

Carolyn Rose Becomes Bride Of Dr. John Champneys Taylor

Miss Carolyn Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Emerson Rose, of Waynesville and Chicago, became the bride of Dr. John Champneys Taylor, of Jacksonville, Fla., in a ceremony Friday in the John Timothy Stone Chapel of the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago.

The Rev. Harrison Ray Anderson pronounced the vows. A program of wedding music was presented prior to the ceremony.

The bride wore a powder blue suit with white sailor hat trimmed with navy blue veiling. Her accessories were in navy blue and she carried a small colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Calvin Houghland, of Nashville, Tenn., cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Dr. Richard Porter Taylor, father of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Rose, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue suit with white French blouse.

The bride attended the College Preparatory School of Cincinnati, St. Catherine's in Richmond, Va., and was graduated from the Girls' Latin school of Chicago. She studied at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago for three years and for the past two years has been doing work over NBC and CBS networks.

Dr. Taylor received his bachelor of science degree at the University of Florida, and his M. D. degree from Yale University. He is now at the Mayo Foundation in Rochester, where he holds a fellowship.

The young couple will reside temporarily in Rochester, pending the time when Dr. Taylor receives his commission in the naval medicine.

Lt. Grover M. Davis To Marry Florida Girl Early In June

The following from the Fort Lauderdale Daily News will be of interest locally:

"Mr. and Mrs. D. Clifford Alexander have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Betty Lou, to Dr. Grover M. Davis, lieutenant, junior grade of the U. S. Navy. The two families have been friends for more than ten years. Dr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Davis, of Waynesville.

"The wedding will take place early in June at the First Presbyterian church of Fort Lauderdale, with the Rev. Dr. John G. King officiating.

"Mr. Alexander, originally from Cleveland, settled in this city in 1910 and with a vision for the future, purchased and developed 'Las Olas by the Sea.' Mrs. Alexander came here as a bride from Chicago in 1915 and is prominent in social activities.

"The bride-elect is a native of Fort Lauderdale, and a graduate of the local schools, in the class of 1936, with honors. She attended John B. Stetson University of Deland. She achieved the honor roll, was elected sweetheart of Delta Sigma Phi and was prominent in many other campus activities. She is a member of the Junior Woman's Club and of the Fort Lauderdale Panhellenic Association.

"Lt. Davis is a graduate of the Waynesville schools, in the class of 1934, after which he attended Davidson College. He received his DDS degree in 1940 from the Atlanta Southern Dental College, where he joined Psi Omega dental fraternity, and was assistant editor of the school paper. For the past two years he has been in private practice. He volunteered in the navy and since March has been stationed at the Marine Base Hospital at Quantico, Va."

Mrs. J. Dale Stentz will be in charge of the music. Hostesses of the afternoon in addition to Mrs. Davis will include: Mrs. W. T. Crawford, Mrs. Ruth Beaty, Miss Mary S. Ector, and Mrs. Linwood Grahl.

When a Child Needs a Laxative!

Your child should like this tasty liquid laxative and you should like the gentle way it usually wakes up a youngster's lax intestines when given by the simple directions.

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT contains the same principal ingredient which has enabled its elder brother BLACK-DRAUGHT to give so many users such satisfying relief for so many years!

Perhaps that's why it usually gives a child such refreshing relief when the familiar symptoms indicate a laxative is needed.

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT comes in 2 sizes. The introductory size is 2oz; the economy size is 5oz.
