

Two Murder Cases To Be Continued Until July Term

a month for their support.

Sykes Ledford, charged with larceny, was given 15 months suspended sentence for five years and was placed on probation.

Howard Ricker, charged with assault, was sentenced to 12 months hard work on the roads.

Charles J. Burnett, charged with driving while drunk, was fined $50 and the costs of the action.

Iolet Jenkins, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was ordered to pay the costs of the action and $25 to the prosecuting witness, and he and his family to attend church and Sunday school regularly for a period of eight years, unless unavoidably detained at home.

The following divorces were granted: Beulah Potts from George C. Potts; W. J. Allen from Belle Allen; Juanita Sumner from Richard Sumner; and Gertrude Subor from Odell Subor.

DEATHS

MRS. JOHN SUTTON

Last rites were held on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the home on Upper Cove Creek for Mrs. Matilda Sutton, 72, wife of John Sutton, who died at 8 o'clock P. M. Monday at the home of her son George Sutton on the Asheville Road. The Rev. Frank Leatherwood officiated. Burial was in the Upper Cove Creek cemetery.

Mrs. Sutton is survived by her husband, five sons, George Sutton, of Waynesville; Pearson, Nealas, Harrison and Robert, all of Cove Creek; four daughters, Mrs. Zora Silvers, Mrs. Nancy Messer, Mrs. Mandy Franklin and Mrs. Frankie Franklin, all of Cove Creek; one sister, Mrs. Caroline Burgess, of Cove Creek; a large number of grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

GERALD FRANKLIN

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Spring Hill Baptist Church near Canton for Gerald Franklin, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Franklin, who reside near Bethel, the child having died at 9:30 Friday morning in the Haywood County Hospital. His death, followed by a short illness, was due to pneumonia. Officiating were Rev. Thomas Erwin and the Rev. Ball Rogers. Burial was in the Long's Church cemetery in Henson Cove.

Surviving are the parents; three brothers, Charles, Raymond, and Earl; three sisters, Wilma, Pearlene and Emily, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Shipman.

Wells funeral home in Canton was in charge of the arrangements.
