

Mountaineers To Meet Crabtree In Double Bill Here

On Friday night the local high school basketball teams will have a chance to stop the invading Crabtree forces on the local hardwood.

The local boys were victorious last Tuesday night in their tilt with the Clyde boys, 33-5, but the girls failed to make the grade and lost to the Clyde girls, 29-22.

The Crabtree team has always made stiff competition for the locals and this game has every evidence of bearing this out to the fullest.

The boys' team will participate next week in the Gold Medal Tournament which is to be held in Canton.

Mountaineers Split With Clyde Teams

After the strong Clyde high school girls' team had beaten the local girls here last Tuesday night in the opening bid of a twin bill, 29-22, the local boys' team came back determined to make up for the defeat. The locals won to the tune of a very lop-sided verdict, 33-5.

SOUTHERN WILDLIFE

Go West
 It has been disclosed by records secured by banding birds that the redhead duck migrates east-west and not north-south as is customary for most waterfowl. Seems the old duck got redheaded about something and took out the other way.
 Good Morning, Mother
 You never know when a surprise awaits you—especially if you are a lady bear. Bear cubs have a way of catching mama bear napping. The stork of the bear world always arrives in the middle of winter when all decent lady bears are hibernating. No wonder a mother bear is "sore-headed" when she comes out of her den in the

Deer Fight
 Four hunters had an interesting story to tell about a fight between two bucks which occurred just before the deer season opened. The battle had been going on quite a while before the party came upon them. They had dragged each other through a barbed wire fence, torn down two oak posts and were fighting in a dried-up slough. Their horns were locked and the younger buck was winning the fight, having forced his elder adversary to the ground.
 One of the hunters took careful aim with his rifle, and with an expert shot, severed the horn of the victor, who immediately bounded over a hill, narrowly missing one of the spectators.
 The other buck rested for a few minutes, then rose and charged the men, who beat a hasty retreat. The buck next charged the car, and nearly knocked himself cock-eyed. After that he settled down in the weeds to recuperate, finally getting up once more and leaving the scene.
