

SOCIETY.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell Gives Paper At U. D. C. Meeting On Friday

Mrs. J. Harden Howell had the paper of the afternoon at the February meeting of the Haywood chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was held on Friday afternoon with Mrs. R. N. Barber.

The subject under study was "Mississippi, Its Chief Hero, Jefferson Davis." Mrs. Howell gave many interesting facts in the life of the president of the Confederacy, both before and during the War Between the States.

Miss Robena Miller, historian, gave a report of the annual oratorical contest held at the high school, in which Charles Gaddia, was the winner of the gold medal, Virgil Hogan, the silver dollar, and Doyle Alley received honorable mention. All the boys contesting were presented Confederate flags.

Miss Miller also presented the members with the new year books. She received a rising vote of thanks for the service.

A discussion of the feasibility of the chapter sponsoring "Gone with the Wind" was held. John M. Queen and Mrs. Jimmy Boyd were appointed to take the matter up with J. E. Massie.

Mrs. L. M. Killian stated that the papers for Mrs. W. A. Bradley for membership in the chapter had been sent to headquarters.

Several renewals of subscription for the Confederate bulletin were received during the afternoon.

Mrs. Noble Garrett, president, presided. A social hour followed adjournment.

Woman's Club Will Hold February Meeting At Home Of Mrs. Hannah

The February meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on next Thursday, the 20th, at the home of Mrs. William Hannah. Serving with Mrs. Hannah as associate hostesses will be Mrs. White Mease, Mrs. W. G. Francis, and Mrs. R. N. Barber, Jr. The members are asked to assemble promptly at 3 o'clock.

Thomas M. Seawell spent the week-end in Atlanta on business.

Mrs. W. L. Lampkin Gives Party For Granddaughter

Mrs. W. L. Lampkin entertained with a party at her home on Welch street on Saturday afternoon in honor of the sixth birthday anniversary of her granddaughter, Donna Jo Queen, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Queen, of Newport News, Va.

The valentine motif was used throughout the appointments. Games featured the afternoon.

The guest list included Judy Roberts, Barbara Jean Potts, Mary Crouser, Nancy Francis, Betty Felmet, Judy Harrell, Sandra Sue Caldwell, Nancy O'Neal Underwood, Anne Green, Steve and Roy Blackwell, Teddy and Bobby Purcell and Johnny Edwards.

Dellwood Home Club Holds Meeting Thursday At Methodist Church

Miss Mary Margaret Smith, county home agent, was the principal speaker at the February meeting of the Dellwood home demonstration club, which was held on Thursday at the Dellwood Methodist church.

Miss Smith addressed the group on "Planning a Wardrobe." She outlined the good points in planning ahead before buying for the coming season.

Others taking part on the program included: reports by the following project leaders: home beautification by Mrs. Wilbur Whidden; foods, Mrs. Ketter; poultry, Mrs. Waddell; garden, Mrs. Hugh Allison; library, Mrs. C. O. Newell.

In the flag contest which was held, Mrs. Cruise Moody came out the winner. Hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Wilbur Whidden and Mrs. Amos Moody.

Mrs. Kunze Will Talk At Lake Junaluska PTA Meet

Mrs. George A. Kunze, president of the Haywood county council of PTA, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Lake Junaluska PTA, which will be held tonight in the school auditorium. A Founder's Day program will be prepared.

Married Last Thursday

MRS. WILLIAM RILEY PALMER, who before her marriage on last Thursday, was Miss Alda Louise Wilson, of Fairview.

William Riley Palmer Weds Miss Alda Louise Wilson

Girls, Auxiliary Of Baptist Church Meets With Grace Wilburn

The Girls' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church met with Miss Grace Wilburn at the home of her parents on Monday evening. Miss Jane Dudley Francis was in charge of the program, with Merrill Green, president, presiding. Mrs. H. G. Hammett, adult leader of the auxiliary, was also present.

Others among the 17 members present were: Patsy Burgin, Meta Dies, Ruby Frances Brown, Betty Joe Noland, Patsy Shehan, Virginia Jackson, Gladys Walker, Betty Bradley, Anne Edmunds, Susie Shehan, Jeanette Burgin, Carroll Bell, Ruth Bradley, and Mary Joe Green.

Two Young Hostesses Give Valentine Party

Vivian Watkins and Jean Rotha entertained a group of their young friends with a valentine party on Friday evening at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins.

The house was decorated in red hearts and the valentine motif was observed in all the party appointments. Dancing and games featured the evening.

The guest list included: Nancy Jones, Geraldine Colkitt, Bette Hannah, Dorothy Martel, Jackie Sue Messer, Theresa Alley, Mary Ann Massie, Barbara Ann Boyd, Mary Able Osborne, Carolyn Cooper, Elizabeth Ann Watkins, Virginia Nave and Laura Woody.

Also Parker Gay, Tommie Ray, Bobbie Hardin, Johnnie MacAllison, Hallet Ward, Jr., Walter Talliferro, Jackie Coin, Tommie Boyd, Nip and Tuck Ray, and Dan Watkins.

Miss Geneva Messer, of Valdese, spent Sunday with Miss Lillian Messer.

Mrs. Joe Howell had as her guests over the week-end, Mrs. John Weaver, of Asheville, and Mrs. Jessie Swanner, of New York City. She also had with her over Sunday her sister, Mrs. Thelma Dawkins, of Marion.

Miss Emelyn Haynes, who is attending Western Carolina Teachers College, will spend the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Claude C. Haynes, at DaVista Terrace, where the latter is spending the winter.

Major J. Harden Howell attended the Western Carolina Postmasters' district conference, which was held in Asheville on Saturday night.

Mrs. O. V. Hamrick, O. V. Hamrick, Jr., and Shep Hamrick, of Shelby, came Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis.

Sergeant Mack E. Robinson and Sergeant James Robinson, who are now in training at Fort Jackson, S. C., spent the week-end with Mrs. R. F. Robinson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitener Prevost returned home on Saturday after a ten days trip to Florida.

James Harden Howell, Jr., who is stationed at Fort Jackson, spent the week-end in town with his parents, Major and Mrs. J. H. Howell.

Private Bobby Sloan, who is stationed at Fort Jackson, spent the week-end here with his father, Hugh J. Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. William Prevost are spending a fortnight at various points in Florida.

Of interest throughout the county was the marriage of Miss Alda Louise Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laxton Wilson, of Fairview, to William Riley Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Palmer, of Crabtree, which took place on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Central Methodist church, Asheville.

The Rev. T. A. Groce officiated in the presence of members of both families and close friends, using the ring ceremony. The altar was arranged in greenery and floor baskets of snapdragons.

Miss Ruth Gladden, accompanied by Mrs. Roy L. Trent, presented a program of wedding music, which included: "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me," and "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell, with the Lohegrin and Mendelssohn marches being used for the processional and recessional.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a becoming costume of gray with navy blue and white accessories, and her flowers were a bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride was attended by her twin sisters, Miss Mary and Miss Martha Wilson, who were also dressed in navy blue with white accessories.

The bridegroom entered with his father, who served as his best man. Mrs. Palmer is a graduate of the Fairview high school and Cecil's Business College, of Asheville. For the past two and half years she has been connected with the farm demonstration work of Buncombe county.

The bridegroom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer. He was graduated from the Clyde high school, Brevard Junior College, and with honors from North Carolina State College, with a B. S. degree in agriculture. For the past three and a half years he has been assistant county farm agent for Buncombe county.

The bride is the granddaughter of J. M. Wilson and the late Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. C. F. Huntley and the late Rev. Mr. Huntley, of Buncombe county. Mr. Palmer is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Riley M. Ferguson and Mrs. William A. Palmer and the late Mr. Palmer, well known citizens of Haywood county.

Immediately following the wedding, the couple left for a wedding trip through the southern states, after which they will return to Asheville, where they will reside.

Mrs. Buddy Queen and her young daughter, Donna Jo, who are now residing in Newport News, Va., are returning this week after a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lampkin.

Corporal Joe Sloan, who is stationed at Fort Jackson, spent the week-end in town with his father Hugh J. Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Summers, who have been spending sometime at Oak Park, left last Thursday for a month's visit with relatives in Johnson City, Tenn. They were accompanied by their physician, Dr. N. F. Lancaster. Mr. Summers, who has been ill for some time was much improved.

Mrs. W. T. Crawford had as her guest over the week-end, her cousin, Paul McCracken, of Ann Harbor, Michigan.

Miss Annie Dee Kirkpatrick has returned from Baltimore where she was under observation at John Hopkins. Miss Kirkpatrick is much improved in health.

Rector And Wife Hold Open House At Grace Rectory

The Rev. and Mrs. Raymond E. MacBlain were at home on Tuesday evening at the rectory to the members of the Grace Church in the Mountains, following the confirmation service held at the church.

The tea table was centered with a bowl of yellow acacia, covered with a cream lace cloth, and the appointments were lovely pieces of old silver.

Assisting in receiving and serving were: Mrs. J. F. Abel, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mrs. M. C. Green, Mrs. Walter Talliferro, and Miss Robena Miller.

Local Woman Will Be Guest Speaker For DAR Hendersonville Chapter

Mrs. J. H. Howell, state chairman of DAR Indian work, will be the guest speaker tomorrow afternoon at the February meeting of the Joseph McDowell chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in Hendersonville. Mrs. Howell will address the group on the "Cherokee Indians of Today" and will also outline the work that the state society through the chapters, is doing for the Indians.

Ernest J. Hyatt left Tuesday for Lakeland, Fla., where he will join Mrs. Hyatt, who has been there for the past six weeks. He will remain for a fortnight and will be accompanied home by Mrs. Hyatt.

Miss Haseltine Swift will spend the coming week-end with her brother, Bill Swift, who is attending the apprentice school of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, of Newport News.

Miss Evelyn Wyatt and Miss Edna Scates left Saturday for a visit with Miss Ruth Scates in Elizabethton, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Suttonfield spent the week-end in Canton with Mrs. Suttonfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Coleman.

Miss Kathryn Green Bride Of William Frank Kirkpatrick

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Green, of Fines Creek, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Kathryn Green, to William Frank Kirkpatrick. The vows were taken in the presence of a small group of relatives and friends in Waynesville on Saturday, January 18th, with the Rev. Frank Leatherwood officiating.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ferguson, of Jonathan Creek and the late G. W. Green, of Canton. She received her education at Fines Creek high school and is a graduate of Carson-Newman, holding from the latter an A. B. degree. She is at present teaching English and mathematics in the Fines Creek consolidated school.

Mr. Kirkpatrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kirkpatrick, of Fines Creek, and grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Noland, of Waynesville. He received his education at Fines Creek and the Western Carolina Teachers Training College.

The couple have recently returned from their wedding trip to Atlanta and are at home to their friends on Branner Crest drive.

Miss Terrell Will Be Hostess Of February Music Club Meeting

The Waynesville Music Club will hold the regular February meeting on Saturday the 23rd, with Miss Margaret Terrell as hostess at the home of her parents. Mrs. Robt. H. Stretcher will have charge of the program.

Jonathan Club Met With Mrs. Allison Friday

By Mrs. W. T. Rainer.

Mrs. Fred Allison was hostess on Friday afternoon at her home on Jonathan Creek to the members of the Jonathan home demonstration club.

Mrs. W. R. Boyd, home beautification leader, read an article on transplanting trees and shrubs. It was announced that four members of the club had entered the home beautification contest sponsored by the First National Bank.

Other Project leaders giving reports included: Mrs. Medford Leatherwood on foods; Mrs. F. J. Kennedy on poultry; and Mrs. Odell Brown on library work.

Miss Mary Margaret Smith, agent, gave a helpful demonstration on "Planning the Wardrobe." A social hour followed adjournment.

COMEDIAN WHO KEEPS ON GETTING MARRIED

Strange marital record of a so-called comic whose love-life is a problem in arithmetic since he was his first wife just once, went to altar thrice with his third spouse and now hopes his third marriage to wife No. 2 will stick. Look for this feature in the February 23 issue of

The American Weekly the big magazine distributed with the BALTIMORE SUNDAY AMERICAN On Sale at All Newsstands

REMOVAL SALE AIKEN GIFT SHOP

Is Moving to The Schulhofer Block Next To The Lady Fayre Beauty Shop.

Removal Sale will begin February 17th, Continuing Through the Week. Come in and take advantage of the discounts.

at RAY'S

A Lovely Assortment To Show You

Archer Nylons
are better than ever

AND WE CAN SHOW YOU A LOVELY GROUP

Archer Veil	$1.35
Archer NeLine	$1.65
Archer Silk Hose	$1.00 up
Other Silk Hose, regularly	49¢ up

Featuring Special This Week

Full Fashioned 42-Gauge

CHIFFON HOSE

First quality! Silk, 3-thread, ringless chiffon hose. Bemberg welt heel and toe. Sizes 8½ to 10½. Quantity limited... Come Early!

49¢ Value 39¢ pair

LET US SHOW YOU Archer Hose

C. E. RAY'S SONS

Fashioned
FOR SPRING

By These Big Names In Ready-To-Wear

at Massie's

Bonny Lane
Kay Dunhill
Ann Foster
Georgiana
Doris Dodson
Jo Dee

COATS
In Tweed, Glen Plaids and Reefers
$10.95
to $39.50

DRESSES
Beautiful Dresses in the latest materials.
$3.95
to $14.95

New Arrivals Daily

ALSO
Lovely Spring HATS

MASSIE'S DEPT. STORE
C. J. REECE, Owner.