H. M. Sullivan Weds Miss Morgan In Laurens, S. C.

Miss Sara Ellen Morgan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Dean Morgan, of Laurens, and Harry Moseley Sullivan, of Williamston, S. C. and Waynesville, were married Thursday afternoon, January 30th, at 4 o'clock in the First Baptist church of Laurens. The Rev. J. H. Kyzar, pastor of the church of which the bride is a member, officiated, using the ring ritual.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. L. S. McMillan, organist and Mrs. J. H. Kyzar, soprano.

The altar decorations, in traditional white and green, consisted of an artistic arrangement of gladioli, green leaves and wedding bells, floor baskets of white gladioli, all forming a beautiful setting, with white tapers glowing from white candelabra. Guests' pews were also marked with rings of satin and tiny wedding bells.

The usher-groomsmen were Dr. Deanhardt, Dr. Edwin Frierson, of Easley, Mr. Patterson and Cooley B. King, of Williamston.

Maid of Honor
The maid of honor, Miss Mildred Morgan, sister of the bride, wore a hat and dress ensemble of dusty pink, with blue accessories and carried a nosegay of blue iris. The bridegroom's best man was his twin brother, W. H. Sullivan, Jr., of Williamston.

The bride entered with her father by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a becoming costume of aquamarine, beige hat and gloves, brown bag and shoes. Her corsage was of briarclip roses showered with valley lilies. She carried a hand-made handkerchief that had been used similarly at the wedding of her paternal grandmother and great-grandmother, and has been a treasured family relic four-score years. The bride's mother wore a black dress with matching accessories and her flowers were red roses. Mrs. Sullivan, mother of the bridegroom, wore black and white and her corsage was of white roses.

The bride who was extensively entertained since the announcement of her engagement, has held a position with the Laurens County department of public welfare since coming to this city two years ago with her family from Williamston, where she received her education.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sullivan, of Williamston, is a graduate of the school of pharmacy at the Medical College of South Carolina, Charleston and now holds a position with Smith Drug Company here, where he will bring his bride after a honeymoon trip.

Following the rehearsal at the church Wednesday evening, the bridal party was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Gray at their home near the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. James, of Fines Creek, had as their guest during the week, Miss Frances Robinson, of Franklin.
