Long's Chapel To Hold Special Service Sunday

Next Sunday has been designated as Church Loyalty Day in the Long's Chapel Methodist church at Lake Junaluska. In the morning service at 11 o'clock the members will place on the offering plates, which will then be consecrated at the altar, their pledge for the coming year. No contributions are being solicited at this time, but the congregation will indicate their loyalty to their church by making a pledge. The pastor, Miles A. McLean, will preach on "Continuing the Work Begun by Christ," and his text will be "Of all that Jesus began both to do and teach," Act 1:1.

Following the service there will be a dinner for the members of the board of stewards and their families in the church basement. After dinner the stewards will go out that afternoon to complete the every member canvass. Members of the finance committee, who are directing the canvass, are A. J. McCracken, chairman, Mrs. Jerry Liner, Mrs. Guy Fulbright, treasurer. New members of the official board, who are going into office this year for the first time, are Chas. G. Klopp, Andy Moody, Carroll Morrow, and J. R. Soesbee. Other members of the
