

Miss Wyatt Is Bride Of Thos. A. Van Hecke

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wyatt, of Hazelwood, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lillie Wyatt, to Thomas A. Van Hecke, which took place at Calvary Baptist church in Raleigh.

The star of the church was banked in pink boughs, with tall baskets of gladiolus, palms and candelabra arranged to make an attractive setting for the ceremony.

Prior to the wedding Mrs. E. Ulrich rendered a selection from Handel's "Incline Thine Ear," "Sonatina," in F, "How so Fair," from "Martha and Gounod's L'Angelus," and the traditional marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride wore a dress of sheer green wool with pockets and buttons trimmed in beaver. Her accessories were in brown and her flowers were a corsage of tulle and roses.

The groom had as his best man Forrest Brienston, of Morehead City.

Mrs. Van Hecke was educated in the Waynesville township high school, and Western Carolina Teachers College, where at the latter she was a member of the Alpha Phi Sigma scholastic fraternity.

Woman's Club Will Hold December Meeting At Hotel LeFaine

The December meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at the Hotel LeFaine with Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick as hostess assisted by Mrs. C. N. Sisk, Miss Robena Miller, and Mrs. W. H. Limer.

Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, chairman of music, will have charge of the program which will be made up of Christmas numbers.

All members are asked to bring a toy for the community Christmas tree.

C. E. Grace, of Hazelwood, is spending a few weeks in Washington, D. C.

Shoes from U. S.

The expression of Doreen Massow in this photo from bomb-blasted London tells its own story. She is trying on one of seven pairs of children's shoes contributed by Mrs. Willa Abernathy of Seattle, Wash.

Louise Hendricks Weds J. C. Poss In Hartwell, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. George William Hendricks, of Newport News, Va., who formerly resided here, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Louise Wilson Hendricks, to James Cathey Poss.

The marriage took place on Saturday, November 29th, at Hartwell, Ga., in the presence of a small group of friends.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville township high school and of the School of Nursing of Sergeant Kenneth E. Wright has returned to Fort Knox, Ky., where he is stationed after spending ten days here with his parents.

Mission Hospital of Asheville. Since her graduation from the latter she has been connected with the Haywood County Hospital here.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lora Lee Poss, of Washington, Ga., and the late Mr. Poss. He was educated in the Washington schools and is now located in Waynesville, where he is in business.

The young couple will make their home here.

Local Legion Auxiliary Members Attended School Of Instruction at Oteen

On Monday Mrs. T. G. Massie, president of the local Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Harry Millar, member of the finance committee, Mrs. Edna McGee, membership chairman, and Mrs. Colvin Brown, chairman of American education and finance, went to Oteen, government hospital, for a school of instruction.

Information on the following was given: markers for veterans, dental care for injured men, hospitalization, widows and orphans, education and legal matters, and questions of mortuary care.

At noon lunch was enjoyed in the dining room at Oteen facility.

Officer In Command Of Cove Creek CCC Camp To Marry

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnston, of Searcy, Ark., to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nina Louise Johnston, to Lt. Richard Bennett Todd, which will take place at eleven o'clock Monday morning, December 22nd in the Methodist church of Searcy.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Toddy. He is in command of CCC camp, 415, of Cove Creek. He is a graduate of The Citadel, of Charleston, and is a member of the R. O. T. C.

Legion and Auxiliary To Hold Meeting Tonight

The American Legion and Auxiliary will hold the regular December meeting tonight at the Legion Home on Depot street. All members are urged to attend.

Robert McLean left Monday for Tuscaloosa, Ala., where he will spend the Christmas holidays with his cousins, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Hassell. En route he will stop in Chattanooga, Tenn., for a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan were the guests last week for a brief visit of their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Jasper Morgan, in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bushnell, Jr., and young daughter have taken an apartment in the home of Mrs. J. M. Mock and will be located here for a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medford and sons, James and Joel, of Hazelwood, visited in Murphy and Hiwassee Dam recently.

Mrs. Horace Frost, of Elizabethton, Tenn., has arrived to spend the winter here with her sister, Mrs. John N. Shoobred.

Mrs. Frank Smathers left during the week for her winter home in Miami after spending several days here with her sisters, Miss Nanette and Miss S. A. Jones. Mrs. Smathers was called to town on account of the illness and death of her mother, the late Mrs. S. A. Jones.

Mrs. John N. Shoobred had as her guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. George Toncray, of Johnson City, Tenn.

Mrs. T. L. McHone had as her guests over the week-end Mr. Luther Powers and her daughter, Mrs. Beulah Moore, of Asheville, and Mrs. Ed Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Knight, Kathryn and Eloise Knight, spent the week-end in Greer, S. C., with Mr. and Mrs. Massingill.

Mrs. George Bischoff and daughters, Ann and Nancy, visited Mrs. Bischoff's mother, Mrs. A. Ashe, in Whittier Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Underwood and two sons, Mrs. Ed Underwood and Floyd Underwood visited relatives in Bryson City Sunday.

Mrs. Richard Gerranger and two daughters left Sunday for Wilmington, where they will reside for an indefinite time.

Mrs. James L. Obenschain and two daughters, Barbara Gail and Mariam Joyce, left Saturday for Columbia, S. C., for an extended visit with Mrs. Obenschain's parents. Mr. Obenschain accompanied them there returning Sunday.

Lt. James Harden Howell, of Fort Jackson, spent the week-end in town with his parents, Major and Mrs. J. H. Howell.

Jack Ferguson and young son, of Deerfield, N. J., arrived on Monday for a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Boone Ferguson.

Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Stretcher have gone to Florida and will visit several points before returning home.

Seymore Clarke, who has been confined to his bed for the past several weeks, left Tuesday for the government hospital at Oteen, for examinations.

Smart Lines

Smart taupe woolen coat By VERA WINSTON

THE BASQUE silhouette is very good for the untrimmer coat that must rely on line and cut for its chic. This one, in taupe woolen, has slot seaming horizontally placed across the bodice to the hips where it meets the shirring of the belt-like flange. The back of the coat is straight and flat. A small high round collar adds a youthful note.

Miss Killian Gives Dinner For Lt. and Mrs. David Stentz

Miss Ellen Louise Killian was hostess on Saturday evening of a dinner party as a courtesy to Lt. and Mrs. David Stentz. The Christmas motif was observed throughout the appointments and decorations.

Following dinner bingo was enjoyed with a number of attractive prizes awarded the winners, and a grand prize was given the winner of the largest number of individual prizes.

The guest list was composed of the following: Lt. and Mrs. David Stentz, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Massie, Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Weatherby, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ketter.

Also Mr. and Mrs. James Queen, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Bushnell, Miss Sara Jane Walker, Mrs. Rosalyn Ray Collins, and Lt. James Harden Howell, of Fort Jackson.

Private Joe Sloan, of Fort Jackson, spent the week-end in town with his family.

Lt. and Mrs. David Stentz left Monday for Selfridge Field, Mich. They had planned to spend another week with their families, but the former received a wire to report to duty at once.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Seawell had as their guests at the Hotel LeFaine over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris, of Chicago, who were en route to Florida.

Miss Margaret Stringfield will give a paper on Christmas music, prepared by the late Mrs. Camp.

The meeting will be held at "Windover," the home of Mrs. James Harden Howell, hostess of the afternoon. Mrs. S. H. Bushnell, regent, will preside.

Ben Carter, of Knoxville, was the guest of friends in town over the week-end.

Miss Hester Ann Withers spent the week-end with friends in Birmingham and Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Bobbie Platt, student at Mars Hill College, spent the week-end in town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Platt.

Mrs. W. A. Hyatt is spending sometime in Newport News with her son, Lochlan Hyatt.

Miss Betty Gene and Miss Mary Lee Alley, who are attending Montreat Junior College, spent the week-end in town with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gwyn have returned from a trip to Wilmington, Del., and New York City.

Jack Smith, who is stationed at Fort Jackson, spent the week-end here with Mrs. Smith.

Miss Virginia Whitner had as her guest last week, Elmer Dudley, of Indian Head, Maryland.

ADD PRESS FREEDOM She-You newspaper men are all alike; you try to squeeze every girl you meet.

He-Freedom of the press, baby, freedom of the press!-Princetonian of South Dakota State College.

Mrs. Jimmy Boyd Hostess Of UDC Meeting Friday

Mrs. Jimmy Boyd was hostess to the members of the Haywood chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy for the December meeting, which was held at her home on Friday evening.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell gave an interesting account of the general convention held recently in Los Angeles, reading excerpts from the papers of that city giving the details of the meeting. She outlined the number of prizes won by North Carolina, the state making an outstanding record of achievement during the year.

Mrs. Thad N. Howell, chairman of the annual UDC declamation contest held in the high school, stated that she had presented the contests to the students.

Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt was appointed chairman to be responsible for the Christmas cheer for the two Haywood county veterans of the War Between the States.

Announcement was made of the January meeting which will be held with Mrs. John M. Queen as hostess.

Methodist Women Give Annual Dinner Tuesday

Approximately 125 women of the First Methodist church attended the annual dinner given by the woman's society of Christian Service in the dining room of the church on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. J. Harden Howell, retiring president, presiding.

Mrs. Bonner Ray was in charge of the program, which proved to be of unusual interest. Reports were presented from each circle. Toasts were given to Mrs. Howell, individually, and to the officers as a group, and to Mrs. J. R. Boyd and six daughters.

Corsages were presented to Mrs. John K. Boone, Mrs. H. B. West, and Mrs. P. L. Turbyfill, pioneer members of the society. Vocal numbers were given by Mrs. Fred Martin and Mrs. Fred Calhoun.

The tables were arranged in the Christmas motif and lighted with red candles.

Dr. S. P. Gay has returned from Miami, Fla., where he went on business. While there he also attended the state meeting of the Florida Dental Society. Dr. Gay made the return trip from Miami by plane.

Prof. and Mrs. E. J. Robeson had as their guests over the week-end the latter's brother, G. S. Ferguson, Jr., of Washington, D. C., member of the federal trade board.

Auto Scion Weds

Jack Forker Chrysler, auto scion, is shown with his bride, the former Edith Helen Backus, beautiful magazine cover model, after they were married in St. Bartholomew's Church in New York City.

DAR Meeting Will Be In Memory Of Late Mrs. Camp

The December meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be in the nature of a memorial to the late Mrs. Florence Camp, a former regent and for more than 25 years an active worker.

New Methodist Pastor and Wife To Hold Open House

Rev. J. Clay Madison, pastor of the First Methodist church, and Mrs. Madison will be at home on Friday evening to the members of the congregation.

The hours are from 7 to 9 o'clock and all those attending the church are cordially invited to call.

Ruth Burgin, Brevard College Senior, Attended State Student's Meeting

Miss Ruth Burgin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hurst Burgin, was one of the four representatives sent from Brevard College last week to the state-wide Students' Council meeting which was held in Raleigh.

Miss Burgin, a graduate of the local township high school, is a member of the senior class at Brevard College this year.

Mrs. Wade Snow, of Pilot Mountain, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards.

Methodist Women Of Waynesville District To Meet

A Christmas party and which include the children's in the church schools children's secretaries in the an's Society of Christian ministers and ministers' wives the Waynesville district, held at the Cullowhee church on Monday, December 7.

Each person attending to bring a gift to be sent Children's Home for the there from the Waynesville district.

An interesting program given in the church on Sunday from 11 to 12:30 o'clock. Lunch will be served by the of the hostess church. During luncheon hour a program of readings and stunts will be held. From 2 to 3 o'clock in the noon the various groups will for discussions.

Miss Debrayda Fisher and Alice Stringfield spent the end in Greenville, S. C., with former's sister and brother Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tramm.

Lester Burgin, Jr., who attending Mars Hill College Sunday with his parents, Mr. Mrs. Lester Burgin on the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Howell as their guests over the week-end Sergeant Samuel R. Morrison Camp Croft, and Miss Keaton, of Asheville.

Christmas Baking

Arrange now to let us bake your Christmas cakes. Place your orders early all kinds of baked goods cakes-pies-cookies-decorated novelties.

We expect a heavy volume business Christmas week. your order placed now you will not be disappointed.

Come in and let us talk about the nice variety we have.

Waynesville Bakery Phone 73-W

Advertisement for Davis-Smith Jewellers featuring watches. Includes the slogan 'GIVE A WATCH for Christmas!', 'Just Arrived LATEST MODELS', and lists brands like HAMILTON, BELGIN, BULOVA, WALTHAM, and GRUEN. Promotes a 'Waltham Christmas Special' with 'Diamonds and Jewelry'.

Large advertisement for Belk's department store. Features the headline 'A Pre-Christmas CLEARANCE OF ALL READY-TO-WEAR For Women and Children NOW AT HALF PRICE'. Includes a list of reduced dress and coat prices and the slogan 'Remember - You Always Save At BELK-HUDSON CO.'.