Troop 1 and Troop 4 tied for first place in first aid, with Troop 7 winning second. Canton Troop 4 was the only troop to qualify in the knot tying. They also won first in tent pitching, with Canton Troop 7 coming in second. Canton Troop 1 was the only troop to qualify in signaling. They also won first place in fire by flint and steel, with Canton Troop 1, James B. Hurley of Canton Troop 7, and Eugene Francis of Clyde Troop 9.

The Holy Spirit Our Helper

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON 10-17

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Oct. 19 is Gen. 1:2; Ps. 51:11; Isa. 63:10-14; Joel 2: 28, 29; Luke 11:13; John 3:8-9; 14:26; 16:7-14; Acts 1:8; 2:1-4, 32, 33; 4:31; 10:44-48; 19:1-7; Rom. 8:9, 12-17; 26-28; I Cor. 12:1-13, II Cor. 13:14; Gal. 5:22-26; Rev. 1:10; 22:17. The Golden Text being Rom. 8:14. "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.")

THE FIRST Bible reference in our lesson today is from Genesis 1, second verse, telling of the creation of the earth: "And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters." In the beginning the Spirit of God was manifest in the world, and our lesson continues to show how it works in the world, even to the present day, and to what heights it attains in inspiring and helping human beings.

Isaiah reminds the children of Israel how this Spirit was with them in their wanderings in the wilderness, especially in their escape from the Egyptians, when they were guided by Moses through the Red sea, "dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name." It seemed hard for the Israelites to continue to be true to God; their faith wavered, even after their deliverance from their taskmasters, and their prophets were always reminding them of the many blessings God had bestowed upon them. David, the psalmist, pleads with the Lord to "Cast me not away from Thy presence; and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me." It is universal cry which we all must make lest we lose sight of the Spirit which helps us through all our misfortunes and keeps us on the right road.

God Sustains Us
Shall we fear that God will not sustain us and give us the things that we need? Jesus said, you remember, that if a son asked for bread, a man would not give him a stone, or if he asked for fish no earthly father would give the son a serpent. "If ye, then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that call upon Him."

Again Jesus tells Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews who came to Him and asked that His message be explained to him, that he must be "born again." Nicodemus couldn't understand that Jesus meant a spiritual rebirth, but Jesus told him not to marvel that He said man must be born again, for the wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. The important thing is that this Holy Spirit comes to us when we need it.

An earnest desire to leave that which is evil in our past and to do what is right and pleasing in God's sight brings about this rebirth. And when we receive this Holy Spirit we shall be helped and comforted. "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth," said Jesus.

This was the last message of Jesus before He was taken up in a cloud and vanished from the sight of His disciples. The next reference relates the story of the day of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples in "tongues of fire," and they all began to talk in different languages as the Spirit gave them power. This episode we have had in an earlier lesson so we need not dwell upon it here. Also we read the account of the Holy Ghost descending upon Gentiles of the house of Cornelius, affecting them as it had the Jews who were Jesus' disciples, to their amazement.

In I Corinthians St. Paul again asserts that the Spirit is the same in all of us. "There are diversities of gifts," he writes, "but the same Spirit." Each of us has a different gift, for instance, some are given the gift of wisdom; some the art of healing, others have other talents. But all these may be directed by the Spirit for our own and the world's good.

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law. . . . Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another." "If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit," as St. Paul tells us, for "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God." What a change would come over the world if everyone asked the Holy Spirit to help them to live lives of love, goodness, joy, peace, long suffering, not being desirous of glory for oneself, not provoking others or envying others, but walking and living with the Spirit in brotherly love.
