

Rozella Wiggins Dameron Is Wedded To Charles David Hyatt

The marriage of Miss Rozella Wiggins Dameron, daughter of Mrs. William Henry Dameron, of Warrenton, to Charles David Hyatt, of Wilmington, was solemnized in a ceremony Saturday evening, October 31, at 8 o'clock at the Wesley Memorial Methodist church here. Mr. Hyatt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, of Waynesville.

The Rev. E. R. Clegg, pastor, officiated in the double ring ceremony. The altar was banked with pine and fern as a background for the tall floor baskets of white chrysanthemums and branched candelabra.

Mrs. John Cole Burwell, organist, gave a program of wedding music, including "Meditation to St. Clothilde," by Phillippe; "The Swan," by Saint-Saens; "Andante" from "Fifth Symphony," by Tschakowsky. Miss Josephine Dameron of Warrenton, sang "Oh Perfect Love" just before the bridal party entered the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her only brother, William Henry Dameron, of Dallas, Tex. She wore a wedding gown of white satin, fashioned along simple lines, with long fitted sleeves pointed over the hands. Her full skirt extended into a train and her veil of illusion fell from a satin cap embroidered in seed pearl. Her only ornament was an old seed pearl necklace belonging to her great-great aunt. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and orchids, showered with stephanotis. Attendants were Mrs. S. A. Robinson, of Rolla, Mo., matron of honor; Mrs. Alvin Coleman, of Raleigh; Miss Esten Cooke, of Lexington; Miss Betsy Taylor, of Warrenton, and Miss Isa Sills Dameron, of Goldsboro, bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of jade green velvet, fashioned along the lines of the bride's gown with matching caps and shoulder veils, and each carried arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums. Mrs. Robinson carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Little Miss Mildred Smith, of

Warrenton, niece of the bride, was flower girl and her frock was also similar to those of the other attendants. She carried a basket of rose petals. Master Kenan Smith, Jr., of Warrenton, a nephew of the bride, carried the rings on a satin pillow. He wore a full dress suit.

Is Best Man
Best man was Lachlan L. Hyatt, of Newport News, Va., brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were C. S. Plaster, of Winston-Salem; Frank Ferguson and Donald M. Hyatt, of Wilmington and William Baskerville, Hugh W. Holt and William W. Taylor, Jr., all of Warrenton.

Mrs. Dameron, the bride's mother, wore green crepe with lavender orchids. Mrs. Hyatt, the bridegroom's mother, wore black and a corsage of orchids.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dameron and the late W. H. Dameron, of Warrenton. She attended Peace College, Raleigh, and was graduated from Hollins College, Roanoke, Va.

The bridegroom attended Duke University, Durham, and holds a position with the North Carolina Shipbuilding Company, Wilmington, where the couple will reside following a wedding trip.

For traveling the bride changed to a three-piece lavender suit with cranberry accessories and wore orchids from her wedding bouquet. Among additional out-of-town guests were Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, Miss Nancy Hyatt, of Waynesville; Mrs. D. M. Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mixer, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Montgomery, C. D. Lanning, all of Wilmington; Mrs. C. S. Plaster, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. L. L. Hyatt, of Newport News, Va.; Mrs. J. W. Furman, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jones, of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Dameron and W. H. Dameron, III, of Goldsboro, and Lieut. Kenan Smith, of the United States army, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hyatt, of Ritchie, Mr.

Reception Held
A reception was held in the Dameron home in South Warrenton following the ceremony. Guests were greeted at the front door by Mrs. A. A. Williams and Mrs. John Dameron and led to the receiving line composed of the wed-
