

SOCIETY.

Miss Rotha Honors Miss Swift, Bride-Elect, With Party

Miss Billie Rotha was hostess of a beautifully appointed luncheon on Saturday as a courtesy to Miss Haseltine Swift, bride-elect of August. Mixed garden flowers were used in attractive combinations throughout the rooms.

Miss Rotha was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. Harry Rotha, and Miss Tillie Rotha, and Mrs. Margie Blaylock, of Orlando and Waynesville.

The guest list included the following: Miss Swift, Mrs. W. F. Swift, mother of the bride, Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, mother of the groom-elect, Miss Jane Stentz, Miss Mary Stentz, Miss Hilda Way, Miss Sarah Jane Walker, Miss Mary Lou Elwood, of Canton, Ohio and Waynesville, Miss Hester Anne Withers, Miss Jane White, Miss Corinne Wagenfeld, Miss Thomasine Stringfield, Miss Ann Cramer, and Mrs. Malcolm Williamson.

Evelyn Craig Dances At Garden Fete At Biltmore Home

Evelyn Craig, well known local dancer, student of the Marguerite Hyatt School of the Dance, of Asheville, was one of a group appearing on the program presented on Saturday afternoon on the first birthday of Bundles for Britain in Asheville.

The affair was a garden fete given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Burnham S. Colburn in Biltmore Forest and was attended by several hundred persons.

ENTERTAINS WITH MELON FEAST

Edith and John Summerow entertained a number of their friends with a watermelon cut at their home last Friday evening. A scavenger hunt was a feature of the entertainment and other games were enjoyed on the lawn. Those present were: Nancy and Laura Winchester, Margaret and Doris Blalock, Catherine Davis, Jennie Greer, Helen Jewel Robinson, Betty Bradley, also Fletcher Ferguson, Richard Bradley, Harry West, Elmer Harris, Richard Inman, and Junior Davis.

Guests At Jones Farm And "Maples" Are Given Musicales Sunday Evening

Mrs. J. T. Jones and Miss Lucy Jones entertained the guests of Jones Farm and the "Maples" with a musicale Sunday evening.

The program included numbers by Howard Kemper, violinist accompanied by Mrs. Manual Jones, pianist, and several selections of popular piano music by Harry Robinson.

Following the program the guests were served watermelon. Enjoying the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins Connelly, Miss Daphne Connelly, of Sanford, Fla.; Mrs. Linton Allen, Miss "Happy" Allen, Clark Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kemper, Mr. and Mrs. Manual Jones, Miss Evelyn Jones, Harry Robinson, Major and Mrs. Oscar Walters, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Rogers, of Orlando; Mrs. J. Edward M. Sheehan, of St. Petersburg.

Also Mrs. R. W. Blank, Mrs. A. E. Pickering, of Delray Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Jr. Miss Mahka Wilson, Randolph Wilson, of Savannah; Mrs. J. T. Mundy, Miss Elizabeth Mundy, of Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. Hardesty, Miss Louise Hardesty, of Gainesville; Mrs. Jones, Miss Wilson, Ma, and Mrs. Hewitt, of Miami; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Norris, and Pvt. Johnny Norris, of Fort Jackson.

BAPTIST WOMEN TO MEET

The Missionary meeting of the Hazelwood Baptist church will meet in a circle at the home of Mrs. W. H. Snyder, Thursday at 2:30.

Miss Vivian Clark left Sunday for a visit with relatives in Asheville and Biltmore.

Mrs. Fate McHone had as her guest Sunday Mrs. Will Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Patton from Asheville.

Mrs. Roy Blackwell has returned after a three weeks visit to friends in Newport News.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Noland and small daughter, Nancy, arrived on Sunday from Newport News and will spend several days in this section visiting relatives and friends.

Gets Movie Contract

Little Patricia Marie Barker's feminine smile and curls won't be too prominent in the movie she's going to make. The Chicago miss has been signed by Hollywood—to appear as a boy.

Woman's Club To Give Annual Card Party Friday

The annual summer benefit card party sponsored each season by the Woman's club will be held at the Hotel Waynesville on Friday night. Playing will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

The prizes are now on display in the windows of the Massie Furniture store, and have been generously contributed by the merchants and business men of the community. A prize will be given the high scorer at each table.

Those attending are asked to bring their own cards. It is optional as to whether or not guests make up their own tables. In cases where they do not make up their own playing groups there will be tables made up by the committee in charge of arrangements, so every one is cordially invited to attend, whether or not they have planned their group.

Hotel managers and guests houses are urged to invite their guests as this affair is considered one of the outstanding of the summer season.

Mrs. Ben Colkitt is chairman of the committee in charge and serving with her are Mrs. Dan Watkins and Mrs. George Bischoff. Anyone wishing to make a reservation may call either of the three or may purchase a ticket from Miss Ruthie Wagenfeld or Miss Carroll Bell, who are in charge of the sales.

Community Center Program Gives Way To Benefit Bridge

The regular Friday evening program presented by the community center of the Chamber of Commerce will not be given tomorrow night, in view of the large benefit bridge party to be sponsored at the Hotel Waynesville by the Woman's Club. Mrs. R. O. Covington, official hostess of the center will assist in the party.

The programs which are given each Friday night between 8 and 9 o'clock will be resumed again on the evening of the 15th, with the numbers announced at a later date.

Captain William Sloan Spends Ten Days Leave Here With His Father

Captain William Sloan, of the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army returned yesterday to Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., after a ten days leave spent here with his father, Hugh J. Sloan.

Captain Sloan, who is a member of the reserve corps, was called into service about eight months ago. He is an instructor in the Medical Replacement Service, and is serving with the regular army. Captain Sloan was located in Wilson at the time he was called to duty.

Miss Wilma Hoyle has as her guest this week Ralph Lucas of Virginia Beach, Va.

Mrs. Lucius Hudson and son Billy visited friends in Marion last week.

Mrs. Edna Schulhofer, of Richmond, Va., who formerly resided here and is an annual visitor, always stopping at the Hotel Waynesville, has arrived for an extended stay. With her this year are her sisters, Mrs. B. K. Meyers, of Philadelphia, Miss Inez B. Heller, of Richmond, her niece, Miss Jane E. Meyers, of Philadelphia. She has recently been joined by her aunt, Miss Rosa Strause, of Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Pilgram Blanton and Fred Tittle spent Friday in parts of South Carolina on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moody and son, Darrell, of Canton, Ohio, have arrived and are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Moody.

Mrs. Killian Gives Luncheon For Niece On Monday

Mrs. James W. Killian entertained with a luncheon on Monday in compliment to her niece, Miss Haseltine Swift, whose marriage to Lieutenant David Stentz will take place this month.

A color motif of pink and white was observed throughout the house, with the dining room in white and green. The central table in the latter room was covered with an old imported linen cloth and the centerpiece of mixed flowers was flanked by silver holders bearing long white tapers. Smaller tables at which the guests were also seated bore the bridal motif. The favors were miniature brides and grooms.

The guest list included the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. W. F. Swift, Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, mother of the groom-elect, Miss Hilda Way, Miss Corinne Wagenfeld, Miss Joyce Juniper, Miss Sarah Jane Walker, Miss Jane White, Miss Mary Stentz, Miss Jane Stentz, Miss Mary Lou Elwood, Miss Thomasine Stringfield, Miss Billie Rotha, and Mrs. Ellen Louise Killian Queen.

Mrs. J. H. Howell Honors Miss Swift With Card Party

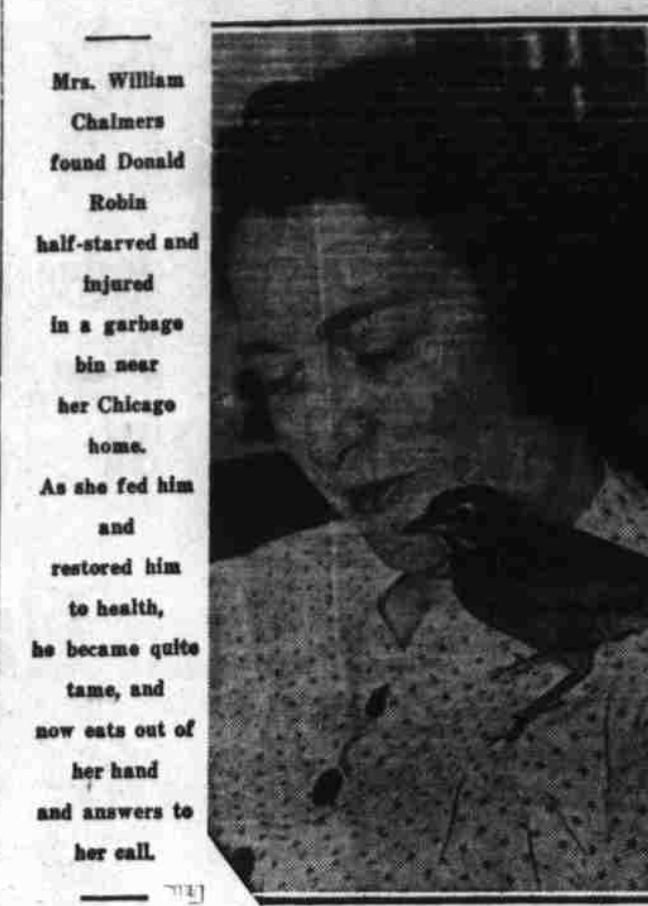

Mrs. J. Harden Howell was hostess of a card party at her home "Windover" on Monday afternoon as a courtesy to Miss Haseltine Swift, whose marriage the middle of this month will be an important social event of the summer season. Mixed flowers in lovely arrangements adorned the rooms where the tables were placed for playing.

When the scores were totaled Miss Carolyn Rose was found to hold the high score and Miss Hilda Way drew the low. The honor guest was presented a silver cream and sugar.

Among those invited were Miss Swift, Miss Sarah Jane Walker, Miss Joyce Juniper, Miss Jane White, Miss Hilda Way, Miss Mary Stentz, Miss Billie Rotha, Mrs. Calvin Houghland, of Nashville, Mrs. Ellen Louise Killian Queen, Miss Mary Lou Elwood, of Waynesville and Canton, Ohio, Miss Hester Anne Withers, Miss Corinne Wagenfeld, and Miss Carolyn Rose, of Chicago and Waynesville. Invited to join the group at the tea hour were: Mrs. W. F. Swift, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. E. L. Withers, Mrs. L. M. Killian, Mrs. James W. Killian, and Miss Nancy Killian.

Miss Nannette E. Jones has returned to her home on Walnut street, from an extended trip to Birmingham, New York and Washington, D. C.

A Fine Feathered Friend

Mrs. William Chalmers found Donald Robin half-starved and injured in a garbage bin near her Chicago home. As she fed him and restored him to health, he became quite tame, and now eats out of her hand and answers to her call.

Baptist Pastor And Wife Hold Open House Thursday

Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Hammett observed open house on Thursday evening at the parsonage of the First Baptist church honoring the members of the congregation. Quantities of flowers were used in the rooms.

Receiving the guests at the front door were: Miss May Boone, Mrs. H. O. Champion, and Mrs. J. C. Patrick.

Miss Ophelia Montgomery, of Wooddale and Miss Helen Hammett, of Great Falls, S. C., were in charge of the register.

Serving in the dining room were Miss Hattie Siler Freeman, Miss Mary Ashworth Barber, Miss Ruth Burgin, Miss Merrill Green, and Miss Marion Morgan.

During the appointed hours a large number of the membership of the congregation called.

Masters Steve and Roy Blackwell, Jr., young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blackwell, returned on Tuesday from Tryon where they have spent the past three weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy McLeod, of Lumberton, who have spent the past month here as guests of Mrs. Jennie MacFayden, left during the week for their home.

Presbyterian Church Deacons Will Be Hosts Of Watermelon Cutting

The deacons of the Waynesville Presbyterian church will entertain with a watermelon cutting Monday night at 8 o'clock. Light saving time, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abel in compliment to the men of the church. Any person not having transportation may get in touch with some members of the board of deacons and a way will be arranged.

Former Nurse of Local Hospital Is Married

Mrs. J. L. Baker, of Franklin, Va., has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Luna Baker, to Matthew W. Ingram, Franklin, Va.

Mrs. Ingram is a graduate of the Lynchburg Hospital School of Nursing, of Lynchburg, Va., held a position here for several years in the Haywood County Hospital. She has recently finished a post graduate course in obstetrics at the Boston Lying In Hospital of Boston, Mass.

Mr. Ingram is the son of late Mr. and Mrs. George S. Ingram, of Danville, Va.

Methodist Women's Group Will Meet On Tuesday

The woman, society of the Methodist church will hold the regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 in the church parlors. Mrs. Frank Ferguson will be the leader of the program.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Hutchins as their guests during the week of the Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Clemens of Hayesville. Rev. Clemens pastor of the Hayesville Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Louise Brewer, spent week-end in Shelby with Davis' and Mrs. Brewer's parents.

Mrs. L. N. Davis of Hayesville and Mrs. J. H. Beverage of Bethel section, visited points of interest in Washington last week.

ADVANCE 1941 SALE! HEADED FOR SUCCESS

Annual August

COAT SALE

The event thrifty women wait for... our annual AUGUST SALE OF COATS. Come in today... buy that winter coat you want NOW... before prices go up. A small down payment will hold your coat until you need it.

Advance 1941 Styles--

All the advance 1941 styles headed for success. See the new slimmer silhouette with modified dolman sleeves, "easier" waistlines, slimmer shirts. Choose your winter coat NOW. We can't guarantee these savings later.

$7.95 — $9.95
$12.95

Second Floor

BELK-HUDSON CO.

"The Home Of Better Values"

NEW Fall STYLES

Are Arriving Daily

At

MASSIE'S

★

Beautiful Dresses

By

—KAY DUNHILL
—DORIS DODSON
—ANN FOSTER
—GEORGANA

★

Also Lovely Fall Coats

Come See These New Creations

Massie's Department Store

C. J. REECE, Owner

You Will Find At RAY'S

—Colorfast—
—Yardwide—

10¢ Prints

And in addition a splendid selection of other prints at attractive prices.

Other Prints
12½c-17c-19c-25c

AN 80 SQUARE PRINT AT A BARGAIN PRICE

OUR FEATURE PRINT —QUADRIGA—

—Showing Also A. B. C.'s—

—For Those Who Prefer—

Lovely School Dresses 59¢ — 79¢ — 97¢

—Women's Print Dresses—69¢ up

C. E. RAY'S SONS