India Continues Most Baffling Political Problem

By CHARLES P. STEWART (Central Press Columnist) WASHINGTON—India is more of a mystery to official Washington than China or Japan. We're very well acquainted and friendly with quite a few prominent Chinese and at least think we understand their people's temperament and mentality more or less.

Consequently the Mohandas K. Gandhi affair has the U. S. capital guessing. It is anti-Gandhi, of course, but it's uncertain whether Mohandas is his first name or a mistake for "mahatma."

Gandhi A Pacifist

The old guy is a pacifist of the most pronounced type; that has been widely advertised. Yet he has announced that India will be "all out" for the United Nations if the British grant it immediate independence.

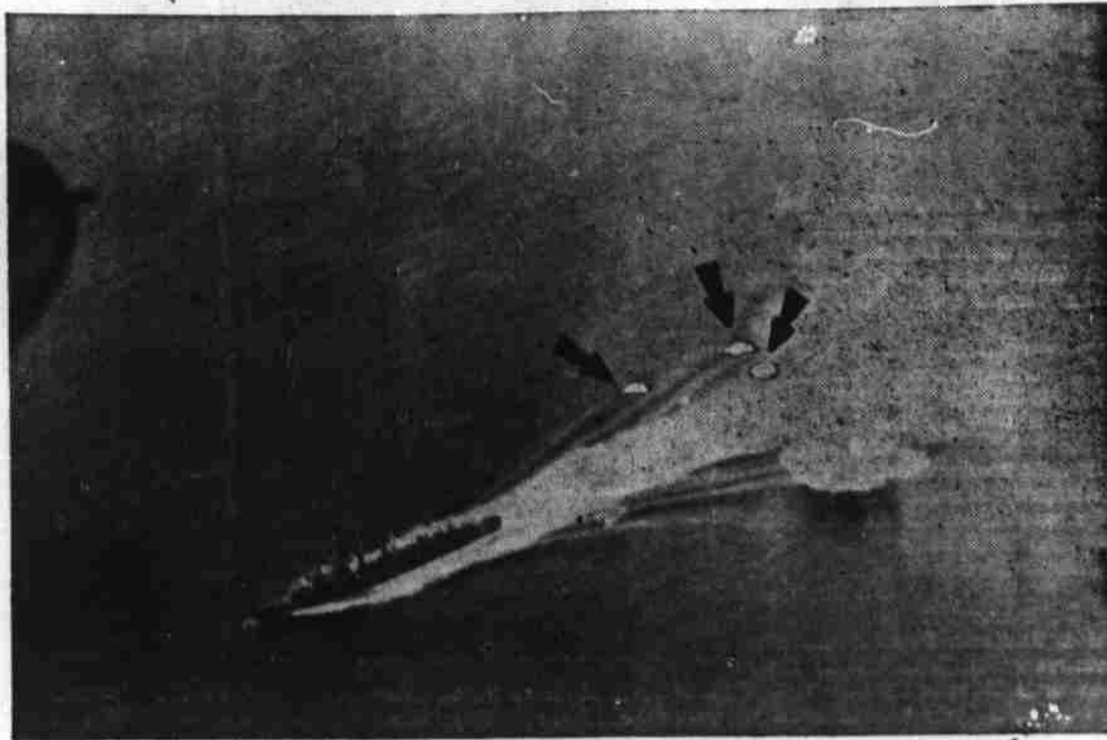

high school he was active in Future Farmers and school activities. He is past president of his local chapter, an American Farmer, in 1940 and was awarded a trip to Kansas City.

His supervised practice work has been of the highest type, starting with four projects in 1937-38, with a return of $195, and his program this year was completed with 21 projects amounting to $2,000.

One of the twenty-one projects this year consisted of 200 capons. In addition to his farm supervised practice work young Arrington has made a record as a public speaker, having won second place in the state contest for the past two years.

He has represented the school and the local chapter of FFA on numerous occasions in varied capacities. He was recently awarded a scholarship to State College by Sears Roebuck and Company.

U. S. Destroyer Sinks U-Boat in Atlantic

Official U. S. Coast Guard Photo. Geysers of water are shown shooting into the ozone as this U. S. destroyer sows her depth charges. After dropping the charges, oil slicks and bubbles (arrows) appeared, indicating that a lurking enemy sub had been destroyed.

while he promises post-war independence, he balks on it at present.

Maybe one reason for this reluctance is a British apprehension that independence would split India wide open. Gandhi calls his outfit the All-India Congress.

It is a bunch that he controls completely, but how "all" is it, relative to total India? Perhaps it is in a majority, but India has quite a mixed population.

Theoretically Gandhi's crowd are unmitigated pacifists. Yet there are a lot of other aggregations that are as scrappy as can be.

The truth is that pacifists are meaner fighters than anybody else, when once they take the warpath. "Second Messiah" A few years ago I heard Gandhi mentioned, by as consequential individuals as congressmen (I could name some of them) as a possibility as a "second Messiah".

Washington is adequately posted on politics but it is stumped by India's quality of them. Parliament Hill in London may have an inkling of them, but not Capital Hill. It is a new kind of political ### for this country.

The point is that about half of India is pro-United Nations. About half of the remainder is pacifistic. And approximately half of what's left is all split up.

That is, he is a pest to the United Nations. I suppose he is a blessing to the Axis. He probably doesn't intend to be, to the latter, but obviously that's what he is.

It's easy to travel down hill, but it's probably better to stand still. One isn't likely to meet with success by casually walking down the road.

Second Caledonia Cattle Sale To Be Held Sept. 12

Raleigh—T. Lenoir Gwyn, supervisor of cattle at Caledonia Prison farm and head of cattle purchasing for the State Highway and Public Works Commission, has announced the second sale of Hereford cattle will be held at Caledonia farm Saturday, September 12.

Gwyn said there would be four car loads of cattle, or approximately 150 head, which would include fine bulls, breeding heifers, feeder calves and feeder steers.

First sale held on August 30 brought $4,611.98 for 76 cattle. This group was composed of heifers, feeder calves and feeder steers.

Gwyn said the September 12 sale would be the second in a series of 12 sales to be held under the Revolving Fund operation jointly by the State Highway Commission and the State Department of Agriculture.

The sales are conducted by Gwyn, who pools his talents between the State Highway Commission and the Department of Agriculture, and Paul Fletcher of the Markets Division. All cattle are purchased in western North Carolina and resold at Caledonia at the same price plus shipping and handling expense, which still gives the eastern North Carolinians a chance to buy cattle cheaper than they would normally if they had to pay for smaller individual shipments.

Counties represented in the first sale were Wilson, Halifax, Edgecombe, Pitt, Camden, and Currituck. Gwyn, accompanied by prison director Oscar Pitts, will attend cattle sales at Clyde and Asheville September 3-4, at which time more stock will be bought for future sales.
