

News Of Many Haywood Men In Armed Forces

Flight Officer

JACK HOGAN
Hogan Receives Of Flight Officer

Hogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hogan, who is an aviation student in basic training at the Advance Flying School, Brady, has recently received the rank of flight officer. He has been in the service for the past 21 months, having volunteered in August, 1940. He was first stationed at MacDill Field, Tampa,

Harry Conard Visits Parents At Hazelwood

Major Harry Conard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Conard, of Hazelwood, who was inducted at McPherson 19 months ago, returned several days here with his parents during the past week. He is stationed at Fort Bragg, where he has seen service at a number of posts, having been stationed at Wheeler, Camp Dix, (N. J.) and Camp Clairborne, since he was inducted into the service.

Harry Gaddis Has Day Furlough

Harry Gaddis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaddis, of Company 101st Glider Infantry, 101st Air Division, Camp Clairborne, left Wednesday after spending several days here with his parents. Gaddis has been in the service since March 12th. He held a post with the Waynesville Laundry prior to his enlistment.

Sam L. Inman Visits Parents In Clyde

Sam L. Inman, who is stationed at Camp Bruber, has been home on a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Inman in Clyde. Sgt. Inman volunteered in Asheville five months ago and has been stationed at Fort Bragg and Camp Croft to his present post. He is in the Medical Corps of the Army.

Wood Boy Returns Camp In New York

Jesse Moore, of Madison Barracks, N. Y., has returned after spending a week's leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Moore, of the Rat-Cove section.

Arthur W. Pace Visits Mother near Canton

Arthur W. Pace, who has been on maneuvers since July, spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Kate Pace, at her home in Canton, route 3. Sergeant Pace is stationed at Fort Bragg and has been in the service since August, 1940.

Soldier Feels The Need Of More Mail

Sergeant Milford Scruggs, who is stationed at Camp Gordon, would like to correspond with friends and anyone who would care to write from "back home." Sergeant Scruggs' address is, Sgt. Milford Scruggs, Co. B. 8th Inf., Camp Gordon, Ga.

Classifications Made During Past Week

The following classifications were made by the local draft board during the week: placed in class 1-A were Clyde Thomas Mills, William Boone Chambers, Ralph Williams, James Edward Inman, Hardy Smith.

Placed in class 1-B were William Earl Crawford, Joe Lyton McElroy, and Hubert Turner Davis.

Put in class 1-C were Hurley Goodwin Brown and Ben Bryson Gaddy.

Hugh Dennis Welch and Lee Jackson Ferguson were placed in class 2-A. Marshall Wilson Hannah was put in class 2-B.

Placed in class 3-A were Posey Alfred Blackwell, Albert Laurence Trantham and Lee Rathbone.

Put in class 4-F were Mark Lee Smith, Browdy Medford Messer and Holbert Hall.

Sergeant C. H. Smith "Somewhere Overseas"

Sergeant Charles H. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Smith, of Waynesville, route 2, who is with the U. S. Army Air Corps, is "somewhere overseas," it has been learned here this week.

Pvt. Robt. L. Underwood Now At Keesler Field

Private Robert L. Underwood, youngest son of Mrs. R. L. Underwood, of East Waynesville, is now stationed at Keesler Field, Miss. Private Underwood has been accepted as a candidate for training in the U. S. Army Air Corps. Prior to entering the service he was employed by the Pet Milk Products Company.

Carl G. Underwood Now Stationed In Alaska

Carl G. Underwood, U. S. Navy, son of Mrs. R. L. Underwood, of East Waynesville, is now stationed in Alaska, where he is serving with the electrical engineers in the quartermaster corps.

Before volunteering for service in April, he was office manager of the Carolina Power and Light Company of Raeford. His naval record is that of chief electrician's mate, with the rank of petty officer, first class.

His wife, the former Miss Helen Hollowell, of Sanford, is employed in the office of the Federal Unemployment agency of Sanford.

Promoted To Captain

CAPTAIN C. M. EDWARDS, Jr., son of Prof. and Mrs. C. M. Edwards, of Durham, who is now stationed at Fort Jackson, was recently promoted to captain U. S. Army.

Lt. Comdr. Haviland In Command Whidbey Island

Lieut. Commander Willis Bradley Haviland, veteran of World War 1, is now commanding officer at Whidbey Island, U. S. Naval Air Station.

During the last World War Commander Haviland won distinctive recognition. He received the French Croix de Guerre, with two palms, Italian War Cross, Belgian War Cross, and the American Distinguished Service Cross.

He served in the Lafayette Escadrille and was commissioned a Lieutenant in the U. S. Navy when this country entered the conflict in World War 1. He served as executive officer at Navy Air Station at Dunkirk and was later sent to Porto Casme, Italy as commander of the Navy Air Force.

Commander Haviland and Eddie McDonald were the first officers to fly off an American battleship. Commander Haviland also enjoys the distinction of having trained the first thirty officers who flew off a battleship at Hampton Roads, and Mitchell Field, Long Island.

Mrs. Haviland is the former Miss Lucile Satterthwaite, daughter of Mrs. S. C. Satterthwaite and the late Mr. Satterthwaite, of Waynesville, and is spending some time here with her sister, Mrs. Ernest L. Withers, while her husband is in the service.

Wood cores in a new-type rubber heel have 28 per cent of the rubber used formerly.

Agar, the dried, gelatinous extract from red seaweed, is useful medicinally because it is tasteless and indigestible, and resists the action of both intestinal bacteria and digestive juices.

Steel ball bearings perfected for use in airplane instruments have diameters of less than .04 inch and weigh .000144 ounce each.

The London (England) Passenger Transport Board estimates that by reducing ticket thickness .004 of an inch, it will save 480 tons of paper a year.

William Robt Stillwell Promoted To Corporal

Pvt. Stillwell, who left here on July 18, 1941 has been promoted to Corporal at the Advance Flying School at Albuquerque, N. M. Pvt. Stillwell attended the Hazelwood school and the district high school. Prior to entering the service he was employed by the Unagusta Manufacturing Company.

Corporal Stillwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Stillwell, of Hazelwood, volunteered and was inducted at Fort McPherson. After four weeks there he was transferred to Army Air base at Barksdale Field, Shreveport, where he was stationed for five months. He was then sent to the Advance Flying school at Albuquerque, where he spent three months and was then transferred to Fort Bliss, Texas, for 7 weeks special training. After completion of the course he was transferred back to Albuquerque, where he was promoted to Pvt. First Class and then to Corporal.

James A Stanbury Returns From Foreign Service With U. S. Navy

James A. Stanbury, first class gunner mate, of the U. S. Navy, has returned to New York after spending a week in Bryson City with his grandfather Rev. John Stanbury, a former pastor in Hazelwood. Pvt. Stanbury has just returned from Egypt and other war zones.

He is the son of Baxter Stanbury and the late Mrs. Stanbury who was killed in a car wreck in Charlotte in 1932. His mother, the former Miss Mary DeHart, is the sister of Mrs. W. C. Stillwell, of Hazelwood.

B. C. Stillwell, U. S. Navy Has "Unknown Address"

Burke C. Stillwell, radioman, 2nd class, U. S. Navy, has an "unknown address" at present, according to members of his family. While his letters come to his family by air mail, it takes them from 8 to 10 days to reach here.

Young Stillwell, who is only 18 entered the service in October, 1941. The last visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stillwell of Hazelwood, was made in January just before he left for foreign duty. Prior to his entering the service he was employed at Hardin's Grill on the Balsam Road. His father, W. C. Stillwell is a veteran of World War 1, having served with the 30th Division in 1917 and '18.

At Selfridge

PVT. LAWRENCE C. ROTEN

Pvt. Lawrence C. Roten Now At Selfridge Field

Pvt. Lawrence C. Roten, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Roten, of Dellwood, is now stationed at Selfridge Field, Mich. He was inducted into the service at Ft. Bragg, on April 8, 1942, and was assigned to the Air Corps. He was given his basic training at Sheppard Field Technical School, Texas. Later he went on maneuvers in North Michigan with the 326 Material Squadron 308 Air Base group.

Prior to his induction he was an automotive service man, and his record shows more than 6,000 cars serviced in 14 years.

Lt. Joseph V. Davis Home For Vacation

Joseph V. Davis, second lieutenant, in the M. A. A. S. U., who is attending the medical school of the University of North Carolina, is spending two weeks here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Davis. Young Davis received his commission last June.

Pvt. Ben Ferguson Home For Ten Days

Pvt. First Class Ben Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ferguson, of Clyde, route 1, who is now stationed at Camp Polk, La., arrived on Wednesday to spend ten days with his parents. He has been in service for the past six months and was inducted at Fort Bragg. From the latter he was transferred to Camp Polk where he has since been stationed.

Ben Colkitt, U. S. Naval Air Cadet Visits Home

Ben Colkitt, U. S. Naval Air Cadet, spent several days last week with his parents, Mr. and Ben Colkitt. He came here from the Naval Hospital in Charleston, and expects to be transferred soon to the University of Georgia where he is taking his flight training. Young Colkitt graduated during the year from Davidson College.

Lt. Comdr. Mint Reed Promoted to Colonel

Lieutenant Commander Minthorne W. Reed, U. S. Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Reed, has recently been promoted to colonel, it was learned from the Boston war information center, from an announcement by Brig. Gen. J. J. Cannon.

Col. Reed, who is located in Boston, is in charge of the protection of the New England area. He has made an outstanding record in the years he has been in the service. This is his second promotion during the past few months.

Pvt. Luther Gaddis Transfers To Ft. Bragg

Private First Class Luther Gaddis, who volunteered in the U. S. Army in 1940 has recently been transferred from Fort Benning, Ga., to Ft. Bragg, where he is attached to the 2nd Armored Division, Engineers. Pvt. Gaddis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gaddis, of Chestnut Park Drive, of Waynesville.

Sergeant Thad Chafin Visits Family Here

Sergeant Thad Chafin, who is stationed at Fort Jackson, has returned to camp after spending the past week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Chafin at their home on the Fairview Road.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as Administrator of the Estate of Henry R. Winchester, deceased, late of Haywood County, N. C., this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate to exhibit them to the undersigned at Waynesville, N. C. on or before the 2nd day of September, 1942, or this notice will be pleaded in bar thereof. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement. This September 2, 1942.

R. L. PREVOST, Administrator. No. 1231—Sept. 3-10-17-24-Oct. 1-8

At Fort Bragg

PRIVATE MILLARD BUCHANAN, 20, son of Merrit Buchanan, of the Allen's Creek section, who is now stationed at Fort Bragg. Pvt. Buchanan entered the service on June 15, 1940, and is now with the 97th field artillery.

A common method of filling shells with TNT is to heat the explosive, which resembles brown sugar at normal temperatures, to just above its melting point and pour it directly into the shell.

NOTICE SERVING SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

NORTH CAROLINA, HAYWOOD COUNTY.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT. JENNIE R. HENRY, SALLIE LOU JUSTICE, ELIZABETH MOODY, RECTOR MOODY, W. H. LINER, MYRTLE CONNELL, WALTER CONNELL, ETHEL WATSON, LEONARD LINER, MARY LINER, MARK LINER, JR., ETTA LINER GAMBREL, AND TOWN OF WAYNESVILLE.

The defendants Myrtle Connell, Walter Connell, Ethel Watson, Jess Watson, Leonard Liner, Mary Liner, Mark Liner, Jr., Etta Liner Gambrel, will take notice that action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Haywood County, North Carolina, to foreclose liens for taxes due Haywood County; and said defendants will further take notice that they are required to appear at the Office of the Clerk of Superior Court of said county at the Courthouse in Waynesville, North Carolina, within thirty (30) days after the 5th day of October, 1942, and answer or demur to the Complaint of said action or the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said Complaint. This the 2nd days Sept., 1942. KATE WILLIAMSON, Asst. Clerk Superior Court, Haywood County. No. 1234—Sept. 3-10-17-24.

VICTORY

WORKING men and women of America—you are using a powerful weapon against the enemy, in your regular purchase of War Bonds. This Labor Day you are asked to enroll in the Payroll Savings Plan one hundred percent! So if you know any worker who has not yet pledged 10% every payday purchase, do you utmost to urge his participation! You are working to full capacity to win this war, and when you buy more War Bonds you back yourself—and our fighting men!

Unagusta Manufacturing Company Hazelwood

LABOR DAY We Work Today—That We May Celebrate Victory Tomorrow

LABOR DAY

Is A Great American Institution

Labor has always been a vital cog in the Wheel that is America, and it is only proper that we should pay homage this day to America's army of laborers.

Royle & Pilkington Co., Inc.

HAZELWOOD PHONE 200

