

SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. John Estes Announce Daughter's Marriage In Clayton, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. John Estes, of Allen's Creek, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mae Estes, to Eugene Kuykendall on Saturday, February 15, in Clayton, Georgia.

Only a few friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride attended the Waynesville township high school. The groom is employed by the Unagusta Manufacturing Company. Mr. and Mrs. Kuykendall are residing in the Allen Creek community.

DAR Will Hold 33rd Declamation Contest Today

The thirty-third annual declamation contest held by the Dorcas Bell Love chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held with the regent, Mrs. J. M. Long, on Wednesday afternoon at the Waynesville Country Club. The lounge was arranged in quantities of early spring flowers. Mrs. Long presided.

Mrs. J. R. Boyd, Jr., had the paper of the afternoon, the subject being, "The Signers Who Did Not Sign," which included short sketches of the wives of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, who suffered the hardships of their husbands.

Mrs. R. N. Barber was elected as an alternate to the regent to the annual DAR Congress to be held in April. Alternates elected for Mrs. Barber were Mrs. J. H. Howell and Mrs. James E. Henderson, of Canton.

Mrs. J. W. Killian, treasurer, stated that she had ordered a marker for the grave of the late Mrs. E. B. Camp, beloved member of the organization.

The regent appointed Mrs. Harry Marshall, to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Camp, the chaplain.

Mrs. J. H. Howell gave a report of her recent visit to the Indian Reservation. Mrs. W. F. Swift reported that there would be 12 contestants in the annual declamation contest to be held this week at the high school. Mrs. J. H. Howell and Mrs. L. M. Killian were appointed as a stage decoration committee.

The chapter decided to make 12 shirts for the last Red Cross quota. It was planned to place all papers read at the meetings in the DAR section of the local public library.

The chapter voted to send $5.00 to the DAR Ambulance Fund for Britain. They also went on record as favoring the lease-lend bill.

Mrs. Harry Marshall reviewed the National magazine, from which she read excerpts from the life story of Benjamin Franklin and Abraham Lincoln, and from Washington's diary.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. J. G. Huggin, Jr., and Mrs. J. P. Dicus.

Mrs. R. L. Allen Gives Dinner For Civic League On Wednesday Evening

Mrs. Rufus L. Allen entertained the members of the Waynesville Civic League with a dinner on Wednesday night. Following the dinner a business session of the group was held, with Mrs. Allen, president, presiding.

The League has decided to study "The United States in the Present Crisis." Some phase of the situation as exists today will be taken under consideration at each meeting.

An added feature on each program will be a sketch of the hobby of some member of the League.

It was announced that the next meeting would be held with Mrs. T. C. Norris, with Mrs. Leo Martel as an associate hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaddis Give Party For Former's Sunday School Class

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gaddis entertained with a valentine party at their home on Thursday evening honoring Mr. Gaddis' Sunday school class and some special guests.

Games and contests were enjoyed. The valentine motif was carried out in refreshments and decorations.

Those present were: Miss Edith Summerrow, Miss Nancy Winchester, Miss Catherine Davis, Miss Doris Anne Greer, Miss Margaret Arrington, Miss Laura Winchester, Miss Estella Wright, Miss Dorothy Scruggs, Miss Mildred Rogers.

Also Baryon Clark, John Summerrow, Junior Davis, Elmer Harris, Ben Winchester, Joe Brown, Fletcher Ferguson, and Fred Morgan.

Music Club Will Meet Saturday Afternoon

The Waynesville Music Club will meet on Saturday afternoon with Miss Margaret Terrell at the home of her parents. Mrs. Henry Foy, president, will preside.

Mrs. Robt. H. Stretcher will have charge of the program.

Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick and Miss Robena Miller were the guests during the week of their cousin, Mrs. Reginald Arnold, at her home in Bristol, Tenn.

Mrs. Long Hostess To DAR Chapter At Country Club

The February meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held with the regent, Mrs. J. M. Long, on Wednesday afternoon at the Waynesville Country Club. The lounge was arranged in quantities of early spring flowers. Mrs. Long presided.

Mrs. J. R. Boyd, Jr., had the paper of the afternoon, the subject being, "The Signers Who Did Not Sign," which included short sketches of the wives of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, who suffered the hardships of their husbands.

Mrs. R. N. Barber was elected as an alternate to the regent to the annual DAR Congress to be held in April. Alternates elected for Mrs. Barber were Mrs. J. H. Howell and Mrs. James E. Henderson, of Canton.

Mrs. J. W. Killian, treasurer, stated that she had ordered a marker for the grave of the late Mrs. E. B. Camp, beloved member of the organization.

The regent appointed Mrs. Harry Marshall, to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Camp, the chaplain.

Mrs. J. H. Howell gave a report of her recent visit to the Indian Reservation. Mrs. W. F. Swift reported that there would be 12 contestants in the annual declamation contest to be held this week at the high school. Mrs. J. H. Howell and Mrs. L. M. Killian were appointed as a stage decoration committee.

The chapter decided to make 12 shirts for the last Red Cross quota. It was planned to place all papers read at the meetings in the DAR section of the local public library.

The chapter voted to send $5.00 to the DAR Ambulance Fund for Britain. They also went on record as favoring the lease-lend bill.

Mrs. Harry Marshall reviewed the National magazine, from which she read excerpts from the life story of Benjamin Franklin and Abraham Lincoln, and from Washington's diary.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. J. G. Huggin, Jr., and Mrs. J. P. Dicus.

Mrs. Lupton Gives Supper Party For Miss Fannie P. Felmet

Mrs. Clifford Lupton was hostess on Friday evening of a supper party as a courtesy to Miss Fannie Pearl Felmet, who is spending this week with her family. The affair marked the birthday anniversary of the honor guest.

Red, white and blue were effectively combined in the color motif of the table decorations. In the center was a large crystal heart filled with red carnations and blue baby's breath. At the four corners were crystal holders with red candles.

The guest list included the following: Mrs. Milas Ferguson, Mrs. Charles Rhinehart, of Canton, Mrs. Sebe Bryson, Mrs. Hugh Shelton, of Newport News, Va., Mrs. Ruth Rotha, Miss Marie Plott, Miss Carmen Plott, Miss Josephine Cabe, Miss Margaret Perry, and Miss Elizabeth Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnette Announce Marriage Of Daughter On The 9th

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Burnette, of Lake Junaluska, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Thomasine Burnette, to Eugene Carver, of Waynesville. The vows were solemnized in Clayton, Ga., on Sunday, February the 9th.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville township schools. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Carver, of Waynesville, route 2. He also attended the local schools. He is now serving with Company "H" at Fort Jackson.

Missing at His Own Birth

Mrs. Grace Armstrong, 35, is shown in Park Falls, Wis., hospital as nurse Mary Besaw holds her baby boy. The expectant mother was being taken to a hospital for confinement when the car went into a snow ditch. At the hospital it was discovered the child had been born but had disappeared. Search found the child in the snow drift where the car had skidded. The infant was nicknamed "Snowball."

Miss E. I. Schramm Dies In Chicago Hospital On 10th

By Mrs. W. C. Medford.

Miss Emma Ida Schramm, who has resided here for the past fifteen years, died in the Englewood Hospital in Chicago on Monday the 10th. Miss Schramm left here the last week in January to visit her sisters in Chicago.

Miss Schramm was born in Cleveland, Ohio, her parents were both natives of Germany. She was one of 13 children.

At the time of her death she had reached the ripe age of 81 years, but in spirit she was still youthful. She leaves friends here who will sorely miss her.

She had taught in the public schools of Chicago for 25 years, following which she went to Fairhope, Ala., where she resided for 16 years before coming here.

Miss Schramm was a great lover of nature, enjoying to the fullest the companionship of the birds, her dog and her flowers, and in her little home overlooking Waynesville and the surrounding mountains she joyfully spent her last years reading, writing and studying.

We quote a few lines from her book of sonnets which she had published a few years ago:

"How sweet to watch the growing of a flower
Whose dainty splendor twinkle in the air,
Oft buffeted by gales, cuffed by the shower
Yet through each shock unfolding still more fair."

Miss Josephine Plott, who has been ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Plott, is out again. Miss Plott spent the past week in Bryson City as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wayne Battle.

John Kirkpatrick, of Spartanburg, S. C., was the guest of his father, Dr. W. L. Kirkpatrick, the first of the week.

Mrs. Atkins To Conduct Study Course For Women Of Methodist Church

Mrs. James Atkins, secretary of study, in the women's society of Christian Service, will present the spring course of study next week, beginning on Monday evening, the 24th, at 7:30 at the Methodist church.

The general subject is China, and the central theme "Missions today," with the course taken from Earl Ballou's "Dangerous Opportunity."

Mrs. Henry Gaddy and Mrs. Grover Davis will appear on the first program, on Wednesday Mrs. J. G. Huggin, Jr., and Mrs. Rufus Siler; on Thursday Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Hutchins, and on Friday, Mrs. J. E. Barr and Mrs. J. Dale Stentz.

W. S. C. S. Of Shady Grove Methodist Church Meets With Mrs. Owen

By Mrs. Tom Rainer.

Eighteen members of the women's society of Christian Service of Shady Grove Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Lowery Owen on Wednesday afternoon for the February meeting.

Mrs. Odell Brown, president, presided and the Rev. J. K. Whidden conducted the devotional period. Mrs. Glenn Boyd presented the program message, "Investing our heritage for minority groups and interracial co-operation."

Mrs. Brown gave a report of the zone meeting, which was recently held in Waynesville. The Rev. Whidden and his daughter, Mrs. Owen sang a duet at the close of the program.

The hostess was assisted by her mother during the social hour.

Miss Martha Way, who is teaching in the Mt. Airy schools, arrived on Wednesday to spend ten days at home. Miss Way contracted measles and was under quarantine. Mr. and Mrs. Way motored to Mt. Airy and brought their daughter home for the duration of the quarantine.

Tallulah Bankhead

Miss Bankhead's appearance in Asheville at the Plaza Theatre, Saturday, February 22, matinee and evening, starring in "The Little Foxes," offers the all-too-rare combination of a great play and a great star. There will be a notable supporting cast.

Last Rites Held For Mother Of Mrs. M. H. Reeves

Last rites were held on Wednesday afternoon at her residence in Williamston, S. C., for Mrs. Thomas Crymes, 93, who died on Tuesday the 11th.

Mrs. Crymes was the mother of Mrs. M. H. Reeves. She had often visited her daughter here and had many friends in this section.

She was a very remarkable person and retained her faculties to the last, having a keen interest in affairs in general.

Mrs. Crymes, widow of the late Thomas Crymes, was one of the oldest residents of Williamston, having gone there as a bride in 1868. She was widely known throughout the entire state of South Carolina and her passing was mourned by hundreds of friends.

She was a loyal member of the First Baptist church, having served as president of the Woman's Missionary Society for forty years. She had taught the Woman's Bible class for 65 years, even after having to do so from an invalid's chair. Grandsons served as pallbearers. Among those attending the funeral from here were, Mrs. M. H. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Reeves, Jefferson Reeves, Mrs. W. R. Francis and two daughters, Miss Jane Dudley and Mrs. Reeves Francis, and Rev. and H. G. Hammett.

Mrs. Crymes was a native of Abbeville, S. C., and was born July the 11th, 1847. She received her education at the old Ash Female Academy.

Surviving are one son, E. Evans Crymes, of Williamston, S. C., and five daughters, Mrs. Wilson, of Greenville, S. C., E. Clyde Horton, of Canton, M. H. Reeves, of Waynesville, David S. Vandiver, of Anderson, S. C., and Mrs. George S. Wilson, of Williamston.

Sweden is second now only to United States in the per cent of people who are over 65 years of age.

DON'T COUGH

ASK FOR MENTHOMULSION FOR COUGHS FROM COLDS THAT WON'T TURN LOOSE

TAKE ONE TSP. WAIT FIVE MINUTES. IF YOU FEEL NO BETTER, TAKE ANOTHER TSP. IF YOU FEEL YOUR MONEY BACK.

MENTHOMULSION

Smith's Cut-Rate Drug Store

Eyes Examined Scientifically

CONSULT DR. A. C. DOWNS

Graduate Optometrist

Clyde, N. C. — Phone 4107

Twenty years experience—Over ten thousand satisfied patients

Glasses Fitted At Low Cost

Your Best Store For Medium Priced Shoes

BROWN and WHITE SADDLE OXFORDS

SUEDED C. LEATHER SOLES

Exactly the kind authorized by coeds! Of White BUCK with Brown CALF saddle! ONLY . . . . .

$2.95

School Shoes Of Every Type - Price

FEATURING WOMEN'S SHOES 1.49 to 3.95

C. E. RAY'S SONS

having a wonderful time in my...

Doris Dodson

ORIGINALS for JUNIORS

$12.95

"TOWN TROTTER"—An indispensable redingote. A colorfully printed Doris Acetate rayon printed dress topped by a collarless Doris rayon faille coat. Wear the dress separately—the coat with other dresses! In Blue dress with Blue coat, Blue dress with Navy coat, and Aqua dress with Aqua coat. Sizes 9 to 17.

Others At $3.95 Up

Massie's DEPT. STORE

C. J. Reece, owner

ANOTHER BELK-HUDSON SPECIAL

BELK-HUDSON

"The Home Of Better Values"

JOIN THE CROWD on Friday Night at 7:30 and attend the Bingo party sponsored by the Eastern Star, at Masonic Temple. 130 prizes offered. Feb. 20

THE TERRIBLE MAN WITH THE IVORY EYES

Reporting how archeologists have turned up a lost Alaskan city and skeletons which seem to indicate that the ugly bogymen used by Eskimos to frighten children has a solid basis of fact.

One of many interesting stories in the March 2nd issue of The American Weekly the big magazine distributed with the

BALTIMORE SUNDAY AMERICAN

On Sale at All Newsstands

Your Best Store for plowing and Work Shoes---C. E. Ray's Son's