

SOCIETY

Mrs. G. C. Plott Honors Mrs. T. W. Stevenson With Party Thursday

Mrs. G. C. Plott assembled a group of friends at her home Thursday afternoon as a courtesy to Mrs. T. W. Stevenson, of San Diego, Calif., the former Miss Roberta Haynes.

Mrs. Plott was assisted in receiving by her daughters, Mrs. Wayne Battle, of Bryson City, Mrs. Rhinehart, of Canton, and Miss Josephine Plott.

The guest list was confined to former friends of Mrs. Stevenson when she resided here, as follows: Mrs. Lillian Hart, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. W. A. Medford, Mrs. Lawrence Green, Miss Sylla Davis, Mrs. Roy Martin, Mrs. Kate Morris, Miss Nan Horton, and Mrs. C. A. Holtzclaw, of Canton, the latter a sister of the honor guest.

Presbyterian Deacons Honor George A. Kunze

The deacons of the Waynesville Presbyterian church were hosts on Friday evening of a supper honoring George A. Kunze, one of their members who will leave in the near future for Leaksville, where he will be located.

The affair was given at the "Pie Top Camp," of Albert Abel. Those attending the supper were the following: R. L. Prevost, H. C. Lindesley, Ralph Prevost, Johnnie Cuddeback, Whitener Prevost, Bob Gibson, Albert Abel, H. C. McBride, C. B. Hosaflook, and George A. Kunze.

Mrs. Charles Woodward Honors Husband on Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Charles Woodward was hostess of a buffet supper party on Tuesday evening as a courtesy to her husband on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. Arrangements of pink roses adorned the rooms.

Following the serving of supper bridge and other card games were enjoyed, with dancing closing the evening. The guest list included around fifty friends of the hostess and her husband.

Mr. Woodward was the recipient of many gifts and congratulations on the anniversary.

Mrs. H. A. Hall and daughter, Louella Hall, left Tuesday for Greenville, S. C., where they joined Mr. Hall for the remainder of the week. They are attending the Greenville horse show.

Flies to Children

Lady Queensbury

Lady Cathleen S. Queensbury, whose husband is a direct descendant of the originator of the Queensbury rules in boxing, arrives at New York by trans-Atlantic plane from Europe. She is en route to Canada to visit her children, Lady Jane Douglas, 13, and Lord Drumlanrig, 10.

Local Girls Attending Camp at Lake Junaluska

The following girls are attending a ten day camp now in session at Camp Allegro at Lake Junaluska: Anne Edmunds, Rosemary Herman, Mary Anne Massie, Betsy Siler, Bebe Medford, Vivian Watkins, Betty Jo Brown, Jane Dudley Francis, Nicky Prevost, Barbara Anne Boyd, and Betsy Siler. Miss Lois Massie is serving as junior counselor.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover L. Davis Entertain on Saturday P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover L. Davis were hosts on Saturday afternoon of a party honoring their small daughter, Carolyn Davis, at their home on Chestnut Park Drive. During the afternoon about 50 friends and relatives called.

Group From Local Church Attend Montreat Conference

The following group of young people from the Waynesville Presbyterian church attended the young people's senior and intermediate conference of the Southern Presbyterian church held in Montreat last week: Dorothy Richeson, Alice Russell, Doris Grahl, Mary Ann Kunze, Ida Lou Gibson, Ila Jean Evans, and Jimmy Elwood.

Marriage Of Miss Nellie Mehaffey And Lt. Edwards Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Lawson Mehaffey have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nellie Mehaffey, to Lieutenant Charles William Edwards, Jr., of Lake Junaluska and Durham.

The vows were solemnized on Friday, May the 23rd, in Greenville.

Mrs. Edwards is a graduate of the Waynesville township high school and of Blanton's Business College, of Asheville. She was formerly secretary to the county welfare officer here and at the time of her marriage was residing in Washington, D. C., where she held a position in the War Department.

Lieutenant Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Edwards, of Durham. He is a graduate of Duke University and a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is temporarily stationed at Camp Forrest, Tenn. He has been in active service since September, when he left here with Company "H" of the 120th Infantry of the National Guard, and has been stationed at Fort Jackson until recently.

Mrs. Clem Cabe Gives Party For Sister, Miss Annie Austin

Mrs. Clem Cabe was hostess on Wednesday evening of a party in compliment to her sister, Miss Annie Austin, of Cusseta, Ga. The evening was featured by games and music. Several contests were enjoyed with prizes being awarded to winners. The living room was arranged in azalea, spires, roses, and other summer flowers. The hostess was assisted by Miss Dorothy Hill and Miss Lillian Moore.

The guest list included: Miss Bernice Gaddis, Miss Lucy Head, Miss Jane White, of Andrews, Mrs. Ethel Moore, Mrs. Jack Moore, Mrs. Quince Poteat, Mrs. Francis Parton, Miss Maurice Styles, of Canton, Harry Gaddis, of Camp Laughing Owl, Oscar Moore, Jack Gibson, Gordon Gaddis, Jake Moore, Frank Painter, of Sylva, Fletcher Hill, James Moor, Clem Cabe, and Joe Moore.

C. of C. Chapter Meets With Mrs. F. E. Alley At Lake Junaluska

The Haywood chapter of the children of the Confederacy met Friday afternoon with their leader, Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., at Lake Junaluska. During the afternoon swimming in the lake was enjoyed, following which supper was served. The meeting was held during supper hour.

Miss Mary and Miss Jane Stentz were selected to represent the chapter on the program that will be given over WWNC this month under the auspices of the local adult chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Miss Eugenia Martin, president of the children chapter, presided.

Miss Debrayda Fisher, Mrs. Robert Trammell and young daughter, of Greenville, and Mrs. Clyde Fisher and daughter, of Hazelwood, are spending this week in Wedowee, Ala., visiting their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bridges had as their guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spearman and two children, Norvel and Gwendolyn Spearman, and Miss Gertrude Bridges, of Greenville, S. C.

Miss Emily Siler has returned home for the summer vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Siler. Miss Siler attended the University of North Carolina last year, and following commencement, she visited friends in Wilmington.

Leon Killian, Jr., who has been spending some time here with his parents, left this week for Newport News, where he will resume his work.

Mrs. John N. Shoolbred is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Wood in Elizabethton, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Marsh, of Bryson City, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hensley, of Lenoir, were guests of friends here over the week-end.

Miss Billie Rotha has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. Martin Berry, in Pleasant Valley, N. Y.

Mrs. T. W. Stevenson, of San Diego, Calif., is visiting relatives in the county. Mrs. Stevenson is the former Miss Roberta Haynes, and this is her first visit to Waynesville in sixteen years.

Mrs. H. L. Horton, of Raleigh, is expected to join her sister, Mrs. T. W. Stevenson, of San Diego, here for a visit this week.

Mrs. Nina Howell Darrck, of New York City, has arrived in town to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Howell.

Sister M. Ancilla, Sister M. Corone, Sister M. Paulna, and Sister M. Ignatius, who have been teaching in St. John's Catholic School, left Friday for a visit in Milwaukee.

What Next?

What will the women think of next? Here's the latest. Barbara Brier wears the headgear of the future, a copper hat introduced at the Western Metal Congress in Los Angeles. They say it's as light as straw.

Local State Guard to Sponsor Square Dance

The local state guard will sponsor a square dance in the Armory on Friday night beginning at nine o'clock. Music will be furnished by a well known mountain group. The figures will be called by members of the famous Soco Gap Dance team.

The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the state guard. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Wayne Battle and young son, of Bryson City, spent the past week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Plott.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor have as their guests for two weeks, Mrs. Kermit Taylor and small daughter, Lynne, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Mary Moore and Miss Stephanie Moore have returned to Lake Junaluska from a visit to eastern Carolina, where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Holt Moore and small son, of New York City, who accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Green spent Sunday in Asheville visiting their daughter, Mrs. Fred Campbell, who is a patient in the Biltmore Hospital.

Mrs. James B. Frady, who was operated on two weeks ago at the Haywood County Hospital, has returned to her home and is reported much improved.

Mrs. S. T. Neal, who has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neal, in California, has returned east and is now the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Trotter in Reidsville.

Kenneth Palmer, who is now located on Long Island, is spending his vacation here with his mother, Mrs. James Palmer.

John Morris, of Fort Jackson, is spending ten days here with his mother, Mrs. T. C. Morris.

L. M. Richeson left Saturday for a two weeks vacation at Myrtle Beach.

J. J. Truby, of Stark, Florida, is spending some time here as the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Killian.

The Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Shackford have as their guests the former's parent, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Shackford, Miss Ella Shackford, Miss Elizabeth Shackford, and Atkins Shackford.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keyes, of New York City, were guests during the week of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Killian, Miss Nancy Killian, and Captain and Mrs. W. F. Swift.

Mrs. Harry Frehn, of Bristol, Tenn., is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell.

Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson has as her guest for an extended visit her sister, Miss Agnes Simons, who teaches in the city schools of Knoxville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and daughter, Sarah, and son, William Brown, of Athens, Ga., spent the week-end with Miss Nancy Killian.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Stamey and their son, Miles Stamey, Mrs. Dwight Beaty and her son, Dwight Beaty, Jr., and Miss Ann Albright visited Mrs. C. B. McKeal at her home in Charlotte last week. Mrs. McKeal is the former Miss Elizabeth Albright, of Waynesville.

Sergeant Len Medford, of Fort Douglas, Utah, left Monday for a short visit with his parents in Seattle, Wash., before returning to duty at the reception center at Fort Douglas. Sergeant Medford has been visiting friends and relatives here for the past month.

Lions Club Stages Novel Party At Cataloochee Ranch

The Lions Club was host of a supper party followed by a square dance on Thursday night at the Cataloochee Ranch as a courtesy to their wives and friends.

The places were marked by miniature hourses, and large bandana handkerchiefs to which rings with the name of the club attached. The ladies were presented small lassos and brought their escorts by this novel means to the long table at which the supper was served.

Alvin Ward, president of the club, was master of ceremonies. Wayne Corpening was chairman of arrangements for the party.

During the serving of the supper a program with many amusing surprises was presented by Mr. Corpening.

After supper, to the tune of a colorful music by a local group, many figures of the square dance were enjoyed.

Double Marriage Takes Place in Greenville

The double marriage of Miss Margaret Williamson to Chester Swanger and Miss Jimmie Hargrove to John Ray Williamson has been announced this week.

The double ceremony took place at Greenville, S. C., on Sunday, June the 15th.

Mrs. Swanger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Williamson, of the Bethel section. She is a graduate of the Bethel high school in the class of 1941.

Mr. Swanger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Swanger, of Canton. He graduated from the Bethel high school in 1939 and holds a position with the Champion Paper and Fibre Co.

Mrs. Williamson is the daughter of Mrs. Jim Hargrove, of Bethel, and is a graduate of the Bethel high school.

Mr. Williamson also holds a position with the Champion Paper and Fibre Company.

Both young couples will reside in Highland Park, Canton.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson and son, Nuil, of Decatur, Ga., spent the past week in town as guests of Miss Nancy Killian. Mr. Johnson is a member of the Music department of Agnes Scott College.

Mrs. Fred Campbell, who underwent a major operation at the Biltmore Hospital last Saturday, is reported to be making satisfactory progress.

DAR Chapter Has Last Meeting Of Year Wednesday

Two Stars Meet

Screen star Joan Crawford greets Margo, dancing star of the stage and screen, at New York's Waldorf Astoria, where Margo entertains under direction of her noted band-leader-uncle, Xavier Cugat.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Campbell and James S. Queen left Friday for Morehead City. En route they were joined in Raleigh by Mrs. Queen, who had been visiting her parents. The party will take a cottage for a ten days vacation.

Walter Mock, of Boone, was the guest during the week of Leon Killian, Jr. at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee, of the week-end in town with

The members of the DAR Love chapter of the DAR the American Revolution June meeting, the last of the year, on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Thad Howell and Mrs. Shelton as associate at the home of the former James M. Long, regent, Miss Lois Harrold, who paper of the afternoon, history of the flag and Star Spangled Banner, gave an outline of the of the flag.

The regent said that placed the official D. A. at the grave of Mrs. E. and that at a later date services would be conducted.

During the business session Lois Harrold was appointed member of the program coming year.

Special guests of the were Mrs. James G. Harrold, Mrs. Fred Page, of Fort Dale, Mrs. Lily Raymond, York City, and Miss Sara Leatherwood.

Methodist Circles Meet on Tuesday, 2

The circles of women of Christian Service of Methodist church will Tuesday afternoon, June follows:

Circle number one, with Grover C. Davis, at 7:30 with Mrs. W. L. McCracken, sociate hostess; circle two, Mrs. W. L. Hardin, with Dale Stentz as associate at 8:30 o'clock; circle three, Mrs. Tom Seawell at 8:30 circle four, with Mrs. Fred and Miss Frances Robeson, sociate hostess at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee, of the week-end in town with

Week End Specials!

Pineapple Filled Layer Cake

Two delicious yellow butter layers filled with a thick pineapple filling and iced all over with fluffy white icing. Danish Pastry and Coffee Cakes—Assorted Cup Cakes. A Nice Variety Of Pies—Cookies Of All Kinds.

If you haven't tried our new Crispy Butter Rolls you have missed something good.

WAYNESVILLE BAKERY

Church Street Phone 73-W Opposite Masonic Temple. A special every day, especially good, especially priced.

AIR STEP

The Smart Looking Shoe That Keeps You Fresh

Between your foot and the ground in your Air Steps is a resilient cushion, with thousands of air spaces that act as absorbers. You literally walk on air when you walk in Air Steps—and the flexible Magic Sole gives an added spring to step. Air Steps are not corrective shoes—they are high shoes, with the smartest lines—the newest materials—the latest tricks in heel and toe embellishment. The Magic Sole is a comfort-plus to give you that "fresh-at-five" feeling in fashion-right footwear.

Her: You're dancing marvelously. Are you happy?
She: Happy? I'm dancing on air. (Aside to herself) I don't mean maybe—I'm dancing on Air Step Shoes!

Step on a pebble in ordinary shoes... it hurts! In Air Steps you don't feel it... the Magic Sole absorbs the shock. Let us give you the Pebble Test!

The TOGGERY

Shoes Fitted By An Expert With X-Ray

Parade of Slacks on Now!

2.95 to 6.50

WORSTEDS
FLANNELS
GABARDINES

Cool! Washable! Cheap!

Come in and look over this large selection of slacks and trousers. Included are chevrons, twills and tweeds in all shades and sizes, with belts to match, either plain or pleated. They are just the thing for summer wear.

THE TOGGERY