

Draft Board Urges Cooperation Of Men In Service

The fact that there are important personal reasons why a selective service registrant should cooperate closely with his local board is being stressed here by the Waynesville board.

The state director Metts points out that the registrant's full cooperation with his local board not only expedites the operation of the selective service system, but also directly benefits him.

"The importance of the registrant keeping in touch with his local board and immediately notifying it when he changes his address is obvious," claims Director Metts.

The registrant who fails in this matter not only violates the law and places himself in needless jeopardy of fine or imprisonment, or both, but also does himself an injustice and causes the local board much unnecessary trouble.

The local board emphasizes the fact that registrants can save both themselves and their local boards much inconvenience and possible grief by exercising care in filling out the questionnaire for classification. Any registrant who feels that he has been placed in the wrong classification and wants to make an appeal, has at his service the government appeal agent attached to his local board.

Fines Creek News

Mrs. D. N. Rathbone

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swanger, of Fines Creek, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Eva Lee, to Zeb Clark, son of Mrs. Candace Clark.

The vows were solemnized at Spartanburg on Tuesday, October 7th. The only attendants at the wedding were Miss Katherine Clark and Mark Swanger.

Mr. Clark has been in the U. S. Army for the last four years when he was recently released by the government.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark will reside at the home of the groom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Clark were recently entertained by Mrs. Candace Clark. There were around forty guests present for the evening.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Claud Clark, Mrs. D. C. West, Mrs. Roy Green and Mrs. H. G. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Green, who built a cottage two years ago, have recently given it a new coat of paint. The painting was done by their son, Robert, while visiting them. Robert has re-enlisted in the Navy for a second term.

Harry Noland, of Newport News, is visiting his parents at their home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ferguson, who are living in Newport News recently visited friends and relatives on Fines Creek.

Hugh Ferguson has gone to Wilmington where he has accepted a position.

Mallie Wood recently accepted a position in Newport News.

Rev. Jarvis Teague was elected by the members and church authorities to serve a second term as pastor for the Baptist church.

Miss Maude White and Miss Fannie Wright were Fines Creek visitors on Sunday. Miss White is home economics teacher at Crabtree, while Miss Wright is a graduate nurse and will soon be leaving for her home in Baltimore.

Tar Heel Farmers Asked To Increase Production Of Milk And Eggs At Once

The North Carolina "order" under the nation's 1942 plan for record expansion of food output will be for less wheat but more milk and eggs, E. Y. Floyd, state AAA executive officer at State College, reports.

"Despite some recent, inconsistent reports about Britain having 'plenty' of food," Mr. Floyd says, "the British have left absolutely no doubt but that they need enormous supplies of all foods except wheat, and American agriculture has agreed to tackle the job of furnishing those supplies. Our own state job, with first emphasis on increasing egg and milk production, will be to boost the output of just about all foods by approximately 15 per cent."

North Carolina representatives of every U. S. Department of Agriculture agency, led by State College Extension and AAA men, started this week a campaign which will include visits to every farm in the state. The purpose of the farm visits will be to outline production needs to every farmer, analyze each farm's land and equipment and then to give the farmer a concrete 1942 plan under which the farm's food production can be expanded without excessive expense to the farmer.

Other "basic" food commodities which Tar Heel producers will be asked to "bear down on," Mr. Floyd adds, are beef and pork. North Carolina farmers have never produced sufficient supplies of milk, eggs, poultry, beef or pork to feed their own state's population. "That makes the need for increases doubly important," says the AAA leader.

"The 1942 food drive is strictly a voluntary proposition," Mr. Floyd declares, "and farmers will be asked to co-operate with the plan only after they have been shown why increases are needed and how their prices will be protected through the summer of 1943 by government buying."

People In East Getting Jitters About War, Said

"People living in cities on the eastern seaboard are beginning to show signs of 'war nerves', and are quite jittery," according to Joe Rose, in a brief talk before the Rotary Club here last Friday. Mr. Rose had just made a tour of the east before coming here.

Mr. Rose told of members of the R.A.F. who were dining in New York, who the night before had flown a bomber over Berlin and dropped bombs. The point was brought out to show how close some of America's cities are to the war.

The club voted $10 towards the blood bank which is being established at the hospital in connection with the blood bank in Asheville.

Sam Arrington Goes To National FFA Convention

Sam Arrington, state secretary of the North Carolina association of Future Farmers of America and a member of the local chapter, left for Kansas City Wednesday, where he will attend the national convention of the organization being held there October 20-25.

Young Arrington was selected to go to Kansas City by the state association by reason of having been declared outstanding winner in the supervised practice program for district five. The contest was sponsored jointly by the state department of education and the Chilean Education Bureau.

The supervised practice on which he was awarded the trip was as follows: corn, 6 acres; potatoes, 5 acres; forestry, 800 trees; purebred bull 1; pasture, 5 acres; beef cattle, 6; sow and litter 1; baby chicks, 200; grapevines 250; hay, 6 acres; soybeans, 6 acres; truck crops, 5 acres; meat, hogs, 2; apple trees, 400. Income from the projects netted $1,424.06. His project program for this year include 21 projects along the same lines but of a larger scope.

In addition to the foregoing, Arrington has taken part in all phases of school life, having been president of the student body last year, a past president and secretary of his local chapter of Future Farmers of America, winner in several speaking contests, second place in the state FFA contest this year. In addition to his many extra-curricular activities he has made the "A" and "B" honor roll all through his school career.

He is an applicant for the American Farmer degree, the highest, the nation chapter awards, having been elected State Farmer at the state convention in Raleigh during the past summer. He is also the eighth member of the local chapter to be awarded the trip to Kansas City in the past six years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Arrington, of the Saunook community.

State Asked To Boost Production Of Milk 4 Perce

Farmers of North Carolina asked by the government to increase milk production in 1942 per cent over their 1941 production. John A. Arey, extension specialist of N. C. State College, in outlining the dairy program the "Food for Freedom" campaign.

"In order to do our part, producing enough food to send abroad to our friends and to insure an adequate supply for every family at home, North Carolina must produce 1,200,000 pounds of milk next year," stated. "This compares with an estimated production of 1,140,000 pounds of milk in 1941, 1,428,000,000 pounds in 1942."

To meet this goal, the extension dairyman said that 390,000 cows must be kept on farms in 1942. This year there are an estimated 380,000 cows in North Carolina. The increase in dairy production in the past has been rapid in the past. In both 1939 and 1940 there was an estimated 369,000 milk cows in North Carolina farms.

"It will not be difficult for farmers to meet their milk goal," Arey declared, "the foundation for an expanded dairy industry has already been laid in the Piedmont and mountain regions. Unlimited markets are available within the state for the use of manufacturing purposes. This is the kind of government wants for our Great Britain and our other allies under the Lend-Lease program."

Arey suggested that farm agents immediately contact their farm agents for complete information on growing feed crops, stock, and for sources of cows, calves and bulls.
