Jacob Seeks God's Help

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON 8-29

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for August 30 is Genesis 31-33...

JACOB LIVED with Laban, his mother's brother, for 20 years. He prospered, although Laban did not always treat him well...

Laban found out that his images had been stolen, and thinking Jacob had done it he started pursuit. He overtook Jacob on the seventh day...

Laban found out that his images had been stolen, and thinking Jacob had done it he started pursuit. He overtook Jacob on the seventh day...

Laban then asked Jacob to make a covenant with him, and Jacob had his servants pile up stones and Laban said, "This heap is a witness between me and thee this day..."

The messengers brought word that Esau was coming to meet him, and with him were 400 armed men. This terrified Jacob still more...

He then prepared a princely gift for his brother of "goats, sheep, camels and horses, and told his servants to go ahead and present them to Esau..."

When Jacob saw his brother coming next morning, he put his female servants and their children in front, and his wives and children last...

It is hard for us to see Esau as a good man. He was a trickster, a liar, and a coward, and Esau appears to us to be the better man. But Jacob had some courage and great determination...
