—Will they bite easily?

Jones—Will they? Why, they're absolutely vicious! A man has to hide behind a tree to bait his hook.

Officer (instructing the daily exercise)—Now men, lie on your backs and work your feet as though you were on a bicycle.

One recruit stops.

Officer—Why did you stop?

Recruit—I'm coasting, sir.

Colored Mirrors
In a modern bedroom colored mirrors, contrasting with pastel wall panels, may be used. One interesting combination is effected by the setting of large pink-tinted mirrors flush into walls formed by apple-green insulating color panels.

Mountain Joe ...

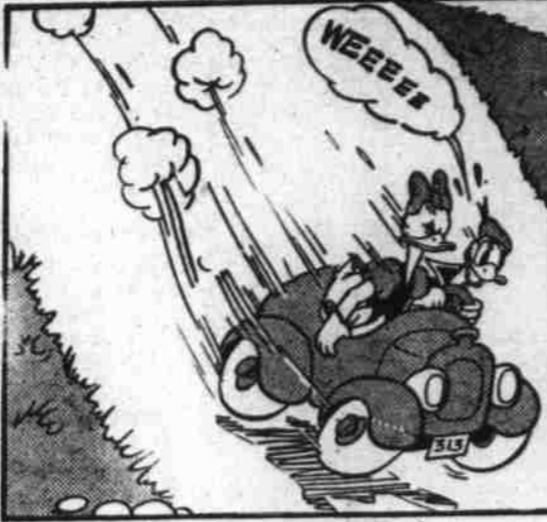

Next Thursday Hitler will celebrate his eight year reign in Germany. We are glad they have him over there. We don't like his ideas over here, but when we see a country have to put up with such a dictator, it makes us mighty happy that we live in a county like Haywood, a state like North Carolina, and a country like the good old U. S. A.

We like to run our own business in these parts and enjoy life the little time man is allotted here. We are ready to fight if it comes to that to protect our blessings in this country, but we hope we don't have to ever tote a gun again in a war.

In the meantime you can depend on us down here at Burgin's to carry on in the same old reliable manner, trying to please our customers and keep 'em happy and contented with our service.
