

Mountaineer Want Ad Rates

Cent a word (this type) each insertion. The Minimum Charge... Cents a word each insertion this size type.

HAYWOOD COUNTY'S BARGAIN COUNTER

WANTED—To employ two white men 18 years of age. For part time work. Call 260-J before June 19. SALE—Good used piano. See J. Ward, 8 Winfield Street, Waynesville, N. C. June 19.

SALES MAN WANTED AVAILABLE AT ONCE nearby Haywood County. Good opportunity for man over 25 with car. Well established. Route experience helpful but not necessary to start. Write at once, Rawlins, Dept. NCF-245-102, Richmond, Va. June 19.

PAIR OF shell rimmed glasses. Near Legion Home Tuesday. Reward. Call 425-M. June 19.

COVER AND sheets and indexes. In all popular sizes, at The Mountaineer.

SALE—138 acre farm on Haywood Creek, 3 miles west of Waynesville. Approximately 50 acres cleared, about 200 fruit trees; about 85 acres in timber. Well watered. Priced reasonable. See Fred Nichols, care of C. Kline, route one, Waynesville, N. C. June 12-19.

TROUBLED WITH people trespassing on your land, get rid of the "no trespassing" sign at The Mountaineer.

WRITER RIBBONS for all typewriter machines, in solid black and red, at The Mountaineer.

MOBILE mechanic and body work. Good salary and steady work. Wallace Auto Exchange, 163, Sylva, N. C. Jun 12-19.

Start Results MOVING Your Way! USE WANT ADS

Buy or Sell a House Rent a Room or Apartment Buy or Sell a Used Car Buy or Sell Livestock Get Competent Help Find a Lost Article Buy or Sell Discarded Furniture Buy or Sell Coal or Wood Secure a Loan 25 Words - 25c

First Jerusalem Conference on World Missions

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON G-21

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL (The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for June 22 is Acts 15:1-35; Gal. 2, the Golden Text being Acts 15:11. "But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in like manner as they.")

WHILE PAUL and Barnabas "abode long time with the disciples" in Antioch, trouble makers were coming from Judaea. These men were Jews who insisted that in order to belong to the Christian church, Gentiles should obey the Jewish laws that had come down to the Jews from the time of Moses.

Isn't it odd that practically no group of people can continue long working together, even in a religious community, without someone "starting something"—getting some idea of what shall be done which makes dissension?

Now this idea of making the Gentiles who joined the church into Jews was repugnant to Paul and Barnabas, who saw clearly that it was not certain laws that certain people of a race obeyed that made a man a Christian, but the acceptance of the Lord Jesus and His message and the gift of the Holy Ghost. These things showed that they were accepted of God, whether they were Jews or Gentiles.

Paul and Barnabas argued with these men and finally it was decided that these two "certain others" should go to Jerusalem, where the apostles and leaders of the church lived, and settle the matter at the first conference of the early church concerning missionary matters.

Preached on the Way

These men stopped in various cities on their way to Jerusalem, preaching and converting Gentiles, and causing much joy to the brethren. When they came to Jerusalem they were received by the apostles and elders and then all the things that God had done with them since they were in the city last.

At a meeting certain Pharisees who were converted brought up the matter of the Gentiles obeying the Jewish laws. It was needful for them so to do, these men said, or they could not really be Christians. Then Peter rose up. He was almost always the first one to speak among the apostles. Peter, Paul and Barnabas were all good Jews, you know, but Peter said of the Gentiles, "God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as He did unto us."

He also pointed out that it would constitute a hardship to the Gentiles to be compelled to obey these laws, and he must have realized, too, the trouble and rebellion it would cause in the church. Such a controversy might easily destroy it.

Following Peter, Paul and Barnabas had their say, and you may be sure they agreed with Peter. James spoke next and he suggested that they write to the Gentiles and ask them to "abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood."

This pleased the apostles and elders and they chose Paul and Barnabas and some of their own company to carry the letter to the Gentile Christians at Antioch. So they wrote letters "after this manner," and the chosen disciples carried the letters to Antioch. St. Luke tells us that "Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also."

Danger Is Averted

Thus was a danger diverted from the early church and the loving, co-operative spirit of Jesus and His apostles preserved.

One other argument arose later on this same subject, which is told in Galatians 2. Peter, it seems, was chided by certain elements in the church with eating and meeting with uncircumcised Gentiles. Peter gave way, but Paul chided him. "I withstood him to his face," says St. Paul in his letter to the Galatians, "because he was to be blamed."

"I said unto Peter before them all. If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?" Then Paul sums up his religious feelings thus: "Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified."

And again, "I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave Himself for me."

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Dempsey's Girl a Communicant

Joan Dempsey (right), daughter of former heavyweight boxing champion Jack Dempsey and actress Hannah Williams, is shown with her sister, Barbara, after receiving her first communion at St. Laurence Academy, New York. The parents have been separated for some time, but both attended the ceremony.

BREAKS ANKLE

LEMARS, Iowa—Fay Wells, a high school senior, had tried several times to get a date with the "prettiest girl in town." Finally she agreed to accompany him to the high school "prom" dance. Whereupon Fay broke his ankle while swimming.

LITTLE CAR PUTS

MULLINS, S. C.—An automobile and a freight train collided at a grade crossing here, and as would be expected the automobile was demolished—but the driver escaped injury. Ten of the freight cars were wrecked. Damage to the railroad was placed at more than $50,000.

EXECUTRIX NOTICE

Having qualified as Executrices of the estate of Clyde H. Ray, Sr., deceased, late of Haywood County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned at Waynesville, North Carolina, on or before the 15th day of May, 1942, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to the said estate will please make immediate payment. This the 14th day of May, 1941. JENNIE RAY BREECE, MARY RAY, Executrices of the estate of Clyde H. Ray, Sr., deceased. No. 1074—May 15-22-29-June 5-12-17.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Lee Ferguson, deceased, late of the County of Haywood, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased, to exhibit them to the undersigned at Route No. 1, Clyde, North Carolina, on or before the 31st day of May, 1942, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment. This the 31st day of May, 1941. G. C. FERGUSON, Administrator of the Estate of Lee Ferguson, deceased. No. 1078—June 5-12-19-26-July 3-10.

America's Oldest Grapevine At Manteo

One of the most outstanding historic sites in connection with the anniversary celebrations on Roanoke Island and the 5th season of "The Lost Colony," opening at Manteo, North Carolina, July 3rd, is MOTHER VINEYARD—the nation's oldest grapevine which was planted by Sir Walter Raleigh's pioneers more than 350 years ago.

Begin Aluminum Salvage

Beginning a salvage campaign to collect aluminum cooking utensils and other scrap metals, the Office of Production Management declares the campaign may be expanded nationwide if it proves successful in Richmond, Va., and Madison, Wis. Three residents of Richmond make their contribution to national defense.

His Measures Called "Socialistic"

Leon Henderson, price administrator, explains to the Senate Agriculture Committee how he arrived at a ceiling price of 42 cents a pound on combed cotton. Cotton farmers on the committee called his methods socialistic.

His Son's In the Navy, Now

Congressman Burton B. Hare of South Carolina presents his son, John, with a reserve ensign's commission as 400 members graduate at the U. S. Naval Reserve Midshipmen's School in New York. Rear Admiral Adolphus Andrews, commandant of the Third Naval District, smiles his approval.

A Seabass Out of Water

Mrs. David Bass, of New York, and her son took a nap in their cabin cruiser, Seabass, when the tide was high. The tide ran out and they were marooned high and dry on a rock. The boat is shown in the background. New York harbor police took mother and son ashore, but they had to wait for the tide to refloat their boat.

Roosevelt Between Hospitals

Sporting a gorgeous shiner Ensign Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., third son of the President, is shown with his wife as he left Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, en route to Chelsea Naval Hospital for further treatment before returning to duty at Newport Naval Station in Rhode Island. He was injured when his car overturned after a blowout.

Kitten Quints—Very Rare

The story here has nothing to do with the pretty girl. She's only posing with the quintuplet Siamese Temple cats, a rare event in the cat family. They are owned by Frank Weaver, of San Diego, Cal. The girl? Oh yes, her name is Edith Bell.

To Organize Women

Mrs. Harold V. Milligan of New York has been chosen by the General Federation of Women's Clubs in Atlantic City as head of its new department of national defense. She will campaign for organization of women into a single national preparedness movement.

Wins Defense Award

Eugene Phillips, of Fort Worth, Tex., is top winner of the $5,000 Revere Award for the best contributions made by workers to America's defense plan. He created a system for the blind landing of airplanes, going to work on the idea when one of his friends crashed to death in an emergency landing.