Made Outstanding Record At Wake Forest College

James Crisp, son of Mr. and Mrs J. A. Crisp, of Brevard, and grandson of Mrs. F. A. Burgin, of Way nesville, who has made an exceptional record at Wake Forest Colege, is now employed at Newport

Ranking high in scholastic honors young Crisp was prominent in student activities, including membership in the Euzelian Literary Society, vice president-elect of the International Relations club past head of the program committee, senior class representativeelect of the student legislature, and member of the Delta Kappa Alpha honorary fraternity, for high ranking student preparatory for the ministry.

Young Crisp attended Brevard College before going to Wake Forest. He has often visited his relatives here in Waynesville,

Grandson of Mrs. Burgin Exploding Gas Tanks Tuesday Morning Leaves Wreckage

These Waynesville firemen are four of the 25 who fought the flames throughout the early morning. They are looking over the ruins of the Caldwell hone. David Underwood, extreme right, is pointing to where one of the three bodies was found. Fireman left to right are: Tom Gilliland, Jack Edwards, W. F. Strange and David Underwood.

This is the remains of the house where Charlie Bryson and family lived. The front porch is completely knocked off, all windows are out, chimneys down, and all plastering in the house is off. On the will take advantage of such the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed other side the weatherboarding was blown off. In the extreme right, under the tree can be seen the smouldering ruins of the Caldwell home. Other explosion pictures on page 4.

New Fall Zipper College Town Tu-Season Coats

The choice of the SMART YOUNG SET

AS THE weather goes, so goes your A "Tu-Season" Coat. On blustery days, in zips the snug lining, and you're warm as a mussin. When it gets balmy again, out zips the lining, and you saunter forth in a trim, man-tailored top coat.
